Dear Cousin

Miss Kate Morris

My Dear Cousin

I drop these lines to enquire whether or not you rec^d a few lines from me some time ago, enquiring about a certain card which I found upon our desk.

If you did not see my note, I must of course excuse your silence, but if you did see it; well I expect the result will be the same.

I expect to pass through Blom in a few days on my way to Billitothe, and may stop at the aforesaid Blom on my return. That, however will depend upon Circumstances. The Circumstances you will understand.
