My dear Miss Stacy:

I have been away up in Ohio since before Christmas and have just returned. I found your letter there when I returned. I am so delighted that you heard from Catlettsburg. I am sure we will show an increase this year, though I have not heard from Mrs. Shepard since I turned over her money and accounts the first week in December. She said she would send Mrs. Upton the dues at once and would write to you at the same time. I suppose you have heard from her by this time. I too, was much gratified to hear from Hickman this, as I was afraid they would drop out, but Mrs. Hubbard, when she sent the dues, said that she was in Europe last year for quite a while, I forget <sup>now</sup> just how long she said, and I suppose that is the reason we did not hear.

I understood that Dr. Wood's had organized a committee in Henderson, with Mrs J. W. Lockett as chairman. I wrote to her for their dues, and in answer she said they had never <sup>been</sup> organized even as a committee. That there were four sympathizers in Henderson and that they had merely each contributed fifty cents for the cause. I will enclose her letter.

I will write to someone in Lexington and try to obtain any information I can in regard to the establishment of a Department of Domestic Science at the state college. There was no report at the convention of the trustees having granted the request for the Department of Domestic Science and a motion was made that we continue our efforts to establish one.

I have not heard from Mrs. Upton in regard to helping the Oregon fund, but shall try to help in any way that I can, never the less. I am going to write to Mrs. Shepard today and ask if the books have been audited, so as to get her report and have the minutes printed as soon as possible. I received a letter from Mrs. Mary B. Gray about soliciting advertisement for the National Program the day I left home and could not attend to it at all as I was not well at the time and busy, too, getting ready, and it was too near the holidays to get anyone to do any work at all.

I am glad you feel so hopeful for Oregon. I am sure you must have worked very hard. With best wishes for a prosperous & Happy New Year and hoping to hear from you soon, I am Very sincerely Emma M. Roebuck.

Portland Lodge No. 34

KINGHTS OF THE ROYAL ARCH.

Louis Dammasch, Recorder
416 McKay Building.

The Knights of the Royal Arch is a benevolent and fraternal order, whose object is the betterment and protection of the liquor business. No person is eligible for membership unless he is engaged in or connected with the brewing, liquor or cigar trade.

Portland, Oregon, Jan. 8, 1906.

DEAR SIR:

The Portland Lodge of the Knights of the Royal Arch is considering a proposition to employ a firm of attorneys to represent the retail dealers of the city by the year.

It looks as though the retail liquor dealers of Portland will have to take an active part in many political matters during the next six months. Candidates for various public offices are already seeking the support and good will of the saloon men, stating that they believe the saloon men have been too much persecuted and overtaxed recently.

Then we must remember that woman suffrage is to be voted on next June, also an amendment to the present unfair local option law. Sunday closing is another matter which we shortly will have to deal with, and an effort will shortly be made, we understand, to once more raise the license.

Because of all these things the Knights of the Royal Arch have elected a new set of officers for the coming year who will take an active part in protecting the trade. Will you help?

These officers will be installed at the next meeting of the lodge, Wednesday evening, January 10, at 8 o'clock, K of P Hall, Marquam building. The lodge instructed me at the last meeting to invite a selected number of representative liquor dealers to attend this meeting in addition to the regular members.

Most of the troubles which the liquor men have to contend with could be avoided if they would get together oftener to talk things over.

You are, therefore, earnestly requested to accept this invitation and attend this meeting, whether you are a member of the Knights of the Royal Arch or not. The installation of officers will be public, and in view of the present political situation, every liquor man should make it a point to leave his business for two hours on Wednesday evening and help to do something for the betterment of the trade.

Our enemies never sleep. Let us wake up.

Yours respectfully,

LOUIS DAMMASCH, Recorder.

