GEORGETOWN TOMORROW.

The game that was to have been played Monday with Georgetown, and that was postponed on account of rain, will be played on Stoll field tomorrow afternoon. The Idea gives the dope as six to one in State's favor, watch it. Georgetown is one of those colleges that withdrew from the track meet in such a genteel and lady-like manner.

Let's show Georgetown, tomorrow, how fairly and squarely we can treat a visiting team. Applaud their team when it plays well, do not try to rattle their pitcher, yell for Georgetown when the team comes on the field, don't kick against the "Umps'" decisions, treat them the best we know how. Don't do this to show Georgetown up, but do it because it is the right thing to do.

DRILL OVER.

No more this year—New staff announced next week.

The Cadet Battalion formed for the last time this school year on Tuesday. The Colonel announced that that would be the last drill for the year and then said that the staff for next year as approved by the President would be printed in next week's "Idea."

This has been a very successful year in Military at State, for although the inspection proved a disappointment to all concerned, nevertheless drill this year has been exceedingly good. "C" company under Captain Phister, has shown up especially well, being first in point of attendance, and being one of the best, if not the best, drilled companies of the battalion. Of course "A," "B," and "D," companies think otherwise, and indeed it would be a close race as to which is the best.

Lieutenant Kelley will relieve Colonel about the middle of July, who will report to his regiment, at Fort Relley.

It is needless to say anything further about the regret the University feels in losing the Colonel. We will never forget him. By next October he will very likely be far from us, in the Philippines. No matter where he is, we will always think of him as the "Colonel." It is needless to say more.

STUDENT BODY TAKES CONTROL AND FORMS CONSTITUTION.

The Committee that was elected by the student body on Friday, April 29th, to form a constitution for The Idea, as published by the student body, reported at chapel hour on Tuesday of this week.

Two constitutions were offered, the only material difference being that one called for an electoral board composed of two members of each class, and the other called for a board composed of one member from each class, and one member from each literary society. The second constitution was adopted by the assembly without any discussion.

The constitution adopted is as follows. Members of literary societies and class officers are asked to notice especially the temporary clause at the end:

CONSTITUTION OF THE IDEA.

Sec. 1.—The official publication of the student body of the University of Kentucky shall be "The Idea."

Sec. 2.—The Idea shall be published weekly during the college year by the staff of The Idea.

Sec. 3.—The Idea shall be controlled by a Board of Directors.

On or before the first Friday in April of each year, each of the four literary societies shall elect one member to this Board, and each of the four classes shall elect one member to the Board.

Those elected by the literary societies shall be members of their respective organizations, and those elected by the classes shall not be members of any literary society.

Sec. 4.—The newly elected Board of Directors shall, together with the Board elected the preceding year, meet on or before the second Friday in April of each year, and elect the Editor-in-Chief, the Assistant Editor, the Business Manager, and Assistant Business Manager, and such other members of the staff as they see fit to select.

The Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager shall during their term of office be members of the Senior Class, and the Assistant Editor and Assistant Business Manager shall be members of the Junior Class.

Sec. 5.—In the event that any of the members of the Board of Directors elected the year before do not return to school, his or her successor shall be elected within two weeks after the opening of school. Or if any member of the Board of Directors should leave school, his or her successor shall be elected within two weeks.

All meetings for the purpose of election of members to the Board of Directors shall be advertised one week in advance of the meeting, and the time and purpose of the meeting shall be clearly set forth.

Sec. 6.—It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to have general supervision of the work of the Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager, and of the conduct of The Idea.

It shall be empowered to direct, suggest, reject, or reprove and change any policy of The Idea, in accordance with the terms of this constitution.

Sec. 7.—The Board of Directors shall meet at least once each month at a regular specified time. A majority of the members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

Sec. 8.—The new Board of Directors shall choose from its number a Chairman and Secretary.

At the annual election of the staff the Chairman of the retiring Board shall preside.

Sec. 9.—The Editor-in-Chief shall determine the arrangement, quality and quantity of the contents of the paper; provided that such control shall not, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, unreasonably disturb the financial condition of The Idea.

