

Henry sent you a paper last week in direction of Cornwall perhaps you have not got it - because he did not direct it to West-Cornwall L. He received a letter from Albert to day that were all well Amanda script which is as good as the gold.

I would like to have her here when it get warm weather so that they can move into the old house and live by themselves. If we could only go to town tomorrow but it has to sue a man tomorrow so that cannot be.

Have been to David's & find his wife quite sick with Diphtheria. I fear for her life the Dr says that she is pretty bad, it is on her lungs a great deal and that no youngster will reach it.

It intends to go to town tomorrow & I wished to go with him but do not know but I had ought to go there & take care of her, for Dr. Abbott was up has a hard cold and has been up early & late for the week past was here this morning before five her sister is there but has a baby if we get to town I will send some money to C in this

J. Pennell.
M. C. M<sup>rs</sup> Donogh

Henry received this & opened it, to-day Sunday 24th. The check for 50 was enclosed at - After not know when she will go. But if you are not at home next Sunday we will write to you - so you can inform before she goes. Henry is going to Fargenfo to-morrow.
and will take
this with him.

We are all well. Frankie misses Uncle & great deal - She says Uncle way way to "Cornwall" as she calls it. We shall all be glad to have you come home as soon as you can. That awful weather we are having. I have not much room to write
you must write to us - you are a while from you Mother Amanda & B.

I recd your kind letter last night, and was pleased to hear from you all again & to learn that you were well as usual for I had been fearing that you were all sick with the Diphtheria.

Four years ago now I was just married only think of it! you say there is any quantity of snow & it was nearly gone then, the snow is nearly gone here, the fields are quite bare now & begin to look black again we are having some beautiful weather now the sun shines as bright as possible but the roads are bad the ground is pretty well covered with ice & water it rained one day & night & froze so fast as it fell it has thawed since.
yesterday the trees & everything were
