The report was examined in detail by members of the Executive Committee, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, was ordered received, filed and made a part of the record.

C. Judge Stoll Takes Chair.

Governor Willis asked permission to withdraw from the meeting in order to attend a conference. Judge Stoll was asked to take the chair.

D. Budget Changes.

President Donovan reported that, under the contract with the architects for plans and specifications on Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse, the owner was required to furnish information necessary as to soundings, surveys and elevations on the site. He stated that this information had been furnished at a cost of $1,033.44.

President Donovan reported that, under contract with the architects for plans and specifications on the Fine Arts Building, the owner was requested to furnish to the architects necessary surveys, soundings and preliminary work with reference to the preparation of the site. He reported that this work had been done and the information furnished to the architects at a cost of $1,717.55.

The President recommended that these amounts be appropriated from unappropriated surplus of the University Budget, and that the Comptroller be authorized to make the necessary budget transfers.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the sum of $1,035.44 was appropriated for the above work on the Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse, the sum of $1,717.55 was authorized appropriated for above described work on the Fine Arts Building, and the Comptroller was authorized to make the necessary budget adjustments.

E. Flannagan-Hope Budget Detailed.

President Donovan stated that the Flannagan-Hope fund budget was not available at the time the Board adopted the original budget for the fiscal year 1947-48, and read a letter from the Comptroller detailing the estimated income and recommended departmental appropriations.

September 20, 1947

President H. L. Donovan

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Frank D. Peterson
Comptroller.

Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the budget was approved and ordered made of record.

F. General Budget Increases.

President Donovan stated that he had approved a number of increases and made some decreases in the 1947-48 budget, and recommended that the following increases and decreases be approved by the Board. He read the following letter:

(Signed) Frank D. Peterson
Comptroller.

The members of the Board heard the recommendation, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, approved the budget changes and authorized same made of record.

G. Increased Appropriation for Dairy Center and Fine Arts Building.

President Donovan reported that the contract on the Dairy Center had been approved and authorized, but that a sum for the architects' fee and the printing of extra sets of plans and specifications, and advertisements for same, had not received Board approval. He stated that the architects' fee, in addition to the amounts previously allowed for the contract, amounted to $2,500.00, and Sundry Items to $587.20. He recommended that the sum of $3,087.20 be appropriated from the Experiment Station Revolving Fund.

He also reported that the total of contracts plus the architects' fee for the Fine Arts Building exceeds the amount heretofore authorized and appropriated by the sum of $66,306.50.

The President recommended that this amount be appropriated from the unappropriated surplus of the Division of Colleges Revolving Fund.

The members of the Board heard the recommendations and, after being thoroughly advised, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, authorized the sum of $3,087.20 appropriated from the Experiment Station Revolving Fund, and the sum of $66,306.50 appropriated from the unappropriated surplus of the General University Budget. The Comptroller was directed to make necessary transfers.

H. Appropriation for Dairy Equipment.

President Donovan stated that it would be necessary to purchase equipment for the Dairy Center now under construction. He said that Dean Cooper had estimated the cost to be something less than $30,000, and that a part of the equipment could be purchased from Experiment Station funds. He said that, since the Dairy Center would be used in connection with the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, and in research, he thought it well for the equipment to be purchased, in the main, from Division of Colleges Revolving funds, and requested that the sum of $20,000 be appropriated for this purpose.

The members of the Board discussed the recommendation of the President, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, authorized the sum of $20,000 appropriated from unappropriated surplus of the General University Budget for equipment for the Dairy Center, and the Comptroller was directed to make the necessary transfers.

I. Audit of Louisville College of Pharmacy.

President Donovan read the following letter from the Comptroller reporting on an audit of the Louisville College of Pharmacy.

September 24, 1947

Dr. H. L. Donovan, President
University of Kentucky

My dear President Donovan:

I attach report on an audit of the Louisville College of Pharmacy for a two year period ended June 30, 1947, made by Humphrey Robinson and Company, certified public accountants at Louisville, Kentucky.

The report reveals assets in the form of cash in the amount of $21,310.06; investment securities at cost, $39,578.48; lands and buildings, improvements, furniture and fixtures, less depreciation, valued at $163,042.48. There are no liabilities against these assets at this time.

The College of Pharmacy does have a library fund, consisting of a cash balance of $339.75 which was received from membership dues of members of the association. This office takes the position that these funds are not assets of the College of Pharmacy and may be retained by the Kentucky Council on Pharmaceutical Education.

May I have your direction to contact the treasurer of the Louisville College of Pharmacy and accept the assets as shown by the audit of Humphrey Robinson and Company?

Respectfully submitted

(Signed) Frank D. Peterson
Comptroller.

The Board heard the reading of the letter, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the audit of Humphrey Robinson and Company was accepted, and the Comptroller was directed and authorized to accept, on behalf of the University, the assets as shown by the audit, and to place same in a University lock box.

J. Need for Storeroom Space Reported.

President Donovan read the following letter received from the Comptroller:

September 26, 1947

Dr. H. L. Donovan, President
University of Kentucky

My dear President Donovan;

The lack of storeroom space on the campus is most acute. The University owns much merchandise now stored in the open, covered with tarpaulin. We have leased a warehouse which is completely filled with office equipment and furniture. Additional space has been sought, but none has been found.

The American Suppliers, a branch of the American Tobacco Company, has graciously permitted us the use of approximately thirty-five thousand square feet of floor space in their warehouse opposite the campus, rent free until October 30, 1947. I have given them my word that the materials and equipment stored therein will be moved on or before November 1st. This means that we will have to store this property outside on platforms and cover it with tarpaulin. Naturally, much damage from exposure to the elements will result, but it seems to be the best we can do at this time.

I have located some comparatively large tents owned by the War Assets Administration, and have submitted purchase orders for four tents. The bidding on these tents will close October 2nd. I have also requested the Federal Works Agency to approve a justification of need for the University that we may have a priority over other groups in the securing of the tents. If we are successful, it will be necessary to erect one or more of them immediately. Would you please therefore advise what space on the campus may be used for erecting the tents?