Sec. 10.—The Business Manager shall make all contracts and pay all expenses connected with the publication and business management of The Idea, out of the gross receipts arising from such publication.

Sec. 11.—The Business Manager shall keep and present to the Board of Directors at each monthly meeting a complete record of all receipts and disbursements, in actual value, whether payment therefor shall have been received or made, in funds, in franks, and vouchers shall be presented in each instance. He shall also show a complete record of all paid up subscribers.

Sec. 12.—In May of each year the first edition of The Idea shall publish a complete account of receipts and expenditures and financial condition of the paper for the year ending.

Sec. 13.—The constitution may be amended by a majority vote of the student body. All proposed amendments and the date of the meeting at which the vote is to be taken, must be published in The Idea in two editions preceding the time of the meeting.

Sec. 14.—This constitution shall go into effect as soon as ratified by the student body, and shall be published annually by The Idea, and one copy shall be preserved by each member of the Board of Directors.

Temporary Clause.

For the end of the school year 1910 the present staff shall edit the remaining editions of The Idea. The members of the first Board of Directors shall be elected before the 15th of May, and shall choose the staff for the coming year on or before the 17th of May, 1910.

COACH INGELS.

Back Next Year—He and His Smile.

At a meeting of the Athletic Committee held last week, it was definitely decided to ask Coach Ingels back next year to take charge of base ball.

Mr. Ingels knows base ball and knows how to make other people know base ball. He is a jolly good fellow, extremely popular with the acquaintances he has made here, and he has certainly improved the team since he has been here.

The student body wants Mr. Ingels back next year, the team wants him back, the faculty wants him back, and Mr. Ingels wants to be back.

The State base ball team will undoubtedly win the State Championship this year, and with Mr. Ingels and most of the team back next year the future seems bright. It takes two years for a coach to make a good team.

THE STUDENT IDEA.

After two years of hard work and self support the Idea has succeeded. The students at last have taken an interest in the paper, and mean to support it. They have taken charge of the Idea and mean to run it the way it should be run.

Do not think that we have done all we can do for the Idea; that because we have formed a constitution and directed the election of officers for next year, that we have done all there is to do. There are other things perhaps more important, than these that we must do to make the paper a success. In the first place we must read the paper next year. We publish it that we may read it, and a paper that is never read is useless. We must not be timid about contributing articles to be published in the Idea next year. Our opinions should be known by the other students, and the student paper is the best way to make our opinions known. We must see to it—for do we not control it?—that only those who are fitted for the place are elected to the staff of the Idea, and that the best officers obtainable for the several positions are elected. No politics, no class distinctions, or no petty prejudices should interfere with our selection. In carrying on the Idea we must think only of the ways to better the paper.

In the years to come when we return to the University to view the old scenes and renew the fond memories of our beloved college life, what can be more pleasing than to see the same Idea that we help start, being issued regularly by the student body, and to know that the pleasure and profit that they get from it is due partly to the support we gave the paper when it was in its infancy.

Long live the Idea of the University of Kentucky. Long may it live and well may it prosper.

THE TRACK MEET.

Due to the action of Georgetown, T. U. and Central, in withdrawing from the track meet, we should more than ever try to make it a success. We owe it to Berea and Wesleyan to attend the meet in a body, and to show the contestants from these two colleges a thoroughly good time while they are here. They showed the right spirit, and we must show them that we are as good at that as they are. Get acquainted with one of the visiting athletes and make it your business to see that he lacks for nothing while here.

As a member of the Junior class, the editor wishes to thank Mrs. Stout for the kindness she showed in assisting with the decorating for the Junior Prom. Much of the success of the Prom is due to Mrs. Stout, and the Junior class acknowledges with many thanks the courtesy shown.

TRACK MEET.

