

FAYETTE CIRCUIT COURT.

June 7-1919.

W. L. BROWN,

PLAINTIFF.

VS.

ORDER AND JUDGMENT.

Joseph D. Harkins and
Walter S. Harkins,

DEFENDANTS.

This day came Grace H. Brown and filed herein duly certified copy of the order of the Laurel County Court under date of August 15th, 1917, showing the death of the plaintiff, W. L. Brown, on the 7th day of June, 1917, and the appointment and qualification of the said Grace H. Brown as the executrix of the last will and testament of the said W. L. Brown, the original plaintiff herein, and suggested the death of the plaintiff, W. L. Brown, on the date aforesaid, and pending the prosecution of the appeal by the defendants herein from the judgment of this court rendered on the 15th. day of November, 1916.

Came also the said Grace H. Brown, executrix as aforesaid, and filed herein a duly certified copy of the order of the Kentucky Court of Appeals under date of March 23rd, 1917, from which it appears that on said date said Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal of the defendants herein and quashed the supersedeas which had been executed upon the prosecution of said appeal and adjudged that the appellee recover of the appellants, defendants herein, her costs therein expended.

Executrix

Came also the said Grace H. Brown and filed herein copy of a supersedeas bond executed before the Clerk of the Court of Appeals on the 26th. day of May, 1917, superseding the judgment herein as against Joseph D. Harkins to the extent of $3125.00, with interest from September 10th,
