Av. M. College, May 13th 1887.

Faculty met at 1 Pm. in President's room.

Reading of Papers in open sessions regulated.

All present. It was stated, that the papers read in open sessions of the different societies often contained objectionable matter and that in one case, matter that had been stricken out by the Prof. of English, had nevertheless been read in open session. - It was moved and seconded that the reading of papers should hereafter be omitted. Lost.

It was then moved and seconded that the papers in question should be handed at least three days before the open session, & a committee to be appointed for that purpose, that nothing should be read, except what they read and approved and that in case their decision was disregarded the reading of papers in open session should hereafter be forbidden.

The motion was carried. The President then appointed a Professor White, Helvel and Pence a committee for that purpose. On motion, here