How many of us are going to see Coach Sweetland's faithful few win the Championship of Kentucky in track athletics, Saturday, May 14? Some of you who have never seen our boys on the field try to come out on Saturday, and see if your love for athletics is not aroused by a more classic inspiration than that of football. Track athletics has come down to us directly from classic Greece. It had its beginning during the palmy days of that country when the Olympic games were established. So great was the love of the Greeks for this, their national sport, that all other events were subservient to it. If war should be raging between the various Grecian states, when the time for the Olympic games arrived, peace was declared so that all the people might attend this event without fear of losing life and home. Even national wars respected this great event which finally became international. All of the then civilized world would send contestants to the games. The great Olympic games also contained a religious aspect, it was here that they could show forth their loyalty to Zeus and to their country.

My friends, Coach Sweetland's squad, which has been chosen by the process known to science as the survival of the fittest, since early in the season the squad was one hundred strong, and has since dwindled away until it now numbers less than one-fifth of the original hundred, may not be as swift as the runners of ancient Greece, perhaps the discus cannot be thrown so far by it as by the Greeks, but nevertheless it is a bunch of swift, strong, well-trained fellows, and deserves the presence of every student of the University who is not so simple as to think that there is nothing in track athletics. If you belong to this class don't come, for you are a rotten apple.

Just remember that State will meet all her old rivals, C. U., T. U., K. U., C., and G. C. All of these institutions are going to send over their best material and our boys will have just pride in winning the Championship from them.

This track meet has an element in it for us that corresponds to the religious element of the Olympic games. It is here that we can show forth our loyalty to the squad and our veneration to our alma mater.

ANNUAL OUT MONDAY.

The "Kentuckian" will be out Monday." The Class of 1910 is to be praised for its promptness in getting the "Kentuckian" from press. Heretofore it has not been so. The Annual would either come out during commencement week, or else after all students had gone to their respective homes. In addition to being out early the 1910 "Kentuckian" is reported to be the best ever produced by a graduating class. It is larger in space and the workmanship is far above the average.

Now is the time for the students to get their subscriptions ready in order to secure an edition while they are new. Do not make the mistake of thinking that you will be able to buy one next year at half price. If you think so you will be fooled. Nor will they be given away next winter at the Press Association to advertise the University. So be ready to get yours and make this "Kentuckian" as great a success financially as it is artistically.

The Social Whirl

(By Lida Jones.)

The prettiest and most charming event of last week was the "Prom," given by the Junior Class. It was held in honor of the Seniors, and several hundred guests were present to partake of the lovely hospitality of the popular members of the Junior Class.

The Gymnasium was artistic in its decorations of foliage and wistaria, which entirely screened the walls, and fell in graceful garlands from the balcony rail. From the center lights to the ends of the hall, electric bulbs in the class colors, green and white, were arranged uniquely. In one end of the hall was "10" in red lights, and in the other end "11" in green and white lights.

Delicious fruit frappe was served during the evening.

The dance opened with an intricate and effective grand march, which was gracefully led by Mr. W. W. Stevenson, President of the class, and Miss Alice Cary Williams, Secretary of the class. The patronesses were Mrs. A. M. Wilson, Mrs. U. M. Irvine, Mrs. A. C. Zembrod, Mrs. P. H. Williams, Mrs. Caroline Wallis, Mrs. J. G. White, Mrs. C. R. Melcher, and Mrs. J. W. Pryor, and among those present were:

Misses Frances Hughes, Jessie Hibler, Anna Simrall, Olive Cruickshank, Marian Johnson, Mary Barrett Smith, Mattie Cary, Lida Jones, Lilly Park, Sarah Marshall, Marian Taylor, Rubye Fleming, Elizabeth Cary, Alma Faulkner, Rubye Marcum, Elizabeth Fried, Mary Spencer, and a number of town and out of town girls: Messrs. Caleb Marshall, Ben Robinson, Wathen Prewitt, Phil Warren, John Hudson, Alex Ramsey, Bert Paynter, Oscar Irvine, R. A. Edwards, Ben M. Smarr, A. B. Haswell, William Lurty, William Wallace, Earl Webb, James Willmore, Clem Kelley, T. J. Orr, Cramer Bain, Walter Fox, William Shuff, Joseph Shelby, William Wilson, Ben Wilson, W. G. Clugston, Tom Hays, Ike Robertson, W. H. Mustaine, Page Blakemore, Walter Hillenmeyer, William Foster, Reed Wilson, Stanley Dawson, L. W. Weller, Geo. Mills, Bob Atkins, T. C. Carroll, James Cary, Lee Moore, Bryan Shanklin, O. L. Day, Paul Francis, George Becker, Geo. Hendrickson, Richard Webb, Thorpe Miles, H. R. Creal, W. C. Duncan, Perry Cassidy, Shelby Shanklin, Bryan Ballard, Shelby Post, W. A. Gastineau, F. R. Naylor, A. C. Elliott, F. F. Caywood, B. D. Williams, Berkeley Hedges, Howell Spears, Alexander Obenchain, Prof. and Mrs. O'Rourke Prof. and Mrs. Quickel.

