

FRANKLIN CIRCUIT COURT.

W. L. BROWN,

PLAINTIFF.

VS.

AFFIDAVIT.

R. L. GREENE, AUDITOR, ETC.,

DEFENDANTS.

Affiant, W. L. Brown, says that he is plaintiff in the above styled cause; that at this time he is confined to his home by illness and cannot be present in person at the hearing of this case upon the motion for a temporary injunction; that he and the defendant, Joseph D. Harkins, are the joint owners of the lands described in the petition herein, the allegations and averments whereof are made a part hereof as if reiterated at length herein; that said petition contains a true copy of the Auditor's deed under which he and said defendant acquired and hold title to said lands, but affiant says in addition thereto Messrs. Harvey and Wilson referred to in the petition have also executed and delivered to him a deed of conveyance of all their right, title and interest in and to said lands.

Affiant says that said Auditor's deed was signed, executed and delivered on or about June 6th, 1911, by F. P. James, then the duly elected and acting Auditor of the State of Kentucky, and acting for and on behalf of the State of Kentucky, to this affiant and said J. D. Harkins in consideration of their payment of the sum of $329.11 to said Auditor, as stated in said deed; that upon the payment thereof ~~xxx~~ ^{said deed was made} in pursuance of the right and authority then vested in said Auditor under the Statutes of Kentucky for such cases made and provided, and in further pursuance of the terms of a certain writing referred to in said deed, which said writing