My Dear Miss Clay

Your dear letter reached me in due time. I am always glad to get a word from any of you. We are expecting soon to meet the speakers or perhaps a better word lecturer to present our side of this great question which must soon be settled by the ballot. I feel confident that we will win. I sent the proceedings of this County and I hope they reached you safely. Since we have lost so many petitions I cannot burst to the mail fearing the some one has stolen it. We must of secured 450 names or near so I can't make an estimate of the count. I know one lost nearly half of the signature after the man took hold of the work. He ought to be had over 300 registered names But I shall know better another time. But it shows the spirit of the people there is to be a debate in the High School next month on this subject Women's Suffrage We have sent the boy and girl that represent our side all of the literature that we have so I think they will be well equipped. I am so glad that even the boys are helping this work. About you

When I doubt if they have the ability to get up and really set forth any good reasons why we should not vote some of the men ask me how the Anti Suffrage Club is progressing. I answer that they have just brooked their loss Here the women oppose the Suffragists more than the men. I am glad that the women are not going to vote upon this question

Yours in love

I see by the Journal that the Anti Suffragists are going to start out on their Campaign I am glad of that. It will be a real help to us. As it will bring the subject before the people in a different light and will create an interest among the people and it will be discussed by both men and women. The result will be that good sense will lead the people to see the truth in the argument and the victory will be ours. All that I have read in their argument is that the women better stay at home. Poor things I suppose they hold all of their clubs Euchre <sup>or</sup> games in their own name they never go out side

My Dear Miss Clay

I want you to know that is one of the keenest regrets of my life that I can not hear you talk to-night. for all my life I have been very patriotic, have adored my Nations heroes within my heart and it would a great joy to me to hear the gifted descendant of the Great immortal Clay discourse on the Subjects that were always dear to my heart "namely" the rights of Mothers wives and daughters. I know it is the Mothers of our Country that honors are due that makes this the greatest nation on earth for the American Mother is a mother indeed their children are their companions from the cradle to the grave and you know a mans most loyal thoughts are for Country, Home, and Mother, and I believe in teaching the child that he is a citizen of this nation in his earliest years that he may grow up imbued with the knowledge that he is needful to his countrys good and that every unmanly and ignoble deed is a dark

I believe also in equal rights for wives and daughters for I confess I can not understand why a woman being born, here and growing up to enlightened womanhood amid American surroundings is not as capable to cast her ballot on the side of right-truth of the low and degraded classes of Europe and Asia on the pauper contract-labor system we never

Dear Miss Gray

Your long sunny letter written at Burns Valley received. I called Mrs. Nelson over and we read it - and rejoiced that the work of organizing had gone on so nicely we all thank you for the careful and full report - I had read the report of all your meetings only Engel Point Burns Valley and Gold Hill on the Co papers which published the names of committee and names of officers at each place. I am more or less acquainted with all your officers and they are good. I thought Central Point would have given you a larger committee than it did you & Chair. There is no secretary Socialist committee also he and your vice Chair men are radical spiritualists perhaps able to balance that old Preacher Secretary ah Lord! what a funny old world, no wonder Madam De Theber calls this year "the mad year" Brother Rowlett is for ever on some ticket - in quest of an office. "any thing good Lord" is his cry well he is a good old soul any way, yet I know Charley Center is "opposed". I am not acquainted with his wife he is like others I talked to you about - Lat, <sup>some along</sup> and reproduce his kind, Lord! I would have liked so much I have gone to Portland tonight - and met with you all tomorrow and next-day. I could not see how I could first spare the time for my home work keeps me busy I do nearly all the work in this big garden raise chickens gather and clean the vegetables and take them to market - beside entertaining all the workers for reform that comes here and reading a great deal, second I ~~do~~ <sup>do</sup> not feel that I could spare so much money, because if we can in any way get Moses Harman out of prison we mean to get him out no matter how much money it takes and I will help with every dollar I can rake together I want to help our state work too but I consider it secondary to the work he is doing, to stand equal before the law is good, but free and desired weather food is greater in my estimation. I remember very well what you think of Harman but that is a matter of not being able to see just as a woman in Medford said of you when my friend

[Apr. 3, 1906]