Saturday morning a Minstrel Show will be given by twelve of the most talented of the University girls. It will be given in the large dining room at Patterson Hall, and promises to be the most unique stunt pulled off by College students in a long time. The faculty and students of the University are cordially invited to be present. The proceeds are to go to the Y. W. C. A. The songs and jokes are on and about College people. They are original and catchy; nobody is slighted. Come and have a hand in the fun. Those who will take part in the Minstrel are: Marian Johnson and Kad Keith, end men; Lida Jones, interlocutor; Rubye Fleming, Lilly Park, Esther Ritter, Mary Barrett Smith, Marian Taylor, Bessie Hayden, Gail Parker and Laura Spinks.

A social event that is being looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure is the Freshman Dance, which will be given in the Gymnasium Friday night. The dance will be led by Mr. Hedden, the President of the Class, and Miss Netherton

How proud we all are to have sipped with nobility! The visit of the Baroness Posse has created quite a stir in the social circles of the University. She came Friday from Boston, and was the guest of honor at the annual Girls' Gymnastic Tournament, where she delivered a most able address. She is a brilliant woman, charming and attractive, and is one of the foremost physical educators of this country.

Mrs. Robert Lee Stout entertained with a reception in honor of Baroness Rose Posse, Monday afternoon, from 4 until 6 in the Gymnasium. It was a beautiful event, and was enjoyed by several hundred guests. Mrs. Stout was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine, Baroness Posse wore an elegant gown of white lace. Receiving with them were Mrs. M. A. Scovell, Mrs. Samuel Wilson, Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. Philip Corbusier. During the delightful hours a beautiful program of music on the harp and violin was rendered. During the afternoon penora was served by a number of young girls. Among those who assisted in serving and entertaining were representatives from the four College Sororities and the Y. W. C. A. They were Misses Eloise Ginn, Lida Jones, Anne Simrall, Alice Sary Williams and Alma Faulkner.

Delicious ices, cakes, mints and almonds were served. The reception was one of the most beautiful hospitalities of the season and a charming compliment to the distinguished guest.

Messrs. Joe Lewis and Bailey Howard spent the week-end with Mr. James Cary in Versailles.

Miss Alvina Netherton visited her sister at Patterson Hall last week.

HAGERMAN NOTES.

(By Ellen Moore.)

Miss Elizabeth Portwood spent the week-end with Miss Mildred Johnson, of Winchester.

Miss Elizabeth Adams of Mt. Vernon, was the guest of Miss Theodosia Peake. Miss Anna McClung was with her father in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Thornton Johnson of Shelbyville, visited her daughter, Miss Nellie.

Mr. Coleman Simmons came up from Nicholasville and spent a few days with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. Simmons.

Miss Martelle Thomas was with relatives in Stanton for the week end.

Miss Marie Drury spent a few days with Miss Nellie Shaw of Frankfort.

Miss Elizabeth Rout, of Louisville, was the guest of Miss Jessie Mae Lillard.

Miss Lorine Martin charmingly entertained the victims of the approaching Physics examination at a pink tea last Saturday afternoon.

MISS ELOISE GINN WINS SILVER CUP.—BARONESS POSSE SPEAKS OF THE OCCASION.