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Frank D. Peterson
Comptroller.

The members of the Board discussed the acute shortage in storage space, and made several suggestions for alleviating the situation, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the President was directed to order tents placed on any part of the University property which will best serve the needs of the University.

K. College of Agriculture and Home Economics Course Fees Approved.

President Donovan read a letter received from Dean Cooper, recommending course fees.

September 24, 1947

President H. L. Donovan
University of Kentucky

Dear President Donovan:

We have been informed that a new contract will be presented to the Trustees and the Veterans Administration, effective for the fall quarter, with reference to laboratory fees. You will recall that last May I presented a request for certain course fees, in accordance with action taken by the faculty of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The faculty recommended a course fee of $20.00 for Animal Industry 145, Advanced Poultry Judging and $35.00 for Animal Industry 122, Advanced Dairy Cattle Judging, these fees to cover cost of transportation. It was desired to have them listed in the published catalog material so that it would be possible for the Veterans Administration to allow payment of them for veterans taking the courses. You informed me at that time that it was too late to include them in the contract with the Veterans Administration. If a new contract is to be presented to the Trustees and the Veterans Administration now, I wish to recommend a course fee of $20.00 for Animal Industry 145, Advanced Poultry Judging, and $35.00 for Animal Industry 122, Advanced Dairy Cattle Judging. I trust that you will approve them for inclusion.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Thomas Cooper
Dean and Director.

The Board heard the reading of the letter and the recommendation of the President, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, authorized a course fee of $20.00 for Animal Industry 145, Advanced Poultry Judging, and $35.00 for Animal Industry 122, Advanced Dairy Cattle Judging.

These fees were authorized listed in the published catalog.

L. Flight Training Course Fees Approved.

President Donovan stated that, upon the recommendation of the faculty of the College of Engineering, flight training courses had been approved by the University Faculty, and the courses offered for the first time in the Fall Quarter of 1947. He stated that Dean Terrell, of the College of Engineering, had recommended fees for the courses, including flight training. He read the following letter:

September
Twenty Seven
1947

President H. L. Donovan
University of Kentucky

My dear President Donovan:

It now appears that the Flight Training Course will be given at the University of Kentucky.

I wish to recommend that the following rates apply to this course:

- |  |         |
|--|---------|
| 1. Rate per flying hour, dual instruction        | $11.00 |
| 2. Rate per solo hour flying                     | 8.00    |
| 3. Rate per credit hour for ground school | 8.00.   |

Maximum total cost for three quarters Flight Training:

Dual instruction: 20 hrs. at $11.00	$220.00
Solo flying : 30 hrs. at 8.00	240.00
Ground School : 3 cr. hrs. at 8:00	24.00
	$484.00

The three credit hours of Ground School instruction represent a minimum of 30 hours class work.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) D. V. Terrell
Dean.

The Board heard the recommendation, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the course fee per flying hour, dual instruction was set at $11.00; per solo hour flying, $8.00; and per credit hour for ground school, $8.00. These fees were authorized published in the catalog.

M. Gifts

From Grayson Foundation, Inc.

President Donovan reported a gift from the Grayson Foundation, Inc., in the sum of $35,000, to facilitate the study of Equine Virus Abortion, which is being conducted in the Department of Animal Pathology of the Experiment Station. He stated that the actual gift would approximate $105,000, and that this check for $35,000 represented the first allotment of the grant. No restrictions are placed upon the expenditures of the fund, except that they shall be used for research on virus abortion, as authorized by the Director of the Experiment Station.

He stated that this is a very generous contribution, and will materially aid the Experiment Station in the research study of Equine Virus Abortion. He recommended acceptance of the gift, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the gift was authorized accepted, and the President was directed to write a letter of appreciation to the officials of the Grayson Foundation on behalf of the Board of Trustees and the University.

From Mr. Barry Bingham--Contribution to the Library

President Donovan stated that he had received a letter from Mr. Barry Bingham, owner and publisher of the Courier-Journal, stating that, in going through some old papers and records of his father, the late Robert W. Bingham, he had found volumes of "The Tobacco Planter" and "The Burley Tobacco Grower", and that he was offering these volumes to the University Library.

The President reported that these volumes will be of great benefit to those who may make a study of the tobacco cooperative movement in Kentucky, and that the University Library is always on the lookout for this type of historical material. He recommended that these volumes be accepted.

On motion duly made, seconded and carried, the gift of the bound volumes of "The Tobacco Planter" and "The Burley Tobacco Grower" was authorized accepted, and placed in the University of Kentucky Library, and the President was directed to write a letter of appreciation to Mr. Bingham on behalf of the Board of Trustees of the University, for this material.

N. Return of Governor Willis to the Meeting.

At this point, Governor Willis returned to the meeting of the Board of Trustees, and assumed the chair.

O. Bonds for University Policemen.

President Donovan stated that the Executive Committee, at its meeting on August 28, 1947, had before it the question of carrying bond protection for University policemen. The protection would be for the performance of their duties, and would protect the University and the policemen against false arrest and any other errors of judgment of the officers.

The Executive Committee, at its meeting, discussed the question, and requested the Comptroller to secure further information and report to the Board of Trustees at its September meeting.

The Comptroller reported that he had ascertained that the city police of Lexington do have this protection. He further reported that he had received from Carpenter-Warren Insurance Agency, a rate of $5.00 per thousand on scheduled police bond, subject to a minimum premium of $100.00 for the bond.

It was further explained that the manual rate for police bonds is $15.00 per thousand and $10.00 per thousand for deputy sheriffs.

The members of the Board discussed the question at length. They also discussed the question of jurisdiction of city authorities on the campus of the University.

After thorough consideration, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Comptroller was authorized to take out a bond of $2,500.00 for each campus policeman.

