My sons:

How are you today? we are much the same nothing unusual to write you about, however I am very sorry I did not get you a letter orr yesterday but I got up and got ready to go to Madges to a corree given for Dr. Bob Burkhart and Daddy thought it was just to bad to go so I was so much disapointed I just could not write but I did try to work off my feelings and swept all the up stairs and dusted good Then cooked a late lunch and read all afternoon and last night really I read a book yesterday something I never remember doing before and I found my self eating Oh so much more then usual therefore feeling dull today.

We were so glad to recieve your letter yesterday telling us of your trip to Phal. and we had so hoped you had spent the night up there because of the weather but were glad to learn you had made the trip back with out any trouble.

Dad has gone to town to a farmers met this morning he has a very responsible job with it and has to learn how to do it but it will pay him well.

Auntie wanted to go to Mothers this morning but I put her off thinking I might need to send her up there tonight so I can go to the missory meeting tonight that is if it suits Dad to take me. We are to meet with The Earl Kameys and they live at Greys Knob.

I have some ironing to do today as I did the wash yesterday.

Well I guess this is all the news from home and that is all I ever know so all our love:
