

when he brought me home if I get paid for going I told him yes and thanked him for the pleasure he said my company fully repaid all I was most afraid Willie would ask me but he did not though he asked Ardelia if I wanted to go that was after cousin George insisted me) she told him I was going what is George Burrwell going to do if he don't stay to Uncle Philo's Jennie won't let him go away unless she goes too will she I would not if I were in her place give my love to her when you see her tell her I often think of all the rest of my acquaintances but that is all the good it does it is so funny how chilly all your letters are or have been I can't think what I wrote for my part that made you think I had the chills it does please Mr Post so he just laughed and laughs about it the wind is coming up and it lightens some think perhaps we will have a thunder shower hope it will come before I go to bed if it is coming but Aunt Post's fire is getting down and she has taken off her belt so think I will be leaving will write a little more before sending goodnight Wednesday evening methinks I see you all seated around in our dear old home just about to commence the evening worship I am away out here seated in my room trying to write a few lines I have a good she has slept with me for a long time as she has had such a bad cough but that is better now we have just been to supper Ardelia and Sister calculating to go up to the Church to prayer meeting but it was so dark & muddy that Willie hated to go and take us so we are obliged to stay at home the Post is being out and is not the best travelling think I will go up to Father's in the morning can ride on Johnny Paola seems to be perfectly happy and I hope she may never have dark clouds come up to game with shadows I don't know but you will in Aunt Post's room trying to write if I could only just step in and chat awhile I could make my tongue fly faster than I can my pen Ardelia & I have finished her dress today she cut it out yesterday after three o'clock don't you think we are smart she made it garibaldi waist and one flounce headed with the side band I will send you a price if I don't forget at the children are better to night than this morning I wrote to ma this morning expect you will get them all the same time I got a letter from Corbie today was very glad to get it and will answer