Mrs Langley urged her to come out and hear you. She said "That when any woman got down so low as to preach woman suffrage she ought to be rotten egged out of town" and many many times here I heard my mother say "That burning at the stake was a death too good for old Susan B Anthony" and a certain other reform worker was called "a wine bibber and associate of bad women" and finally crucified. when he was mounted said "Further forgive them they know not what they do" I think this is the grandest view to take of people that make cruel remarks about people and reforms they don't understand, so much as I would like to go to Portland to their meeting I feel that I must be prepared to help Harman if they allow us too also I want to help with the work here when the speaker comes down here for I can help her to get to work at once. if I had known when you came to our house I would have had you come here and we could have plowed the work all out in a day or two so you could have gone to work at once. I am truly glad if you were comfortable in my humble little home. I have very little to offer as the "book" says "Silver and gold have I none but such as I have give I sent thee freely" Thanks you I hope we will meet again if you are sent back here come directly here and we will "spice out the land" that is unless you find some one that can do the work better I am visiting Miss Gugg this evening and suggesting that she visit to Arthur and Elsinore. Tell them how to organize so no more preservatives will be in working order. you I think can help her. I have so far been unable to get in touch with parties that would go ahead in Prospect or Applegate. I wish both places had a committee. I intended to send clippings from Charley Nickler paper but have mislaid some he spoke very nicely of you and your work in the cause, & am glad he see "which way the wind blows" at present - well I have worked hard all day so will close wishing you health happiness and success.

Sincerely
Elizabeth Bruce

Dear Miss Gregg, Grant copy as intulined.
My thoughts have been much with you since I have ~~learned~~<sup>heard</sup> that you are still sick; and I ~~feel~~ that no doubt you are also suffering as I suppose you have learned ~~of the~~ that Mrs. Woodworth has been faithless to the interests of those from whom she had accepted employment by ~~con-~~ tale-bearing, I fear you have suffered more than you need to on that account, because <sup>you would regret</sup> it was through your advice that she was placed in a position to <sup>be able</sup> cause such trouble. It is my habit to ignore tale-bearers and their tales; but on this ~~or the~~ ~~was the~~ whole it is my habit to ignore tale-bearers and their tales, in this case I am not able to do so, as they were the occasion of Miss Seaghtin's coming to my room on the Sunday I left Portland, and speaking to me with insufferable insolence, I had intended to pass ~~this~~ over this incident in silence, as I did not wish to intrude my and on the ~~paper~~ <sup>hope</sup> that the contradiction I gave would cause personal grievances into this campaign, But her to ~~control herself~~, drop the matter, on arriving ~~from~~ in Salem I learn through letters that such was not the result. And so I have concluded to write to you and say that ~~one~~ of the two ~~falsehoods~~ <sup>charges</sup> reported to me was ~~that~~ one <sup>was</sup> against you, — that I had said that this campaign had been run for Miss Laughlin's benefit. This I did not say; what I did say was giving instances in which Miss Laughlin had been favored, and was that Miss Laughlin had been favored in this campaign; or words which might be interpreted to that effect, as I gave instances which ~~led me~~ <sup>would lead</sup> to that conclusion. Now even this ~~charge~~ <sup>opinion</sup> is no doubt painful to you, though by this time you ~~must have realized its accuracy~~; and it certainly was not in my intention to wound you needlessly by allowing ~~some-~~ thing to come to your ears through an ~~outsider~~ <sup>outsider</sup>, which if I had ~~considered~~ <sup>deemed</sup> ~~it~~ <sup>was</sup> of [April 25, 1906]

make it a charge shall ~~consider~~ at all enough importance to bring to your ears at all I would undoubtedly have <sup>brought</sup> ~~had~~ it ~~it~~ ~~conveyed~~ before through the Business Committee, the only proper ~~channel~~ persons to consider it.

Very likely your own sense of what is proper and right from all parties concerned would enable you under ordinary circumstances to treat Mrs. Woodworth's un~~truthful~~ tale-bearing with the contempt it deserves; but ~~since~~ so many misunderstandings have arisen in our usually peaceful suffrage household, I thought it might be well to write to you that I have neither felt or expressed any doubt of your loyalty to this campaign.