P. Proposed Budget for the Biennium 1948-50.

President Donovan made the following statement:

"The most important business today is the consideration of our budget request for the biennium beginning July 1, 1948. Your president has been at work with other administrative officials of the University for the past several months with the view of determining the appropriation required to accomplish the needs of the University and to keep this institution in line with similar institutions in neighboring states. We have collected a great deal of data for your consideration. We believe the request which we are making is modest and that it is the minimum requirement. You are aware that Kentucky has long neglected its university and that the time has arrived when the state should begin to support its university if it expects its sons and daughters to meet the competition of young people from other states who are given better educational opportunities.

"The budget request two years ago was based on an enrollment of 5,000 students. The budget request for 1948-50 is based on 7,200. This is an increase in enrollment of 50% over what we anticipated two years ago. The enrollment now is 100% more than when I became president in 1941. Considering the increase in enrollment and the decrease in the value of the dollar, the University will actually not have as much money to support its activities in terms of enrollment and purchasing power as it had when I became your president six and a half years ago. The 1939 dollar has a purchasing power of only 56¢ at the present time.

"The budget which we are submitting to you for operation and maintenance is 50% higher than the budget which we secured two years ago. This request for 50% more money for operation and maintenance does not take into consideration the declining value of the dollar, but only the increased number of students. The legislatures of 43 states met this year and made appropriations to their state universities and I find that practically all of them have increased their appropriations from 50% to 100%. Many state universities had their appropriations doubled. I am not certain that we have actually requested enough money to meet the cost of the University for the next biennium, particularly if the dollar should continue to decline in value.

"Kentucky has been niggardly with the University in its expenditure on the university plant. As I have repeatedly told you, the legislatures of Kentucky have appropriated through the first seventy-two years of its existence only $1,234,000 for capital outlay. However, since the opening of the war in 1941, the General Assembly has appropriated $2,050,000 for buildings. This money is now being spent on the Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse, the Fine Arts Building and the Dairy Center.

"The plant of the University was prepared to take care of not more than 4,000 students without unduly crowding its classrooms and laboratories. With a student enrollment approximately double that number, the plant is entirely inadequate to meet the needs of our student body. Furthermore, many of the buildings are very old and they were not originally designed so as to handle large classes. The cost of the maintenance of these buildings is also high. The University needs many new buildings.

"We are requesting a deficiency appropriation to be made available during the remainder of this biennium for the completion of the Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse. This request is for $1,700,000 for finishing and furnishing this building. Since this building is a memorial to our Kentucky war dead it should be an appropriate memorial that will reflect the appreciation of the state for those who made the supreme sacrifice. It will stand through the centuries as a symbol of the price that over 9,000 young men paid that democracy might continue to survive in the world.

"Beginning with the Chandler administration in 1935, and continuing through the Johnson and Willis administrations, the attention of the people of this state was focused upon the dilapidated and unsanitary conditions of our mental hospitals, prisons, the reform school, and other properties of the state. The people were made aware of the needs of these institutions and many of their old buildings were rehabilitated and many new buildings were erected. A new prison was built at LaGrange, the prison at Eddyville was rehabilitated, a magnificent new hospital was started at Herrington Lake and completed by the Federal Government, and today it is one of the finest mental hospitals in the world. New buildings were erected at the Eastern State Hospital, the hospital at Hopkinsville and the one at Lakeland. The Reform School at Greendale had a number of new buildings erected and the old ones were remodeled. A number of buildings at other institutions of the state were rehabilitated and modernized.

"Christian people will provide for the unfortunate members of society because of their humanitarian ideals. However, a state cannot expect the expenditure of money on the misfits of society to yield a dividend on its investment, but money spent on the gifted youth of the state and for research at the state university will yield a dividend on the investment made by society. The state does not give its university anything. It invests money in its university and all of that investment, plus large dividends, comes back to the people of Kentucky.

"Recently I had the Comptroller make a study of the total appropriations made to the University by the state during the last twenty-five years. The total amount invested in the University of Kentucky by the people during this quarter of a century is $33,493,585.32. The University has one laboratory that has been in operation less than twenty years which has made discoveries that about 70% of our farmers now apply each year to their tobacco and, as a consequence, the income of the farmers is increased approximately $35,000,000 annually, or more each year than the people have invested in the University over a period of twenty-five years. This is not a fairy tale that I am reporting to you. It can be substantiated by a study of the results of the tobacco laboratory under the direction of Dr. W. D. Valleau.

"In addition to the deficiency appropriation for the Memorial Auditorium-Fieldhouse, I am recommending $3,000,000 each year for capital outlay at the University, or a total of $6,000,000 for the biennium.

"On a page following, we have a summary of the budget request for 1948-50. Also, we are presenting to you a map and a table which will show what our neighbors in states bordering on Kentucky have already appropriated for their universities for each year of the next biennium. From this map you will observe that Kentucky is far behind its neighbors in its support of the University. Two years ago when I made a similar report, Kentucky was ahead of both West Virginia and Tennessee. Today these states are ahead of us. The legislature of Tennessee adjourned only a few weeks ago and it appropriated $3,075,000 per annum for the operation and maintenance of its university, and $3,000,000 for buildings. I am anxious that Kentucky shall do as well for its university as Tennessee is doing. It also occurs to me that Kentucky should support one state university as well as Indiana supports Purdue or Indiana University. However, if we do this we will invest in the education of our youth and in the research program of our state less than one-half Indiana is investing.

"I am also including in this report a list of the building needs for the University of Kentucky for the future. This summary of building needs will give you a picture of what the administration of the University believes is essential in the way of buildings which should be erected within a decade. This, too, is a conservative request as compared with estimates for buildings at other institutions which I have seen reported from time to time. Should we receive during the next decade money to erect all the buildings I am recommending in this report, our University would still have a plant worth less than the present plants of many of the universities in neighboring states.

"I request your careful consideration of this budget with the hope that you will approve it enthusiastically, and that you will work with me to get the next Governor and the Legislature to pass it without reducing any item in the budget. It is reported that we will have a surplus of over twenty-five million dollars at the end of the present biennium. Much of this surplus should be spent on the capital investments which are greatly needed by the state rather than upon current expenses. Therefore, I hope that our request for the much needed buildings will meet with the approval of the administration and the General Assembly which will meet next January."

