Withdraw

Play it smart and pull a WP

For various reasons, we sometimes start things we can't always finish. This holds true for scheduling classes.

If your plans concerning coming to UK have changed during the summer, you need to notify the Registrar's Office, Room 107 Administration Annex, as soon as your decision is final.

To withdraw from school after classes are in session is all a matter of obtaining the right signatures. First a student must get the signatures of the dean of his or her college on a withdrawal card. Then the dean of students, Joe Burch, must sign. After that, the card should be returned to the Registrar's Office.

According to Jerry Legere, associate registrar for student records, the Registrar's Office will notify instructors when a student withdraws from classes prior to the last five weeks of school. Otherwise it is the student's responsibility.

Withdrawing during the first 10 days of classes results in no grade whatsoever. There is no indication on record that you ever attended, Legere said. After that, a student is assigned a W (withdraw passing) or E (failing), whichever was earned to date.

The last day to drop a class is Friday, Nov. 8. Tuition refunds operate on a "all, half or nothing" policy, Legere said.

Refunds are not automatic, they are figured from the date requested, so notify the Registrar's Office immediately if necessary.

There is no charge upon notification prior to the beginning of classes, Legere said. Notification between the first day of classes (Aug. 31) and mid-term (Oct. 21) results in half your tuition refunded.

After Oct. 21, though, forget it—the money belongs to UK.

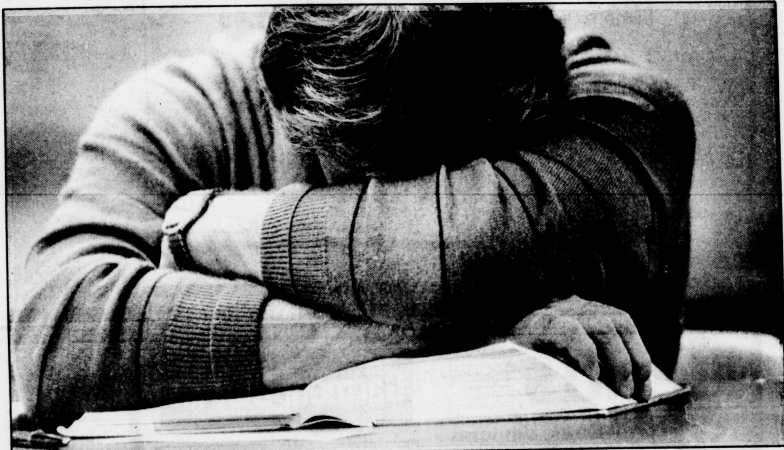

Upon proof of withdrawal, Legere says he sends an authorization of payment to the Billings and Collection Office. The refund is mailed to the student in four to six weeks.

If your fee status changes after withdrawing from several classes (from full-time to part-time load) then the Registrar's Office can assess new fees based on your new standing.

To withdraw from only one class, after centralized drop-add, you should go to the dean of your college and get a drop slip. It must be signed by both the instructor of the class and your advisor. Then it returned to your dean.

The Registrar's Office also handles name and address changes if you move or get married or divorced.

By listing these changes your schedule and grades will be sure to go to the right place.

Pay up or find another mediocrity

By JOE KEMP
Editorial Editor

Sometime during your life here at the University of Kentucky you've probably asked yourself:

"What do I owe this joint?"

At least $275 (a $35 increase over last semester).

That's assuming you are a Kentuckian and a full-time student carrying 12 or more credit hours.

And if you advance registered for the fall term, guess when your bill for tuition and fees is due.

This Friday.

That's the word from Tony Day, Billings and Collections manager. He gave us some other dates which he said were important.

Sept. 13—Students who registered late must pay their fees by this deadline. Any student who does not pay before these dates will be charged a $5 late fee, Day said.

Sept. 29—Final deadline for payment. Miss this date and you are out of time, luck and school. Buenos dias. Maybe Eastern Kentucky University can use you.