I feel very sorry that any mistakes at all have occurred in a campaign entered in to ~~with~~ ~~so~~ ~~much~~ ~~hope~~ ~~and~~ ~~devotion~~ ~~to~~ ~~our~~ you know I think ~~mistakes~~ ~~have~~ ~~been~~ ~~made~~; cause. But mistakes are human; and what all of us are liable to fall into. So I am writing ~~to you~~ to encourage you to do what I am trying to do myself, — to lay aside all consideration of how personal feelings may have been afflicted, and to bend all energies to carrying on the good work ~~so~~ <sup>with so much hope & devotion</sup> successfully begun, to a glorious victory.

Remembering your diffidence ~~in~~ about your ability to make an effective speech, I would like to say that last night Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Scriber told me that you had made an admirable address here, and that some liked your speech better than they did Miss Laughlin's. I hope you will soon feel well enough to go into the field for the final campaign efforts.

Very sincerely your friend,

Ore.
PORTLAND, OREGON, Apr. 29 - 1906.

Dear Miss Clay:

Your kind letter is at hand, and I was very glad to receive it.

Yes, I had heard of the unfortunate incident, and while it produced a very depressing effect upon me, I should have been too ill anyway to have gone to Albany at the time I had set.

I was not present when Mrs. Woodworth related the matter to Miss Laughlin, but I suppose she said about the same things to her that she did to me; but what she said did not affect me, because I knew that Mrs. Woodworth was morbid, and that things seemed much more serious to her than they really were. I begged her to be calm and let the matter go, but at that moment Miss Shaw came in and showed her the poster she had had printed for her, and my heart quite sank when Mrs. Woodworth snapped out that she was not a speaker. But I came to Oswego that night - and forgot all about the matter until I returned Monday and found that Mrs. Woodworth had been talking to Miss Laughlin, and had produced a very unhappy effect upon her.

But now that the subject is opened, Miss Clay, I am going to say to you what I would rather say if I had the opportunity to talk to you, and that is that I think your criticism of me is quite just.

As I have thought the matter over, I have come to see that I have been very unjust - and unkind to you. I have also come to see a very serious fault in myself, which I have often wished I did not have, but which I did not recognize as so evil a trait - until now, and that is - extreme sensitiveness. I got the feeling because you disagreed with me about Dr. Woods' coming and about some other things, that you were antagonistic to me, and that we would not be able to work together <sup>harmoniously</sup> in the Campaign. But I recognize now that sensitiveness is selfishness, and that I had no right to get any such impression, and to let it wear on me as it did, and influence my actions toward you; and I am very sorry for it all, and especially for the occasion when I was very unkind and discourteous to you, and I beg your forgiveness.

In regard to Miss Laughlin — I felt so dependent upon her because she had been in the state in the spring — knew the state and the people so much better than I — and we have worked together so much and she is strong in the things in which I am weak, and when I found that I could not do all the work of the office, I kept turning one thing and another upon her, realizing all the time that she was needed in the field, as she did also, but never seeming to find the time when I could get along without her help for more than a few days at a time.

I also felt that it was my duty as manager of the campaign to remove the feeling, if I could, which caused the opposition to her coming, and in doing this, I did not realize that I was being unjust - to anybody else. I certainly started into the campaign with the sincerest desire to be just to everybody, and it was this feeling that all ought to have a chance that made me beg for Dr. Woods so urgently. The truth is, the campaign so appalled me with the amount of work to be done, and the field to be covered, and it all got so heavy, that I did not have the time to think about much of anything except the immediate work from day to day, which in spite of me would get ahead of me and pile up my desk. I did not have the time to make plans and study situations, and when I began to see that we were not going to be able to get the things done that I felt so necessary, my ~~strength~~ <sup>resources</sup> began to give out, and with the extra work of the Conference, proved too much for me.

