EXHIBITS

January 25 March 15 "The Kentucky Painter: from the Frontier Era to the Great War". University of Kentucky Art Museum.

CORRECTIONS TO SPRING SEMESTER HOURS

The Biological Sciences Library is open 8:00 am - 4:30 pm. on Fridays, not 8:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Please change the listing for the telephone number in Maps to 257-1853.

On an experimental basis for the Spring Semester, the Reading Room of the Department of Special Collections will be open from 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm. on Wednesday from February 4 through May 6. The department will be staffed by students. Our Sunday policy will be in effect: No Rare Books or Manuscripts will be serviced.

ACTS MEETING - FEBRUARY 25

The next ACTS general meeting will be Wednesday, February 25 in the MIK North Staff lounge (3rd floor, MIK North). LSO will sell doughnuts and coffee at 8:30. The business meeting will be at 9:00, and immediately afterward Dr. Timothy Sineath and Dr. Jim Sodt will speak to the group about UK's library science program. All support staff are invited, particularly those interested in taking classes.

WRITING SKILLS TUTORING

Professor Howard Beers will be available again this semester on Tuesday afternoons and Thursday mornings in the Instructional Services, Room, King Library, to offer assistance with writing skills.

NEWS FROM LSO

Well, we ended this year with a bang. All who attended the Christmas luncheon seemed to enjoy themselves. Thanks to David Farrell and his committee, everyone had food in 15 minutes. Recorder music was provided by Metro Voloshin from the School of Music and the program consisted of yours truly recounting the year of LSO activities. On behalf of the staff the LSO presented Paul Willis with a gift certificate to Holly Hill Inn in Midway. Unfortunately, Mr. Willis had to be in Atlanta that day so all who attended the luncheon knew what his gift was before he did. We plan to issue an annual report for last gift by the end of January, sort of a last official function. The LSO officers for next year are Barbara Galik, President; Alan Schaplowsky, Vice-President; Janis Pivarnik, Secretary; and Kathy Holden, Treasurer. We hope you give them the strong support that you gave us. On behalf of Andrea and Sandra I want to say thank you to all of you who made LSO such a success this past year.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both manual and automated processes. The goal is to ensure that the data is as accurate and reliable as possible.

The third part of the document focuses on the results of the analysis. It shows that there is a clear trend in the data, which is consistent with the initial hypothesis. This finding is significant and warrants further investigation.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the findings and a list of recommendations. It suggests that the current methods are effective but could be improved in certain areas. The author also notes that the data is still being analyzed and that a final report will be provided in the near future.
