Dear Victor:

Here are the proofs again. I hope you got Abbot Milido all right-- that "awful sight". I am glad we are progressing well with the book and that the end is in sight. I know it will be very fine, and I think your edition will have a very special character all its own which Mardersteig will not measure up to. But I expect him to be very good too in a different way. I had to work to keep J. Laughlin from putting archaic decorations and woodcuts in the edition. It needs no decoration, the Desert Fathers are really not to be tied down in a "period". They transcend all epochs.

A few more titles, if Carolyn can get them from the library. (I am sending some back today).

° Gienon, Rene: Crisis of the Modern World.

✓ Trevor- Roper , H.R. The Last Days of Hitler.

Kluckhohn and Leighton- The Navaho.

Looking forward to seeing you sometime soon. With all blessings

Faithfully in Christ