But I am very sorry to have been unjust - to anybody and not to have been able to stand up to all the needs of the Campaign.

Now, about Mrs. Woodworth. - Last winter she had a severe attack of pneumonia during the severe storm in Oklahoma, and she was dangerously ill for several days. She was a very long time in getting over it; and when at last she was able to go into the field again she was caught in the flood, and the teams could not go through the river, and passengers had to be taken in little boats. The boat could not land, and the passengers had to walk a plank, and a strong wind was blowing and she became dizzy and fell into the river. She seems never to have recovered completely, and she does <sup>not</sup> have the physical strength or the mastery of herself that she used to have. You remember she came to us all tired out from a month's work in the heat in the Indian Territory, which is very intense in that country in September. We were so desperate about the petition that I pushed her pretty hard, and you know she did excellent work for that. I tried to make the advance work in Clackamas as easy for her as possible, but I realized that she was not strong enough for it, and I also saw that it was too expensive to be kept up. Advance work in Oregon is very different from advance work in Oklahoma. Take this town of Oswego for instance; it would take three times as much time and work to get up a meeting here as it would in an Oklahoma town, because of its situation and its hills.

I realized that- she was getting morbid and that- her nerves were breaking. She manifested an irritability that- was entirely new in her, for in her normal state she is not irritable and is not quarrelsome. In the Club in Oklahoma City there are two women who could not get along, and they precipitated a quarrel in almost every meeting. She recognized how foolish it was, and in a very tactful way, got them together and got them to drop the quarrel. So when she became so irritable I felt worried about her. I thought- if she could change off to doing her route making by correspondence it might- be easier for her, and less expensive for the campaign, and I hoped she would come out all right. But she got worse, and when I got to Salem I was shocked to see how unlike herself she was, and unfortunately my own nerves began to break at the same time, and I grew even more morbid than she. But because you had known me in normal health you recognized that I was sick. But not knowing her, she certainly appeared to you in a most unfavorable light. But by the time that she returned from Salem I recognized that I had been morbid, and I also recognized that she was exceedingly so, and it seems to be growing upon her so much more every time that I see her, that I am very anxious about her.

Now a very unfortunate thing has occurred. She came out to see me a few days ago, and she was exceedingly overwrought and unreasonable, and I felt very much concerned about her starting home just now, and I particularly did not want her to go to Oklahoma City in her present frame of mind and be asked why she came home a month before the close of the campaign, and give to the club there, and to her friends in the state her morbid ideas about herself.

and about me. I think we shall have a campaign in Oklahoma soon, and I do not want to see any morbid inharmonies introduced into it, and so I advised her not to return to Oklahoma until the close of the campaign. <sup>but to try to get something to do in Portland to pay her expenses.</sup> Then nobody would ask any questions, and I think by that-time she would be rested, and would see things differently.

But after I had thus advised her, it occurred to me that-possibly the Business Committee would prefer that she should not stay in Portland, and so I wrote to Miss Shaw telling her just-what I had advised her, and why; but Miss Shaw misunderstood my letter, and took it that I meant it as a threat to the Business Committee, of what she would do in Oklahoma, because they had not-continued to employ her to the end of the Campaign.

I have not replied to Miss Shaw's letter, and I do not think I shall say any thing more to her about it, because she seems so strained and over-worked that I do not want to worry her. But I am telling it to you, because I want you to know why I do not want Mrs. Woodworth to go home just now. I know she will see differently in time, just as I see differently now that I am getting well, and then she will feel and talk in an entirely different manner.

I expect to go to Albany May 1st. My health is much improved, and while I think I shall have to favor myself a little at first, I feel sure that I am good for a solid month including the final round up. Then I am going to take a long summer outing.

And I believe we are going to win. Above all the mistakes and misunderstandings I believe there is a higher Power that will lead this campaign to victory, and then I do hope that all the mistakes and heartaches may be forgiven and forgotten.

With sincerest thanks for your letter, I am

Most Cordially Yours -

Laura Gregg

Miss Laura Clay,
Portland, Ore.