Q. Recess for Luncheon.

The Committee recessed at 12:40 for luncheon, which was served in the Student Union Building, and after luncheon, returned to the President's Office, where they took up again the business on the agenda.

R. Resignations of Faculty and Staff Members.

President Donovan made the following report on resignations of faculty and staff members from March, 1942, through August, 1947.

Since February, 1942, when the Court of Appeals handed down the opinion that no University of Kentucky employee could be paid more than $5,000 a year from state funds, 438 university staff members with the rank of instructor or higher have resigned, the great majority to accept better paying positions elsewhere.

Unless higher salaries can be paid to keep and to attract the kind of faculty members we need, the University of Kentucky one of these days will find itself staffed by old men and boys.

In the five and one-half years since the Court's decision limiting salaries was handed down, resignations of staff members (not including part-time or temporary instructors, graduate assistants, office workers and minor service employees) have averaged 80 per year. Any business would find it difficult to maintain a high degree of efficiency with such a turnover of its employees.

The following have resigned since February 1942:

Deans, directors, and department heads, 8; professors, 14; associate professors, 25; assistant professors, 29; instructors, 87; county and home demonstration agents, 143; technicians, field agents, and other research workers, 90; service employees (physicians, nurses, librarians, dieticians, etc.), 32; miscellaneous, 10.

"By years, the following major resignations were recorded: 1942 (March through December), 47; 1943, 75; 1944, 59; 1945, 66; 1946, 119; 1947 (through August), 72. At the rate resignations are being received, the total for 1947 will probably exceed 100.

"The University of Kentucky cannot hope to compete with other institutions and firms in this polite piracy of faculty members. If the University attempted to match salaries of employees receiving less than $5,000 by promoting the men under consideration for other positions to a higher bracket, the whole rating system of the University would be upset. We have frequently been criticized because we let an assistant professor on a $3,600 salary accept a position at some other university, when, if we had offered him $5,000 to stay with us, he might have been held. To practice a policy of this type would mean that your professors and associate professors would be disturbed and their morale broken because they cannot receive a promotion in salary. Consequently, the upper limit holds down the salaries in each bracket below that of the full professor.

"Your time will not permit me to give you a complete list of the tragic losses to the University of former faculty members but I would be pleased to point out the names of a few whose services we could ill afford to lose, and to call your attention to the positions they secured at higher salaries in other universities and firms.

"E. J. Asher, associate professor of psychology, $3600 -- Purdue University, $5200; Konrad Bekker, assistant professor of economics, $3600 -- State Department, Washington, $5500; C. C. Branson, associate professor of geology, $3600 -- Shell Oil Company, $5000; William F. Church, assistant professor of history, $1920 -- Brown University, $4000; Claiborne Latimer, professor of mathematics, $5000 -- Emory University, $5600.

"P. C. Emrath, associate professor of mining and metallurgical engineering, $3120 -- manager, Yingleing Mining Company, Golconda, Illinois, $10,000; Hollis P. Guy, assistant professor of commerce, $3600 -- National Education Association, $5000; T. M. Hahn, associate professor of physics, $4200 -- Naval Ordnance Laboratory, $6200; Charles B. Hayes, purchasing supervisor, $2800 -- Emory University, $4100; Henry H. Hill, dean of the University, $7500 -- superintendent of Pittsburgh public schools, $15,000, now President of Peabody College.

"R. N. Jeffrey, plant pathologist, $3560 -- Firestone Rubber Company, $5600; Marshall D. Ketchum, professor of commerce, $3800 -- University of Chicago, $7000; David R. Lincicome, instructor in zoology, $3500 -- University of Wisconsin, $4500; F. T. McGuire, associate professor of physical metallurgy, $3000 -- Republic Steel Company, $6500; James W. May, associate professor of mechanical engineering, $3120 -- American Air Filter Company, $7000; H. B. Moore, associate professor of commerce, $4080 -- Branliff Airlines, $8000; Jess C. Paris, assistant comptroller, $3200 -- Hifner and Fortune, accountants, $6000.

"R. W. Pifer, associate professor of animal husbandry, $4300 -- Ralston-Purina Company, $5500; William Pittman, professor of law, $4680 -- University of Missouri, $5800; M. E. Potter, professor of physical education, $4800 -- manager, Trotting Horse Breeders Association, $7200; L. L. Quill, head, department of chemistry, $4950 -- Michigan State College, $6000; Bertram P. Ramsey, associate professor of physics, $2640 -- Naval Ordnance Laboratory, $7600; Wendell H. Stephenson, professor of history and editor of University Press, $5000 -- Tulane University, $7500.

"W. Gayle Starnes, assistant director of University Extension, $3100 -- Library of Congress, $6000; James P. Stoakes, associate professor of English, $4300 -- Florida State College for Women, $5000; Gilbert L. Terman, assistant in agronomy, $3100 -- University of Maine, $4400; Willis C. Tucker, associate professor of journalism, $4300 -- University of Tennessee, $6500; S. B. Walton, associate professor of mechanical engineering, $4500 -- San Jose College, $5800; A. B. Warren, assistant professor of psychology, $3600 -- Northeastern University, Boston, $5500; J. D. Williams, director, University training school, $3860 -- President of Marshall College, $6500, now Chancellor, University of Mississippi, $10,000; and Logan Wilson, head, department of sociology, $5000 -- dean, Sophie Newcomb College, $8500.

"The Court of Appeals in October will review its former decision relative to limiting salaries of University professors. A number of our faculty members -- including at least 17 of the College of Arts and Sciences alone -- have received offers of better positions elsewhere during the summer, but some of them have delayed making a decision pending the outcome of this case. I regret to inform you that if the Constitutional limit of $5000 applies to the professional members of the staff of the University, we should be prepared for the greatest exodus of faculty members we have experienced in the entire history of the University.

