

P.S. Pardon me not mentioning about the postage stamps. I am very thankful for them. And hope soon to be able to repay the favor. I have given you the wrong direction.

It is 9th Div's Army of the Cumberland.

The Notorious Brig Gen
Jeff C. Davis, who killed Gen Nelson at Lewisville is in Command of our Div's again. He sends his regards. we have returned to the pine trees within 10 miles of Nashville.

I am afraid you will not get a chance to come and see me now as we are so much further away.
and then no prospect of us staying at any one place more than a day or so.

This is one of the roughest countries I ever was in.
Gen Campbell complains of having to "muck rain". On the contrary we are wishing for it all the time. So dusty that it is most awful disagreeable travelling. Having very cool and frosty nights. But so long as General Jackson the so called Confederacy why we will be comfortable.
He has got so he