After this deadline, you still have a 30-day grace period to get the funds together before you are thrown out of school.

Day said it's an almost unheard of policy.

"I don't know of any other school that allows its students to pay their tuition AFTER they enroll," he said.

"The other universities want to know why we do this, but we know some people need time to pay.

"Do you know how many days the University of Louisville gives its students? None. They won't take you unless you have the money before you sign up for classes."

If you think getting up $275 is rough, then what about the out-of-state student? This unfortunate person has to pay $750 for undergraduate study and $800 if he is a graduate student.

"We really don't know what the percentage of graduate students who fail to pay their fees is, but we're looking into it," Day said.

A note for you part-timers. Your fee is $23 per semester hour.

The schedule for paying fees has been modified this year. You remember the chaotic two days that you had last semester to get your tuition and financial aid taken care of?

Well, now you have FIVE days, today through Friday.

The hours of collections are 9 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. each day in the Student Center Ballroom.

Presumably, the new format will help shorten those ugly long lines. To be on the safe side, however, bring some patience.

Students receiving support through the Office of Financial Aid will take their checks, pay their registration fees and pay the Student Health fee in accordance with the above schedule.

The health fee is the same price as last year—$12.

If you're thinking about bouncing your check and hoping to sneak through the semester, forget it. If you haven't made good on your check by Sept. 29, you're cancelled.

Good try, though.

So you lost your ID card at Vero Beach (maybe Mill Street) over the summer and you don't know how to replace it?

Take yourself and $5 over to Photographic Services in Kastle Hall. Someone over there will validate your ID and activity cards. Don't go to Billings and Collections; they'll laugh you out of the place.

If your status as a student drops and you have already paid the $275, better drop by the Registrar's Office, Room 107, Administration Annex, before Oct. 21.

To be eligible for a partial refund, you have to present evidence that you are a student—withdrawal cards, drop slips and ID and activity cards.

Add-drop: It can't get any worse

Whether you have changed majors or were warned about a certain instructor recently, the classes you pre-registered for last spring may no longer be what you want.

According to George Dexter, assistant registrar for registration, add-drop has undergone a few changes to simplify the process. Still, there is bound to be some confusion if you don't follow the outlined steps in order.

First, not that "add" comes before "drop." This way you shouldn't be caught a few hours short after dropping a class for one you later find is already closed.

This reasoning apparently destroys the myth that UK wants to accentuate the positive, as if it existed.

Centralized add-drop is tomorrow in the Coliseum for those who have advance registered. Times are alphabetically distributed every half hour from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Check the schedule to avoid being refused admission if you are an early bird. However, you are allowed to come later than the scheduled time.

Be sure to do your homework before coming to the Coliseum. Stop by your college dean or adviser's office and get an add-drop form.

(Graduates should go to the College of Graduate School.)

Bring a No. 2 pencil to fill out the form. Dexter says the form not only handles information about classes added or dropped, but it also notes the changes taken from pass, fail and audit.

The form also takes care of an increase or decrease in class load hours.

After completing the form, get your adviser's signature and go to the Coliseum at the designated time (see inset).

When adding a class, go to the department's table. If you are in the College of Arts & Sciences, head for the left concourse. Everything else is in the right concourse.

Okay, there's an opening in a class you want to sign up for. You'll receive a class ticket and you had better hold on to it until you are sure that your name is entered on the class roll.

The procedure is the same for dropping a class. Get your ticket, then make certain your name is dropped from the roll sheet.

After you've received all your tickets, step up to your dean's table (right concourse) and give that person everything — add-drop slips and tickets — to approve.

Dexter said it might be wise to keep a copy of the records in case the University fouls up.

If you miss tomorrow's circus, then add-drop becomes a lot tougher (is that possible?) because everything is decentralized.

The same procedure is involved, it's just you won't be doing it in the Coliseum. Instead, you have to go to each office to collect tickets and signatures.

