COLLOQUIUM SPEAKERS

The College of Library Science is planning its colloquium series for the year and would welcome any suggestions from the Libraries for speakers in the field of academic research librarianship. Address your recommendations to Tom Waldhart, Acting Dean.

MINI-REVIEW

The Reference Department of M.I. King Library has received a new Spec Kit on "gifts and exchange function". The survey of the gifts and exchanges policies of the various research libraries was done by the University of California at Los Angeles Library in the Spring of 1976. Anyone who is interested is welcome to come by and look at the kit. It will be filed in the vertical file behind the Reference Desk.

RECENT LEGISLATION OF INTEREST TO LIBRARIANS

The House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice, continuing its work on the copyright revision bill (S.22), adopted on June 18 three amendments of interest to librarians. There is a discussion of them in the July/Aug. American Libraries, p. 434, and in the Legislative Report of the ALA Washington Office, January - July 1976, available in the Director's Office.

The National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyrighted Works (CONTU), in its effort to provide the subcommittee with guidelines on library photocopying, solicited input from library associations, publishers, and authors, and agreed on June 10 to preliminary guidelines. The guidelines aim to insure that ILL copying will not substitute for necessary journal subscriptions. The library associations (ALA, ARL, SLA, AALL, and Medical and Music LAs) have generally agreed that the guidelines represent a reasonable compromise between the viewpoints of librarians and copyright proprietors.

PATTERSON LITERARY SOCIETY

The Patterson Literary Society, which holds public reading hours in the Gallery each month, is an organization of persons interested in interpretation and public speaking. Its general meetings, as well as the reading hours, are open to the public. The first reading will be held Wednesday, 15 September, from 11-11:50 AM in the Gallery; the first meeting will be held 16 September at 7:30 in the Student Center.

The Society was founded during the administration of Dr. James K. Patterson (1833-1922) for the purpose of encouraging individual and group speech events.
