The Sporting Way
BY BOB ADAIR

A report from Louisville yesterday stated that 3,500 seats were still available for tomorrow night's clash between the Wildcats and Great Lakes. . . The sponsors of the game have arranged an elaborate entertainment program for the players, coaches, and guests. . . A reception for the Ruppmen will be held at Louisville's Union Station Saturday morning, with a luncheon and possibly a movie following. . . A similar reception will be given the Great Lakes team when the Sailors arrive in Louisville tonight.

PRE-GAME LUNCHEON HONORS OFFICIALS
The pre-game program Saturday will get under way with a stag luncheon in honor of Governor Keen Johnson and his party, and Admiral John Downes and his group. . . Coaches of both the high school teams which will meet in the preliminary tilt, as well as Coach Adolph Rupp, of Kentucky, and Coach J. R. Cook, of Great Lakes, athletic directors of the teams, officials of the Navy League, members of the Louisville Board of Trade, and officials of the American Legion, will be guests of honor. . . Between games, the Great Lakes coach will present the trophy to the winner of the Seventh Regional high school championship. . . Between halves of the U. K.-Great Lakes encounter, Don Hill, WAVE sports announcer, will auction off the two basketballs used in the games.

CHAMPIONSHIP BALL TO BE AUCTIONED
At the close of the final game of the Southeastern conference tournament, Ernal Allen salvaged the ball used in the championship struggle and later presented it to "Herky" Rupp, the Maestro's son. . . The fact that the ball used in tomorrow night's game will be auctioned off may eliminate the possibility of a Kentucky player getting the oval. . . Milt Ticco is expected to be hot for the Sailor engagement since he has been really dumping 'em through the hoop this week in scrimmage.

MILITARY ATMOSPHERE FOR CEREMONIES
Sea scouts will sell programs and sailors, marines, and legionnaires will serve as ushers, all of which will add to the navy atmosphere which the sponsors have attempted to establish for the event. . . The American Legion color guard, its drum and bugle corps, and the bands of the competing high schools will take part in the ceremonies. . . St. Xavier won the right to meet Louisville Male high in the preliminary game by trouncing Dupont Manual 27-20 Wednesday night in the semi-finals of the Seventh Region.

OH HAPPY DAY THE REDS PLAY HERE
It's an old saying that things come to those who wait—Now we're supposed to confine our writing to collegiate athletics, although the old "apple" better known as a major league baseball, is our favorite fruit when it comes to singing the literary exuberance and waggish vernacular commonly used by sports scribblers. All year we have confined the material in this column to the Wildcats and other college teams although at times it proved rather difficult. But the Cincinnati Reds and the Boston Red Sox unwittingly came to our rescue. It seems that one of these teams, probably Cincinnati, finally got wise to the fact that Lexington is overflowing with baseball enthusiasts, and therefore, arranged to play one of their spring exhibition games on the University of Kentucky diamond April 8. Of course this will be of interest to University students, and since it will be played in the Wildcat's "apple orchard," we now have a chance to give complete coverage to a baseball contest.

Capurso To Lead Community Sing

"Sing for Defense" will be the theme of the community sing which will be held under the direction of Dr. Alexander Capurso in the Music room of the Union building, Tuesday, March 17, at 8 p.m. Ford Montgomery will be accompanist.

Bringing together the students and residents of Lexington, the sing is designed to help to maintain normal living conditions during the war.

By JEAN WILLIAMS

The WAA Glamour Cats are planning for a busy day tomorrow when they will compete with 15 athletic teams, representing various colleges and universities of Ohio and Kentucky, during the annual sport day events held at the University of Cincinnati.

The Glamour Cats will start the ball rolling around the hoop and into the basket, at 2 p.m. when they play the basketballers of Bowling Green college. At the same time, UK will be meeting Bowling Green's shuttleboarders and Wittenberg's fencing team.

UK will again meet Bowling Green at 3 p.m. when the badminton events take place. Also at that hour, UK will compete against University of Cincinnati, the hosts of the "Sport day," for the ping pong squabble.

Swimming events will be held at 3 o'clock and the Glamour Cats will be in the water against Miami University of Cincinnati, Butler University, and Marietta University.

The final event for the Glamour Cats will be their volleyball tangle with Marietta University scheduled for 4 p.m.

Call Hackensmith A Robber; He Still Comes Up Smiling
By JOE HODGES

Several times throughout the current school year, there has been a great deal of bouquet tossing to many individuals. Possibly some deserve this honor, while others could be placed on the so-called doubtful list.

However, in a window-barred office in the basement of Alumni Gymnasium is the headquarters of a man who always hears the hard luck, or "I was robbed" stories of hundreds. He's Professor C. W. Hackensmith of the Physical Education department, better known to his numerous friends as Hack.

For some ten years this gentleman has been hearing the complaints of everyone, but always manages to come up smiling. He's never too busy to stop his work and console some mistreated student, no matter how large or small the incident might be.

Since coming to Kentucky in 1931, this professor has made quite a record for himself. No one will question his ability as Chair of intramurals because he has served this position to its full capacity.

It has always been his policy to give everyone a square deal, and to slight no one. Nothing more could be expected of a man, especially in intramurals, where the going is always tough.

Not to be Scotch, he can make a nickel go farther than any five people. For the limited amount of funds he receives for intramurals, the results obtained are almost unbelievable; however, the facts are there for anyone's inspection.

There's a possibility that Kentucky might lose this important person to the man with the long stern face and white beard. Should this happen, it can truthfully be said that Kentucky's loss will be Uncle Sam's gain.

DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING
DURHAM, N. C.

The Diploma of Graduate Nurse is awarded after three years. Qualified students are eligible for the degree of B. S. in Nursing after an additional year of hospital and university work.

The entrance requirements are intelligence, character, and one year of college work. The annual tuition of $100.00 covers the cost of maintenance and uniforms. Because of the urgent need for nurses, the next class will be admitted July 5 instead of September 30, as previously announced. Catalogues, application forms, and information about requirements may be obtained from the Dean.