The deadline for adding a class is Sept. 7, while you have until Nov. 8 to withdraw.

Arts & Sciences is the lone exception. Add-drop will be continued from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday in Buell Armory.

Add-drop, drop-add, it still amounts to the same thing. H-A-S-S-L-E.

Be poor again:
 Break dorm

With limited housing facilities available, anyone who signed up to live in a residence hall (mandatory for freshmen and a matter of choice for others) are required to put down a $100 deposit to hold a room. But if attending UK does not work out and you must bow out of your contract, be warned that you will lose money in the process. By cancelling before the semester begins Wednesday, $90 will be refunded.

Anyone on a waiting list may cancel with a full refund, said Bob Blakeman, director of Auxiliary Services. This is because a room had not yet been assigned to that person. If you fail to move in by the beginning of classes, then you are considered a "no show" and means the $100 is forfeited, Blakeman said.

Should you accept a room, move your belongings inside and then within the first week decide to drop out of school, your deposit is again forfeited.

For each additional week of dorm living, there is an eight per cent charge of the total semester cost. There is no refund awarded beyond 12 weeks, Blakeman said.

Kentucky Kernel

The Kentucky Kernel, 111 Journalism Bldg., University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506, is mailed five times weekly during the year except holidays and exam periods, and once weekly during the summer session. Third class postage paid at Lexington, KY 40511. Subscription rates are $3 per year mailed, or one cent per year non-mailed.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR HEALTH FEE YET?

I'm Seymour,
 the Health Service mascot

For your convenience, the Health Service will have a table in the Student Center at the foot of the ballroom stairs during the first week of school: Monday through Friday, August 29-September 2.

You can pay your health fee and/or sign up for the U.K. Student Blue Cross/Blue Shield Group Insurance Plan at that table.

THE HEALTH FEE IS STILL ONLY $12.
 WHAT A DEAL!!!

A System That Can Reproduce The Entire Spectrum Of Audible Sound Generally Costs About $600

One of the requirements of an excellent music system is to be able to reproduce a wide range of frequencies, from low bass to the highest overtones. Since most "wide range" systems feature large, expensive loudspeakers and powerful amplifiers, people expect to pay a premium price for this level of performance.

Well, our $450 system will shatter any preconceived notions you may have about a system of modest cost and size.

The Smaller Advent Speakers. They sound almost identical to the original Advents (including deep bass response) but at two-thirds the cost and size. Popular Electronics described them saying, "We did considerable A-B comparing of the Smaller Advents against several other systems, all far larger and more expensive. To our amazement, the Smaller Advent proved to be just as good as many of them and better than others under practically any listening situation we could devise. The Smaller Advent can deliver a room-filling 30Hz fundamental which must be heard to be believed."

The Harmond-Kardon 330c Receiver. It provides plenty of stable power, even at the extreme bass and high ends, so the loudspeakers can perform to their fullest advantage at any frequency. In addition, it offers a complete assortment of convenience and control features, like loudness contour, provisions for two sets of speakers, and much more. Also, the 330c sells for $50 to $100 less than some of its competitors.

The New BIC 920f Turntable. It offers the benefits of noise-free belt drive and programmable automation. Features like fully damped cueing in both the up and down motion of the tone arm set the 920f apart from other tables in this price class. We use a Shure N75ECS cartridge in the 920f to achieve natural sound and protect your records.

If you want to hear all the music on your records, try our $450 system on your ears.

we have a lot of hang-ups.
they're fabric panels known as wall graphics, and no one can match our striking collection. As for the choice of fabrics... cotton textiles collected from around the world; finland, sweden, france, west germany, the far east, and american calicoes. what ever use and however much you need, by the yard cuts it, whether it's ten yards for curtains, five yards for clothing, several yards to make a tablecloth, or a single yard to create a pillow, cover a lampshade, or construct a wall graphic. we'll go to any length to please you.