My dear Miss Clay:

Mrs. Upton has been sending me letters from Mr. Kerr of Lexington, in which he has requested certain information. His latest one says the following:

"I believe I am going to be able to win the case through the opinion which you sent me. I found that the reference which I had to the Mississippi case was a mistake. 'Miss' being intended for 'Mass'. The reference really being to the old Massachusetts case of Jackson vs. Phillips.

The first attorney employed in the case, and under whose employment the pleadings were made up, succeeded in getting the issue in such a form that there was nothing left but the identity of the association. The testatrix having denominated the National American Woman's Suffrage Association as The National Suffrage Association. For some reason he withdrew from the case and another firm, the ablest lawyers here, was employed. They attempted to at once make the only issue that could be made, that being whether or not the devise was a charity. Exactly the same question, among others, was made in your case decided by the Supreme Court of Illinois, and I believe on the strength of that decision they are going to abandon the present case.

I am certainly under obligations to you for your assistance."

Yours truly,

I hope you are enjoying the Oregon work. We stay-at-home bodies owe you a debt of gratitude for helping out there.

Yours truly,

Catharine Waugh McElloch

Attorneys at Law,

LEXINGTON, KY., May 21, 1906.

Answered May 29th/<sub>7</sub>

Miss Laura Clay,
Lock Box 390,
Portland, Oregon,

My dear Miss Clay,

I am very much gratified to be able to tell you I have succeeded in getting a judgment in your favor in your contest with the heirs of Mrs. Bruce. There has been turned over to me in money $1900. The property devised to you by Miss Laura Bruce was appraised under an order of the court, by appraisers appointed by the court, at $3100. This Will, as you will remember, was drawn by Miss Bruce herself, and the trust attempted to be created by her is rather crudely done from a legal stand point.

There were in your case two or three dangerous features which seems to have been overlooked by the other attorneys, but which are out of the way, by reason of the fact the court decided in our favor. This trust is a personal one in you, and if any thing should occur by which you would cease to act as trustee, either by death or resignation, there would be some question as to the rights, of the trustee, it being a personal trust. For that reason it is my opinion it would be better for you, as soon as you can give the matter your attention, to sell the real estate here and convert it into cash. I presume the appraisalment which was made by Mr. H. W. Bain, Mr. Jos. Woolfolk, and Mr. Bishop Clay, all real estate agents, was about correct. If any thing it may be worth a little more now than it was at that time.

You have never formerly qualified as trustee. Do you expect to be in Kentucky in the near future?

Very truly yours,

Walter Pa May 31 - 1866

Miss Laura Bley I wil Call you a de friend on the account of your Dear Mother's Kindness when I was There in the Summer of 1864 in Charge of Stock For Uncle Sam army I often Think of Mrs Bley's Good management of the Farm & of Her Family when General Bley was in St Petersburg & the discription you two Sister's older than than you gave me of Russia & their Travel in England & yo how they were frightend when you & your Nurs were Run of on another RR I think you were woe to young to to Remember when that Hapened or to Remember any thing of me

When I was at your Farm your Brother Bentley came Home from School to Help me with the Stock He was Seventeen years old then, I have not seen any notice of your Mother's Death so I Hope she is still living & Happy in the Declining year I have been dealing in Live Stock the most of the Time since since 1865 & have met a Good many men from Ky in N.Y they Told me how Sucksesefully Mrs Clay & Her Daughter were managing a Large Farm near Richmond I was always Glad to hear the Good news I often see Mr Somn Leley & Long bring Sheep & Cattle in New York Market & I met Mr Tom Phelps some Times with His Cattle in N.Y Market, He Seemed to Be a Very nice Man I was very sorry to hear of General's Gley's misfortune of Insanity But such is the case often times + the victims are to be pitied not despised, I had an Uncle Andrew Gregg an own Cousin to Andrew G. Curtin that got in the same Cerebration + turned against every one of his own Family but me we had to take him to a Hospital in Philadelphia + pay $15 Per week for a number, he had a Large Farm + a Lot of money it used up all his money But the Farm is saved for his Family.