"On the following page is a table which will show the number and classification of the losses we have sustained during the last five and one-half years."

The Board heard the statement made by President Donovan, examined the table on resignations of faculty members with rank of instructor and above, and ordered same received and made of record.

S. R. C. Ballard Thruston Browsing Room.

President Donovan reported the bequest to the University by the late R. C. Ballard Thruston of $1,000.00, and stated that he felt it appropriate that the University should honor a distinguished patron of the University. He made the following statement:

"The late R. C. Ballard Thruston bequeathed to the University of Kentucky $1,000. He did not stipulate how this money was to be used. However, every Kentuckian knows of Mr. Thruston's great contribution in developing the fine collection of the Filson Club and in placing this organization financially on a substantial basis. Therefore, I recommend that the Board of Trustees direct the Comptroller to invest this $1,000 in United States bonds, and that the income from this investment be spent annually to purchase Americana which the University otherwise might not have the funds to purchase.

"As a mark of appreciation for the interest Mr. Thruston manifested in the University of Kentucky, we recommend that the beautiful Browsing Room of the University Library be known hereafter as the R. C. Ballard Thruston Browsing Room, and that an appropriate plaque be made memorializing Mr. Thruston as a patron of the University."

The Board heard the report and recommendation, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the recommendation of the President was concurred in and record ordered made in the minutes.

T. Report of Griffenhagen and Associates.

President Donovan made a formal statement to the Board concerning the Griffenhagen Report and presented an analysis of the study of education in Kentucky as it applies to the University.

"Some weeks ago each member of the Board of Trustees was furnished a copy of the report of Griffenhagen and Associates. At that time I wrote the members of the Board a letter giving a brief analysis of this report and indicating that a more complete analysis would be made at the next meeting of the Board.

"I hope that each Trustee has had an opportunity to read the complete report. There are many constructive suggestions and recommendations in the report which we hope to implement. The deans and other officials of the University are endeavoring to carry out those recommendations which we believe to be constructive. On the whole, the report approves of the organization of the University and the work it is doing. There are a number of recommendations which would require an amendment to the Constitution or a change in the Statutes in order to make it possible for us to implement the recommendation. The salary scale recommended by the report will require an amendment to the Constitution or a reversal of the former decision of the Court of Appeals. The establishment of a research fund of $100,000 for University research will require an appropriation for this item in the next budget. The addition of fifty new faculty members to the staff will necessitate the expenditure of at least $200,000 annually. I am certain that the recommendation of fifty new positions is low in terms of our need for new staff members. The recommendation on building needs substantiates my statement on numerous occasions that the University should have $10,000,000 spent on its plant immediately.

"To have an outside organization come in and study the University objectively, and make recommendations in line with those which we have been presenting from time to time is a matter of considerable inspiration and encouragement to us. It makes us feel that the program we have been advocating and recommending to you is sound both from an economic and an educational point of view.

"I have requested Vice President Leo M. Chamberlain to make a summary analysis of the report that you might find it easier to use than to have to wade through the several hundred pages in the three volumes which have been presented for your consideration."

The members of the Committee heard the statement of the President and examined in detail the analysis of the Griffenhagen and Associates study of education in Kentucky as it relates to the University, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the analysis was received and ordered filed, and President Donovan was requested to write a letter of appreciation to Governor S. S. Willis for having ordered the survey made.

U. Interpretation of KRS 164.480 (War Veterans' Scholarships Granted.)

President Donovan stated that Section 164.480 KRS provides for scholarships to be granted to veterans of World War II, if the Federal Government does not provide for their education.

He stated that the opinion of the Attorney General had been sought for interpretation of the law, and that there still seemed to be some difference of opinion, and some conflict in the opinions of the Attorney General, and that he had requested a committee to study the whole question and make a recommendation. He submitted the report of the committee to the Board, with exhibits attached.

A STATEMENT ON THE KENTUCKY LAW PROVIDING EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS TO WAR VETERANS AND ITS APPLICATION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

I. A copy of the Statute and all known correspondence covering the interpretations made by the office of the Attorney General have been assembled as Exhibits A to F. These exhibits may be briefly described as follows:

1. Exhibit A.
A copy of KRS 164.480; 164.490; and 164.500.
2. Exhibit B.
A copy of a letter from Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit to Mr. Prentiss Douglass, dated February 6, 1945.
3. Exhibit C.
A copy of a letter from Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit to Dr. M. M. White, then Acting Director of the University Personnel Office, dated February 24, 1945.
4. Exhibit D.
A copy of a letter from Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit to Mr. Robert P. Hobson, a member of the Board of Trustees, dated April 21, 1945.
5. Exhibit E.
A copy of a letter from Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit to President H. L. Donovan dated June 15, 1945.

6. Exhibit F.

A copy of a letter from Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit to Mr. Bruce Ogden of Lexington, Kentucky, dated August 14, 1946.

"II. The Committee rather carefully considered the implications of this legislation as it applies to the University of Kentucky. While there are many aspects of the law that may need interpretation, the Committee concludes that there are four primary issues that need to be finally resolved.

1. Is a veteran eligible for the benefits provided under the State law, who is ineligible for Federal benefits under Public Laws 346 or 16 because he did not serve in the United States armed forces the minimum of 90 days required by Public Laws 346 and 16?
2. What is a "veteran" under the meaning of KRS 164.480?
3. What is a "course of study" as referred to in KRS 164.480 and when can it be said to be completed?
4. Is a veteran eligible for benefits under KRS 164.480 if he has been eligible for and has received benefits under Public Laws 346 or 16?

