

I will send a Photograph of Capt. Sam. Lane, & send the same, if Lizzie does not give me by Mrs. J. M. Lane yet tell him to give the one I am sending and, &c.

Camp at Brandy Station near the Rappahannock
May 11th 1862
Dear Mother,

Having a few leisure moments this beautiful day, I am seated to inform you of my wellfare & whereabouts. I have but a few moments to spare in writing, as we are supposed to be ready to move at any moment &c.

I am well & getting along finely, as you perceive by the heading. The long expected move was taken place On Sunday morning we broke camp & took up our line of march. we crossed the Rappahannock River & came on far as Brandy Station. our whole Corps is with us. The whole Army has not moved yet, but soon will, the
