

State College, Lexington, Ky., Mar. 23, 1892.

Faculty met in regular session. Present all members except Profs. Shackelford and White. There being no business the Faculty adjourned.

J. M. Newman, Sec. Faculty.

State College, Lexington, Ky., April 21,

Faculty met in call sessions in President's office for the purpose of deciding honors for the year among the candidates for graduation.

The names of candidates for graduation presented were Page, Sewell, Shelby and Reynolds for the degree of C. E.; Southgate, Pottinger, Mays, and Cox for the degree of A. B.; Elkin and Shaw for B. S.; Miss Hunt for the degree of Ph. B.

First honor was awarded S. L. Pottinger, second honor Elkin.

There being too many candidates to grant each the privilege of speaking on commencement day Prof. Kettle moved that the class be instructed to elect a class orator. Carried after being amended that the President be empowered to select as many as two others from the class to speak.

No other business the Faculty adjourned.

J. M. Newman,
Sec'y Faculty.

State College, Lexington, Ky., May 13, 1892.

Faculty met in call sessions to consider the case of cadets Sturgell, Welch, St. Clair Patrick and Samuel for firing cannon after taps. On motion of Prof. White they were suspended for the remainder of the term.

The Faculty adjourned. J. M. Newman,
Sec'y Faculty.

Honors
for 1892