"III. The Committee studied carefully the various opinions rendered by the Office of the Attorney General and came to the following conclusions about each of the four issues defined above:

1. In all opinions written, the Attorney General has been consistent in holding that any veteran who is not entitled to educational benefits under Public Laws 346 or 16, because of a too limited period of service, is eligible for benefits under KRS 164.480. He has held that this is true, irrespective of the number of days of service, even if the number of days was zero.
2. In Exhibit E it is noted that the Attorney General interpreted the law more or less literally; that is, he expressed the opinion that in order to be eligible the veteran must have been engaged in a branch of the military services of the United States prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such services. However, in his letter of August 14, 1946, to Mr. R. Bruce Ogden (Exhibit F) he expresses the opinion that Mr. Ogden is eligible to receive aid under the State law although he served with the American Field Service which was not a branch of the American Armed Forces but was, rather, a civilian service unit affiliated with the British Army. This interpretation was made in the face of the fact that Mr. Ogden had been adjudged ineligible for benefits under Public Laws 346 and 16. Apparently the Attorney General would interpret the term "veteran" in a very liberal fashion. If he qualified a person who served in the American Field Service it is probable that he would likewise qualify any reservist, and perhaps a member of the United States Merchant Marine and of various other agencies which were not strictly branches of the United States Armed Forces.

3. The interpretations of the Attorney General as to the meaning of a "course of study" seem to have been rather consistent. If a student enrolls in an undergraduate program, four years in length, it is supposed that the obligation of the State would be completed when he had finished this four-year program for the bachelor's degree. According to the opinion of the Attorney General he might change his course of study one or more times, as long as the change did not prolong his study beyond the period of the course originally selected. The student could not, after completing the original course selected, receive aid while studying for an advanced degree, although it would appear that he could, at the beginning, select a course of study that might involve more than four years, such as the pre-law and law program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

4. This issue is really the critical one from the standpoint of the University, since the major cost to the institution would come as a result of State aid to the hundreds who may have qualified for Federal assistance but whose period of eligibility in each case is short of that required for graduation. On this issue the Committee does not feel that the Office of the Attorney General has been consistent. In Exhibit C, dated February 24, 1945, the statement is made that "the State statute provides for the completion of the course selected by the veteran; and if the Federal law does not cover it, it is my opinion that he can, under the State law, complete the course beyond the period of fifteen months' limitation under the Federal act". On the other hand, in Exhibit E, dated June 15, 1945, in replying to a specific inquiry of President Donovan, the Attorney General made the following statement: 'We do not think that a veteran eligible under the Federal act and completing his course under this act could then continue under the State act, but that if eligible under the Federal act, he is confined to the limitations of time and restrictions in the Federal act and cannot take both acts.' Finally, in Exhibit F, dated August 14, 1946, the Attorney General states that 'if it is finally determined that you are ineligible for educational benefits under Federal legislation, or, being eligible for these educational benefits, you have exhausted them according to the duration of your active service, we are of the opinion that you would then be eligible for a state supported scholarship incident to your service with the American Field Service....". It would seem that there is a definite contradiction in the above opinions.*

*The Committee is informed that the Louisville office of the Veterans Administration has in its files a letter from the Attorney General in which the opinion is expressed that a veteran is eligible for state aid under KRS 164.480 after he had exhausted his entitlement under Public Law 346.

"IV. The Committee has brought together the facts concerning students who have, to this date, benefited under KRS 164.480. It finds that there are sixteen students who have received aid who were not eligible for benefits under Public Laws 346 or 16, because their periods of active service were less than 90 days. In one or two cases the period of service is zero days, or for some other very insignificant period. Two of the sixteen served in the American Field Service and were qualified for the aid under the opinion rendered by the Attorney General in Exhibit F. All of the sixteen were qualified under opinions rendered in Exhibits C and E. The Committee is inclined to feel that the Attorney General is perhaps justified in his position that the veteran not qualified for Federal aid might qualify for assistance under KRS 164.480. While the law could conceivably be interpreted to exclude all veterans, in view of the provision of educational aid by the Federal Government, it is easy to see how it could be construed to mean that 'such veterans' are only those who individually qualify for federal aid. The Committee does not feel, however, that the Attorney General was correct in identifying a member of the American Field Service as a veteran. Until instructions to the contrary are received from the Office of the President, the responsible administrative official will continue to qualify veterans under KRS 164.480 who have no entitlement under the Federal bills. These officials will, however, restrict the meaning of the word 'veteran' to those serving in branches of the Military Service of the United States prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service." It is believed that anyone not declared a veteran under the meaning of Public Law 346 and 16 should not be declared a veteran under the meaning of KRS 164.480.

"Inadvertently, eleven persons have been qualified for assistance under KRS 164.480, each of whom had entitlement under Public Law 346, and having exhausted this entitlement, applied for State aid. Unfortunately, the distribution of responsibility was such that these eleven people were qualified under KRS 164.480 without anyone having intended that it happen. In other words, these people were not placed on State aid with the view that such action was called for by the opinions of the Attorney General. The Committee feels, in fact, that there is a conflict in the opinions of the Attorney General on this point and that it is not clear from a reading of all the exhibits as to whether or not the Office of the Attorney General actually intended to render an opinion favorable to a case of this kind. It is felt by the Committee that each of the eleven persons in this category should be told that further aid of this kind will be held in abeyance until the matter is properly resolved and that no further cases of this kind will be approved, pending a final and conclusive interpretation of the legislation. This will be the practice of the responsible administrative officials until different instructions are received from the President's Office.

"V. In view of the evidence that it has had before it, the Committee is inclined to offer the following suggestions:

1. There is obviously a need for clarifying administrative responsibility so that no person will hereafter be qualified for aid under KRS 164.480 unless all pertinent information is available to the official qualifying him. The Committee was of the mind that this responsibility should be in the University Personnel Office or, more specifically, in the Veterans Office. Mr. Croft and Mr. Henderson were asked to work out a procedure that would insure that no case would hereafter be qualified except in accordance with clearly defined policies of the University.
2. The Committee recognizes that this matter might well be resolved by the courts in a test case and there may be some advantages in this procedure. It is inclined, however, to recommend that the Legislature be asked to clarify the law. If the legislation, as revised and clarified, places upon the State the responsibility for supplementing the benefits provided under Public Laws 346 and 16, in those cases where entitlement is not long enough to permit the student to finish his course, a tremendous financial burden will be thrown upon the University, since it will be obligated to give free tuition to each of these students for a period of time that may be as long as two and one-half school years. In addition, each would have to be provided with a free dormitory room or comparably reimbursed. In accordance with the action of the Board of Trustees the reimbursement for a room is now at the rate of $11.00 per month, but there may very well be insistence that this sum is too small in terms of current rentals on and off the campus. The Committee feels that the Legislature is very likely to give the veteran the benefit of the doubt in almost every case, and it has come to the conclusion, regretfully, that the University might well prepare for this contingency by estimating the cost for the next two years and, when it becomes necessary, request that the required sum be added to the University's budget for the 1948-50 biennium."

