

Lonnie Reeras, now of Aldine, Tex. The first teacher to open a moonlight school in the ~~old~~ world. He was the first Rowan County moonlight school teacher.

The child in the portrait is a young girl, possibly a toddler, with dark hair, wearing a dark, long-sleeved garment. The portrait is set against a light, circular background. The text below the portrait is very faint and illegible, but it appears to be a caption or a short paragraph of text.
