purchased himself a true & good husband & we are still proud of him.
He is making Esther a present of a pair of nice horses & is going to engage a coachman for her. Mr. Crawford just has the carriage & the outfit accept the horse. We think it very nice &

My dear my Jones

The beautiful
present to Esther has just arrived. It is so pretty & made so nicely I wonder how you can do such handiwork & do beautifully with all the interruption you must have of a young Master
