The University Faculty met in the Assembly Room of Lafferty Hall Monday, April 12 at 4:00 p.m. Vice President Leo M. Chamberlain presided in the absence of President Donovan. Members absent were R. S. Allen, Alfred Brauer, L. H. Carter, Thomas P. Cooper, May K. Duncan, William C. Eaton, W. D. Funkhouser, Carsie Hammonds, J. S. Horine, M. Jongeward, John Kuiper, J. W. Martin, F. D. Peterson, Earl P. Slone, and William S. Taylor.

The minutes of March 8 were read and approved.

Claude Sprowles, retiring President of the Student Government Association, presented his successor, John Crockett, who was welcomed by Dr. Chamberlain.

It was moved by Dr. Meece and seconded by Dean Evans, that the Faculty reconsider its action of March 8, which denied Faculty recognition to any political party club. The motion to reconsider was carried. Dean White read a resolution from the Division of Social Studies, which expressed support of the students' petition to form the Young Democratic Club. A motion was made and seconded that the petition be approved, and after extended discussion the Faculty voted its approval.

Dean Holmes, Chairman of the Committee on Student Organizations, presented a request from Eta Sigma Phi, classical language organization, to be reactivated. This request was approved by the Faculty.

Dean Holmes also presented a petition for permission to organize a Social Work Club, a social and educational organization to develop and encourage interest in the field of Social Work on the part of the students of the University.

The Faculty voted approval of the organization.

The Chairman announced that the terms of the three faculty members of the Student Government Association had expired. He stated that three members should be elected by the University Faculty and that the President would name one of the three to act as Adviser to the organization. He asked for nominations from the floor and the following were named: A. D. Kirwan, J. E. Reeves, E. A. Bureau, and C. A. Anderson. Professors Kirwan, Revees, and Bureau received the highest number of votes and were declared elected.

Dean White presented for the College of Arts and Sciences the following proposed change in Lower Division requirements: and in courses:

- 1. Course Listings.

 That the Department of Sociology be permitted to list Educational Sociology 230 as Sociology 230.
- 11. Change in Lower Division Requirements.

 That the lower division requirements in Humanities be amended, substituting the following for the present requirements.

The Humanities. All lower division students will be required to complete a series of three introductory courses in the Humanities (for a total of six semester credits), to be chosen in any combination of three from the following specific courses, except that one and only one shall be either Humanities D or Humanities E; (Each of these courses will carry 2 semester credits.)

Humanities A, Classicism: Graeco-Roman; Modern European Humanities B, The Renaissance; Romanticism Humanities C, Realism and Naturalism; the Contemproary Humanities D, Art: the Renaissance to the Present Humanities E, Music: the Renaissance to the Present (Above to be effective September 1.)

III. Courses to be dropped.
Art A
English A
German A
Music A
Philosophy A
Romance Languages A

IV. New Courses

Anthropology 141, Applied Anthropology (3 sem. crs.)

The application of anthropological methods to contemporary practical problems. Basic concepts and general conclusions of anthropological research will be given as essential background material. The application of these principles to such problems as acculturation, colonial administration, intercultural education, and race relations will constitute the major part of the course. Prerequisite: Anthropology 2.

Humanities A, Classicism: Graeco-Roman; Modern European (2 sem. crs.)

Lecture and discussion, and required reading from representative works.

Typical of the writers to be considered are Plato, Aristotle, Descartes,

Lessing, Goethe.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

Humanities B, The Renaissance; Romanticism (2 sem. crs.)

Lecture and discussion, and required reading from representative works. Typical of the writers to be considered are Bacon, Machiavelli, Rousseau, Kant, Shelley.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

Humanities C, Realism and Naturalism; the Contemporary (2 sem. crs.)

Lecture and discussion, and required reading from representative works.

Typical of the writers to be considered are Zola, Hardy, Huxley, O'Neill, Kafka.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

Humanities D, Art: The Renaissance to the Present (2 sem. crs.)

Illustrated lectures and discussions, with required reading from the literature of art history and criticism. Intensive critical study of selected masterworks.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

Humanities E, Music: the Renaissance to the Present (2 semester crs.)

Lextures and discussions, with illustrations by performance and from recordings. Study of musical forms; required reading and listening; analyses of selected masterworks.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.

Psychology 130, Speech Correction: a Survey (3 sem. crs.)

The nature, causes, and treatment of the major disorders of speech: defective articulation and voice, aphasia, and stuttering. Some reference will be made to organic disabilities affecting speech. Stuttering will not be stressed. A limited amount of clinical practice may be obtained by some of the more advanced students.

Prerequisites: 9 sem. crs. of Psychology or Educational Psychology

Psychology 131, Stuttering and Its Correction (3 sem. crs.)

The nature, causes and treatment of stuttering, with emphasis on therapeutic methods. This course will provide more material from the field of mental hygiene than Psychology 130. Supervised clinical work may be done by students in this course who show that they are ready for it.

Prerequisites: 9 sem. crs. of Psychology or Educational Psychology.

V. Miscellaneous

That the Department of Military Science and Tactics be permitted to set Monday, May 17, 2:00 p.m., as Military Field Day.

That no change be made at present in the Physical Education requirements.

The Faculty approved the changes as recommended.

Dean White also presented a request that all ROTC enrollees, subject to the approval of the Arts and Sciences Faculty be excused from classes for Government Inspection Monday, May 3, 1948. The Faculty approved this request, subject to the approval by the Arts and Sciences Faculty.

In the absence of Dean Cooper, Assistant Dean Horlacher presented for the College of Agriculture and Home Economics the following course change:

Drop

Home Economics 3 - Food Preparation and Elementary Nutrition.
4 quarter hours. Also 4 semester credits.

Substitute for it

Home Economics 3 - Dietetics for Nurses. 6 quarter hours.
Also 4 semester credits.

Normal nutrition and the modification of the normal diet in the treatment of disease. The laboratory includes practice in food preparation and the planning and preparation of diets for various pathological conditions. Lectures, 3 hours; laboratory, 6 hours. (Under the semester system the lectures will be 2 hours and the laboratory 4 hours.)

Prerequisite: Anatomy and Physiology 6.

(This course is being taught now and will be offered as a four-credit course after this quarter.

This requested change was approved by the University Faculty.

Dr. Townsend called to the attention of the Faculty the two lectures by Dr. Rene J. Dubos, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, Tuesday, April 13, under the auspices of Sigma Xi.

The Faculty adjourned.

Maurice F. Seay

Secretary