The Eight Annual Gymnastic Tournament of the young women of the institution was held on Saturday afternoon. It was the most interesting tournament yet given by the department. Baroness Posse, director of the Posse gymnasium for women, Boston, Mass., the guest of honor for the occasion, delighted the audience with an address upon physical training.

The girls of the gymnastic class marched into the gymnasium, bearing American and Swedish flags, flying to the patriotic music of the band. After an intricate march the regular German gymnastic lesson began in the order following: (a) a run, (b) military tactics, (c) free gymnastics including drills with the bar bells, dumb bells, Indian clubs and reed hoops; (d) heavy classic dances.

Miss Eloise Ginn, one of the most popular members of the Junior class was presented with a handsome loving cup and if she wins it again next year it will be hers for life. Her work was splendid and hearty applause greeted the announcement of the decision of the judges. The grace of her movement added to the accurateness with which she performed the various exercises rendered her work almost perfect.

The cup was presented to Miss Ginn by Baroness Posse in a grace speech of congratulation. The work was judged from the following points: Accuracy of movement, strength of movement, grace of movement, and that movement which suggests the highest mental force and control.

Those receiving honorable mention were: Misses Alice Cary Williams, Gail Parker, Elizabeth Chenault, Mary Ford Rhodes, Scot Welsh and Mrs. Plummer.

Miss Sallie Pence was awarded a prize for regular attendance.

The judges were Misses Anna Bean and Margaret Moore, Lieut. James Lindgrin, and Dr. George Sprague.

The prettiest part of the program was the Greek dances. Twenty-five young women clad in pure Greek costumes presented the following:

Classic Dance—The Laughing Waters, composed by R. Lesser, New York.

Classic Dance—Mandalay, composed by W. Bojus, New York.

Classic Dance—Bavarian Princess, composed by W. Bojus.

Classic Dance—The Spanish Gypsy, by Gilbert, Boston.

Folk Dance of the Tyrope.

Classic Dance—Maid of the Mist, by Gilbert.

Classic Dance—A Maiden's Prayer, by R. Lesser, New York.

Classic Dance—The Junebugs, by Gilbert.

Classic Dance—Annie Laurie, composed by Mrs. Stout.

It was the original intention of Mrs. Stout to present these dances on the campus, but owing to the inclement weather, they were given indoors. The public will yet have an opportunity to see them for Mrs. Stout intends to carry out her original plans and give an exhibition on the campus for the pleasure and edification of the boys of the institution as well as the girls.

SPRING FOOT BALL PRACTICE.

The spring foot-ball practice has not been so enthusiastically indulged in this year as last, but still it has served to bring out several big, husky fellows, who have learned something of the rules that will govern the game in the season of 1910. It will be remembered that from the squad of last spring some material was developed that belongs to the champions of Kentucky. So we may expect more surprises next year when Coach Sweetland chooses his eleven.

Be sure and get in line, right after chapel Monday morning, and have your $1.50 ready, CASH FROM EVERYBODY; Credit for Nobody. The first there will be the first served. There are only a limited number, and if you want yours, you had better get it right away, because we will not hold them for you.

T. U. CENTRAL GEORGETOWN

Last year the State University took upon itself the responsibility of financing an inter-collegiate track meet and invited the universities of Kentucky to take part. The meet was held and was a very successful one in every way, except financially—the State University Athletic Association loosing money on it. The meet resulted: State 49, Berea 27, Central 15, Transylvania 8, Wesleyan 6, Georgetown 3, and four state records were broken.

The officials offered to support the meet this year if any other college wanted to hold it. All the colleges declined, and so this year State sent out invitations to all Kentucky colleges to take part in an inter-collegiate meet, and offered to pay expenses of fourteen track men and two others to act as officials. The plan was to take two officials from each college, excepting State, and every college invited accepted.

