Dear Father,

This is a beautiful day and we are all well. Ed is asleep. He was up all night. They are working day and night with the lambs. We have about a hundred now. The weather is ideal for such work but most people are looking for rain and needing it badly. There is plenty of feed now but it won't last if it is dry too long. Received your card. Am always so glad when I see it in the mail. I am planning to pack soon. I might send some of