KENTUCKY REVISED STATUTES 1944

164.480 (4527-32) WAR VETERAN'S SCHOLARSHIPS GRANTED

Every person who was engaged in any branch of the military or naval service of the United States, prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service, during the wars that were declared on April 6, 1917, and any wars declared thereafter, respectively, and who at the time of his enlistment was a resident of Kentucky, is entitled to a free scholarship in any state higher educational institution for white or colored persons that he chooses for a period required for the completion of the course of study selected by him. The scholarship includes free tuition, matriculation and other fees, room rent, fuel and lights, and the advantages and privileges of the institution, but does not include free board. Provided, however, that if the Federal Government provides for the education of veterans of any of the wars herein referred to, then this section shall not apply to such veterans. (1944, c. 38, S.1).

164.490 (4527-33) SCHOLASTIC REQUIREMENTS FOR SCHOLARSHIP

All persons eligible to the scholarship provided by KRS 164.480 shall meet the scholastic entrance requirements prescribed by the university or college for the course of study chosen by the applicant.

164.500 (4527-34) APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIP

Each applicant for the scholarship provided by KRS 164.480 shall file his application for admission at least thirty days prior to the beginning of the semester of the school year at which he desires to enter. The application shall be accompanied by his certificate of honorable discharge from the service, which shall be returned to him upon admittance.

Mr. Prentiss Douglass
608 Security Trust Building
Lexington, Kentucky

Dear Mr. Douglass:

I have your letter of the 5th in which you ask my opinion as to the construction of Kentucky Revised Statutes, 164.480 and 164.500, Acts of the 1944 General Assembly, relative to war veterans' scholarships in our higher state institutions.

The question presented is whether a person who has not served the required ninety days active service under the G.I. Bill of Rights, a federal law in this matter, would nevertheless, come under the provisions of the state law and be entitled to this education.

We do not think that it was the intention of the Legislature for a person to have served ninety days of active service before becoming eligible to the benefits under KRS 164.480. We think that the primary requisite is that the veteran have an honorable discharge from a classified branch of the military or naval service of the United States; and second, that the veteran is not eligible for like benefit from the federal government. You will note that KRS 164.500 in discussing the application for scholarship says that the veteran's application shall be accompanied by an honorable discharge. Nothing is said in this section regarding the length of service.

The original act providing this benefit was enacted after the World War many years before the enactment of the G.I. Bill of Rights. The original act was amended by the 1944 General Assembly, and we might add that at this same session a law was enacted providing for certain veterans to be exempted from the payment of poll taxes. In this act, the Legislature did say that the veteran must have ninety days active service. We think that if the Legislature had intended that ninety days active service was necessary for a reason to be eligible under the provisions of KRS 164.480, that it would have said so, as it did say in the act regarding poll taxes.

It is hoped that your question has been answered to your satisfaction.

Yours sincerely,

ELDON S. DUMMIT

Mr. M. M. White
Acting Director
University Personnel Office
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky

Dear Mr. White:

I have your letter of the 21st in which you ask our construction of the present Section 164.480, Kentucky Revised Statutes, governing the granting of education to discharged veterans in the United States armed service; and you ask a number of questions regarding my interpretation of this law.

On February 6, 1945, I gave an opinion to Mr. Prentiss Douglass of your city, a copy of which is attached to this letter, in which I held that the G.I. Bill of Rights or Federal legislation in this matter of granting education to veterans, did not supersede the State law nor repeal it, when there was a conflict in its provisions with the Federal law. I held that the primary requisite of the State law was that the veteran have an honorable discharge from a classified branch of the military or naval service of the United States; but that the veteran would not be eligible to like benefits from the Federal government.

You will note that under the State law, there is no provision as to the age of the veteran, and time of making application, nor of the financial condition of the veteran, as a prerequisite to being entitled to the course of education selected by him. So the limitation of the Federal act in this particular, would not prevent a veteran from availing himself of the education afforded by the State act. The only requisite in the State act is that the person be honorably discharged from any branch of the military or naval service of the United States prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service; and that he make application, with the discharge attached, for the course of education he intends to enter and complete. Of course, the applicant must at the time of enlistment be a resident of Kentucky.

With the above in view, we will now take up your several questions. Your first question is whether a student discharged from the "Enlisted Reserves" is entitled to this education where he has practically served from 0 up to 89 days, which is less than the Federal requirement.

If the Enlisted Reserves is a branch of the military and naval service of the United States, and he is honorably discharged, he is entitled, under my interpretation, to this course of education.

Your second question is that the Federal law restricts education to fifteen months; and you want to know, in the event the veteran is unable to complete his course in this fifteen months, whether he is entitled, under the State law, to complete his course.

The State statute provides for the completion of the course selected by the veteran; and if the Federal law does not cover it, it is my opinion that he can, under the State law, complete the course beyond the period of fifteen months' limitation under the Federal Act.

Your third question is in regard to an army officer who is retired with an honorable discharge, receiving retirement pay; and whether he is entitled to the course provided under the State law.

As we stated above, there is no restriction of advantages because of financial condition, or age status. If this army officer meets with the requisites of the State law as above set forth, he is entitled to this course, irrespective of his retirement pay or age status. His ineligibility, under the Federal law, would not prevent him from availing himself of the State law.