A few days ago the student managers of the Kentucky track teams met, and against the protest of the managers from State, decided to secure several foreigners from Cincinnati, Louisville, etc., to act as officials. These would have cost about one hundred dollars extra, and as State lost money last year without them the Athletic Committee decided that the treasury was not in a condition to afford this new expense. Letters were sent to every college, telling them that they had been invited at no cost to them, to take part in a track meet, held by the University of Kentucky. They had been given the privilege of bringing two officials, and State was to have none. The letter said that as State was to finance the meet, the Athletic Committee thought that State should conduct it. If the different colleges objected so strenuously to this they would withdraw. Wesleyan and Berea showing the gentlemanly spirit that exists at these colleges, expressed their intention of attending the meet in full force. Central, Georgetown and T. U., send very haughty letters saying that as their demands would not be complied with, their dignity was hurt to such an extent that they could not attend.

Poor little colleges, how very sorry State is that it has offended them by inviting them to the track meet and then arranging it for them. Noble little colleges!

WHAT CAN THE STUDENTS DO?

Have you ever stopped to think of this one minute? There are about eight or nine hundred students here in school, who spend as a whole about $500 a day. Just think of that! But where does it go? Now if you would only think of others and other things while you are spending this $500 every day, it would help a great deal.

There are some merchants here in Lexington who appreciate our trade and will help us along with our College affairs, while there are others who want to get all our money, and when we go to them for a little assistance, they say, "I can't afford it. The students don't help me." Now, fellows, these are the ones who you never see at any of our games; these are the ones who never advertise in any of the College papers, programs or books; these are the ones who want every cent we have, but will not give us a penny to boost a College affair.

There are merchants here in Lexington who will do anything reasonable for a State boy or girl; they come to our games; they advertise in all of our papers, programs and the Annual, and yet the student will pass by their store to go into one of the stores of the fellows who bleed us.

This is being noticed by all merchants and business men in town, and is causing a great deal of comment. Some say: Why doesn't the student body cut out those that bleed them?

Now, fellow students, wait a minute! Stop and think when you want anything: "HELP THE MERCHANT WHO HELPS YOU!" When you want a Suit, Dress, Shoes, Cap, Hat, Candy, or anything, get it from the State University men, for "United We Stand,—Divided We Fall."

TENNESSEE PLEASED.

The following letter received by Coach Sweetland shows the friendly spirit which exists between State and Tennessee. There was some ill-feeling over the last season's foot ball game, which was regretted very much by the students at State. We want the visiting teams, who come here to meet our teams in friendly rivalry, to enjoy themselves while here, and we are very sorry if any incident occurs to make their stay other than pleasant.

We appreciate the gentlemanly spirit of Tennessee and will do our best to reciprocate. We only wish that some of the colleges in Kentucky had the athletic and other spirit that Tennessee has.

May 3, 1910.

Mr. E. R. Sweetland,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Mr. Sweetland:—I want to express to you our thanks for the most cordial and hospitable treatment which you showed the members of our team while in your city. There is not a man in the party who does not speak well of the kindness and treatment which he received from the students. We had unfortunately been laboring under the impressions in regard to the treatment accorded visiting teams by the Kentucky students, but that has all been corrected now, and I believe that I am safe in saying that no Tennessee team has ever received better treatment at any other college than you showed us.

I am sorry that we did not have any weight men so that we could make the meet closer for you. We consider that you have wonderful possibilities in several of your men and would certainly like to see you send a team to the S. I. A. A.

I am enclosing you clippings from two of our newspapers giving an account of the meet. Would appreciate your sending me a copy of the "Idea" if any mention is made in it of the meet.

Thanking you again for your kindness, I remain,

Yours most sincerely,

JOHN A. AYRES.

P. S.—Could I get a copy of the official records and times of first and second places from Prof. Miller? I failed to get this before I left.

PERFECTLY SAFE.

Kissing as a perfectly safe pastime has received the approval of Dr. A. M. Worthington, a professor in the Harvard Medical School. Persons who refrain thru fear of the inter-change of bacteria are martyring themselves uselessly, the educator told his audience at a lecture on "Man and His Bacteria." The bacteriologist assured his hearers that the only danger in the practice was that of a sudden and violent attack of heart trouble.

"There is every reason to believe that when two wholesome persons meet, lip to lip, without upsetting the 'bacterial balance', there is no danger, was the way he put the good news.—Ex.