I see you are conducting a Part of your old Farm successfully will you please tel me if you have the Hockerty Pastures No 1 + No 2

+ if you own <sup>4</sup> much of the nice Locust + nice Hickory + Walnut Timber that used to Grow in the Pastures when I kept the Government Mules + Horses in 1864 it is wanted now in the City of New Jersey + New York at High Prices I want to ask you how you get Farm Labor now to Carry on your Farming in Ky if you get the colored half or even your <sup>4</sup> white help to stay on the Farm it is a very hard matter to get any Farm help in Pa now either male or female Did little Dick Warfield ever Go Back to Miss Saly Clay He said she owned him I tried to have him go home + stay when I left Camp Mehan in 1865 - He promised me would he Dr Warfield Mrs Clay + all the Family had always been so good

Good to Him, Will you please write + Tell me what you raise for market mostly on your farm I would like Learn a number of Ladies in Bradford County a good way to money their Farms as they are left with Good Farms + no men to help them only what they have to hire I have advised them to stock up with Sheep But the Price are High now I Bought 250 Good Ewes the 1st of March for a Widow Lady that was left with 400 acres of Land + some money I had to pay $8 per head they were No 1 Shropshire Ewes she will have the wool + Lambs to get her money back this year,

I would like to meet your Mother + your sister + Brother I suppose they are all happily married + have children + perhaps Grandchild ren by this time; I was married 1867 to a woman of German descent she was a mafos daughter + since we have been married she has been the Capt of this crew we have one daughter she has married + has got a son 12 years old + is really a spoiled child, they are keeping at school 10 months in a year + the other 2 months he goes to New + Paterson City then comes out + stays on the farm.

We have one son that learned the Dr Trade as the Schotchman said he has practiced in the Town of East Smithfield 9 years

He was a Graduate of Cincinnati the Celestic College He Has Had a Large a Practice as any m. D. Ever Has Practice in Bradford Co and His Portraits are of the Best in the County the Judge of the County want him to Be a Candidate for the Leg is Satue this Fall I Told them Not to Get Him Politic, He Said Both Parties were Going to Elect Him Shure, His Name is William Ransom Campbell
My youngest Son, name is Job Marley Campbell He Has Been a Doctor since the Way sixteen year old He Commenced Teaching School at 16 + Taught 5th Term when He went to a Hospital at Morris Plains N. J. and worked and studied Medicine and attended Lectures until

He Got a <sup>Mem</sup> Diploma<sup>s</sup> of the Faculty of the Medical Faculty & then went before the State Board & Got a Diploma from the State Board to Practice in N.Y. But he went to Mass and Got Good Position in a Hospital there but could not stand the maleries in that State he came back & met a German by the name of John Blanchewalt that was a General Supt of the Eastern Division of the I L & W R R He had known him in the Hospital He Got him to stay with He has been there now 4 years & with the Blanchewalt has Got the Position of General Supt of Erection of the Eastern

I have never <sup>9</sup> forgotten your mother's + sister's kindness + I don't know of I should ~~be~~ to write you such a long letter if I had not seen your picture in one of the Philadelphia Inquirer papers + thought you must be very much like your good mother for business

I want to ask you which one of you have the large fine house + you still keep up the house where your Grand father built I think your place the nice place in Ky we are living in a very nice little place in Chester Pa we have two mails a day R + D and a telephone in our house we are two miles from the R R and a pretty little village of 1000 inhabitants and one of the nicest wagon Bridges across the Susquehanna River it was built last year at a cost of 140000

I dont think there is an other so nice a Bridge in the world this Bradford County is a very Rich County in this & Sullivan County there is more than $80000

Laying in Banks on deposit subject to check Laying Idle as you may say we have a Court House at Towanda that has cost $300000 which is more money than is needed in any Court House

I wil close by saying

Please answer Resp yours
