President's Message

L'Shonah Tovah! A Good Year!

The High Holy Days are traditionally a time to take stock of our actions of the preceding year, and to resolve that our deeds in the year to come will achieve even higher levels.

During this past year, CKJF, with support and participation from many of you in our community, has accomplished a great deal. We have welcomed five new Soviet families; provided more than 40 youngsters with an outstanding Jewish Day Camp experience at Camp Shalom, and maintained year-round Jewish cultural programs for 3 to 5-year-olds with our pre-school parties. In addition, 5 children were able to attend a non-profit Jewish camp with the support of our camperships. People of all ages sang along with the Israeli group Galgalem, and were entranced by Peninah Schram - a consummate story-teller.

Perhaps most significant from a Jewish ethical perspective, we supported Israel's efforts to resettle more than 200,000 new immigrants through our generous contributions. At the same time, we provided financial and emotional support for many members of our own local community through our Social Services Committee.

What more can we do? I believe we understand that to maintain the status quo is to slide backward. Let us all pledge to expand our efforts in the year to come - in our own community, in Israel, and to Jews throughout the world - financially and with our time and energy.

May you all be inscribed for a good year! Hatimah Tovah!

Resettlement Report

The Resettlement of our four new American Jewish families has been successful. With cooperation of many individuals in our local community, the tasks necessary to settle and assimilate the families have proceeded smoothly. More families will arrive soon, and from what we've learned the process should go even more smoothly.

A huge thank you goes to Kaye and Harold Frankel, who coordinated the hospitality and transportation for the families. They have stepped down from their important position and they will be difficult to replace.

The four older youths, Maya, Sasha, Viktor, and Sofya, attended Jewish overnight camp. Sofya and Viktor were sent by Temple Adath Israel to GUCI, and Maya and Sasha were sent by CKJF and the Central States Hadassah Zionist Youth Commission to CYJ. All had a positive, exciting Jewish experience.

The Resettlement Committee needs more volunteers for the next families. If you haven't participated in the process, please let us know what you can do. We will also need apartment furnishings in the near future. Contact CKJF so we can get your name.

Thank you to all who helped.

Jon Adland

CKJF would like to thank the Great Harvest Bread Company for their August 2nd donation of loaves of bread to the Soviet families.

ISRAEL AND THE UNITED STATES A Shared Tradition of 'Aliyah'

Like the United States, Israel is a society based on 'Aliyah' or immigration. In the same way that the Statue of Liberty has beckoned the oppressed to America's shores, Israel has been a haven for millions of Jewish refugees worldwide. Most recently, Israel dramatically airlifted 15,000 Jewish refugees from war-torn Ethiopia. However, Jews are not the only refugees to immigrate to Israel. In the 1980's nearly 1000 Vietnamese boat people found freedom in Israel.

Today Israel faces her largest immigration challenge. After a two-decade campaign by the United States government and the American people, Jews are finally able to leave the Soviet Union. One million will immigrate to Israel over the next several years--the largest single migration of Jews in history.

Fears of a resurgence of violent anti-Semitism and a cutoff of immigration are rising as the political and economic decay of the Soviet Union continues. Anti-Semitic demonstrations have percolated throughout the country. Quickening the pace of immigration depends on the ability of Israel to absorb the immigrants. While Israel has the will, acquiring the means is a staggering task.

In September, Israel will ask the United States to 'guarantee' or 'co-sign' a loan to help pay for the costs of absorbing Soviet Jews. This will be in the form of a $10 billion loan distributed over five years. Many organizations are participating in a national letter-writing campaign to educate Members of Congress on the urgency of this legislation.

Please participate and write a letter now. In your letters, emphasize that Israel is asking the U.S. to co-sign a loan, not give her a grant, and that Israel has never defaulted on a loan.

ROSH HASHANAH 5752 HOME CEREMONIAL READING

During the course of the festive meal on Rosh Hashanah evening, pieces of apple that have been dipped in honey are distributed to the participants and the following is read either in unison or responsively.

For centuries, Jews have celebrated Rosh Hashanah by eating apples and honey. We express our hopes and prayers that this new year ahead may be especially sweet for ourselves, our loved ones and all the Jewish people around the world.

Seated at the festive table, we remember our precious heritage. We understand that the new year is a sacred time for reflection and hope, as we pray for guidance to meet the challenges of the coming year.

The beginning of the year 5752 is marked by extraordinary events.

We are witnessing the redemption of Ethiopian Jews in the land of Israel. May their memories of famine and danger fade, as they experience the joy of reunification with their families.

We are witnessing the emigration of more than 250,000 Soviet Jews who have been isolated from the mainstream of the Jewish world for decades. May they find empathy and caring as they establish new homes among the people of Israel.

We are witnessing — where there had been repression — the resurgence of Jewish vitality in Eastern Europe. May these communities gain new strength and success in their endeavors.

We are witnessing, through Operation Exodus, an outpouring of compassion and generosity for all Jews in need. May we be thankful for our religious freedom and the ability and opportunity to extend help to others.

Now, on this Rosh Hashanah, as we once again dip our apples into honey, we recite the age-old words of our tradition. May we enlarge our horizons, pledging to ourselves that this year we will do even more to reach out to Jews in distress, wherever they may be.

Kol Yis-rae-el ah-ray-vim zeh ba-zeh. כל ישראל ערבים זה בזה.

All Israel is responsible for one another.

This year may all Jews know a new measure of sweetness.

May each of us continue to grow in our commitment to our people and our faith.

*Ye-hi ra-tzon mil-fa-ne-ha, יהי רצון מלפניך, ה' אלקינו ואלקי אבותינו, Ah-do-noy Eh-lo-hay-nu vay-lo hay ah-vo-tay-nu, שתחדש עלינו שנה טובה ומתוקה.
she-te-ha-desh ah-lay-nu sha-nah to-vah u-me-tu-kah.*

May it be Your will, O Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to renew for us a good and a sweet year.
