Dear Hammer-

I have not forgotten that you asked me the address of the Benedictines who publish Zodiaque. I send it along now with my best Easter wishes: Write to

Rev Pere Dom Angelico Surchamp. OSB.
Abbaye de la Pierre qui Vire
S. Leger Vauban
(Yonne) France.

He will be delighted to have some sign of interest in this country, and I think his work is so very good that he deserves all the encouragement possible. I have not been able to help him at all in getting a volume on Burgundy and its romanesque churches published here. Did I tell you he had a brand new one on the Churches of Auvergne? It is amazing country and the architecture is rugged and primitive to suit the land and the people.

So, I shall be praying for you both especially on Easter Sunday at Mass. Have you ever been here in Holy Week? This year of course there are a lot of changes, but certainly it will be an experience to have the solemn Mass of Maundy Thursday in the evening, at the time of the Last Supper.

I wonder if Mrs Hammer could track down one of these books for me in the University Library? Father Abbot has permitted me to ask for either Series I or II (or both) of Dr Suzuki's ~~Essays~~ Essays on Zen Buddhism, or the same author's Introduction to Zen, published by pantheon (or is it some other author)? I would be very grateful for any one of these.

Many thanks, and God bless you both.

Sincerely in Our Lord