Your fourth question is whether, under this State law, where a veteran selects his course of study, and before completion, switches to another course of study, would this be permissible, in view of the provisions of the State law allowing him to complete the course selected by him.

It is my opinion that when he selects his course of study and enters into it, he cannot, before completion, switch to another course of study. If this were permitted, he could get quite a number of educational advantages in different lines, which would be an imposition on the State, and not, in my opinion, authorized by the wording of the law.

As to your inquiry relative to the applicant doing "satisfactory work", it is the opinion of this office that any student entering the University under the provisions of the State law in question should do the kind of work that is in keeping with the scholastic standards of the University. The purpose of the State law in question is to enable war veterans to continue their school work, and unless this can be done according to the standards of the University, the intent and purpose of the law would be perverted. We think that the applicant upon acceptance subjects himself to the same rules and regulations of the University as does any other student.

With best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

ELDON S. DUMMIT
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Hon. Robert P. Hobson
Attorney at Law
Kentucky Home Life Building
Louisville, Kentucky

Dear Sir:

This acknowledges receipt of your letter of February 24, 1945, regarding our recent construction of Sections 164.480 and 164.500 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Please be advised that this office has given your letter careful consideration. We are of the opinion that Section 164.480 applies only to veterans who at the time of their enlistments were residents of Kentucky. Of course, the Act is self-explanatory as to the branch of service in which they served.

The original law was passed in March, 1929, and was for the benefit of World War I veterans. The law was amended in 1944, and included the veterans of all wars since April 6, 1917.

The amended law gave the veterans a scholarship in any state higher educational institution, for either white or colored persons. The scholarship includes free tuition, matriculation and other fees, room rent, fuel and lights, and the advantages and privileges of the institution, but does not include free board. There is another provision in the law as amended in 1944 which says that if the Federal Government provides for the education of veterans of any of the wars since April 6, 1917, the provisions of Section 164.480 will not apply. In other words, the Commonwealth of Kentucky will not be required to furnish the veterans the aforesaid benefits when the Federal Government so provides them with these benefits.

Section 164.500 merely requires the veteran to file his application for admission with the institution in which he seeks training at least thirty days prior to the beginning of the semester of the school year in which he desires to enter.

Trusting that this fully answers your question,

Very truly yours,

Dr. H. L. Donovan
President, University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky

Dear Dr. Donovan:

We have your letter of June 1st with the resolutions of your Board attached, in which you ask a number of questions regarding the construction of Section 164.480 KRS, in connection with Public Law 346, commonly known as the G.I. Bill of Rights, and particularly that part of said bill, II Section, regarding the education of veterans.

You have requested our previous opinions in this matter, and we have found three opinions pertinent to your request, one to Mr. Prentiss Douglass, 608 Security Trust Building, Lexington, Kentucky, of date February 6, 1945; another of February 24, 1945, to Mr. M. M. White, Acting Director of Personnel Office at your University, and another of date April 21, 1945, to the Honorable Robert P. Hobson, Attorney, Louisville, Kentucky. We are enclosing you copies of these three opinions as requested. There are several other opinions relative to the G. I. Bill of Rights, but we do not think that they are what you desire. The opinions to Mr. Douglass and Mr. White in a measure cover your present inquiry, but we will go ahead and answer your questions as you propound them in your Board resolutions of date April 3, 1945, which for convenience we will copy as follows:

1. What is the meaning of "course" in the following: ". . . entitled to a free scholarship in any state higher educational institution that he chooses for a period required for the completion of the course of study selected by him."

- a. If he enters as a freshman, is he still pursuing a "course of study selected by him" when he works on the graduate level toward a Ph.D. degree?
- b. Has he completed "the course of study" when he obtains his first degree?
- c. If he pursues the occupational objective of engineering for two quarters and then pursues the objective of industrial management, is "the course of study" the same?

- d. If he takes English, physics, psychology and mathematics the first quarter, and English, history, psychology, and zoology the second quarter, is he changing his course of study?
2. Assuming the student "chooses . . . a course of study", does he forfeit the benefits of these statutes if he later, prior to the completion of the first "course of study", selects another "course of study"?
3. Is there a limit on the number of years a student may pursue a "course of study" without "completion" occurring?
4. What is the meaning of . . . "Provided, however, that if the Federal Government provides for the education of veterans . . . then this section shall not apply to such veterans"?
- a. Public Law 346 provides certain educational privileges for veterans as a class. This being true, does it follow that the educational privileges provided in the Kentucky Revised Statutes are withdrawn?
- b. Does it mean that those veterans declared ineligible for the privileges under Public Law 346, if residents of Kentucky at the time of enlistment are entitled to the educational privileges provided for in the Kentucky Revised Statutes?
- c. If a veteran refuses aid under Public Law 346 because a financial loss may be sustained in the long run, is he eligible for the state benefits?
- d. The extent of the educational privileges allowed under Public Law 346 is related to the length of active service. After a veteran has secured all the benefits under this law, is he entitled to the state benefits? For example, a veteran may be entitled to fifteen months of education under Public Law 346. After the completion of these fifteen months, is he entitled to state benefits?
5. What is meant by a "veteran"?
- a. Is a student holding an honorable discharge from the Army Air Corps Reserve a veteran?
- b. From the ERC?
- c. From the ASTP?
- d. Is a student who holds an honorable discharge with 0 days of service, a "veteran"?

In these opinions, we held in substance that under Section 164.480 to Section 164.500 KRS, that this state law would cover veterans receiving an honorable discharge irrespective of the ninety day requirement of service under the Federal Act before eligibility to the Federal Act's provisions. In other words, where a person enlists and receives an honorable discharge, although not serving ninety or any days of service, he is entitled to the advantages given under the state act, and the reasons for our conclusions are given in the opinions, copies of which are attached. These opinions, of course, do not go far enough to cover all your various questions, set out in your minutes of April 3, 1945. With this conclusion, however, in mind, we will now take up your various questions as set out in the Minutes and give our opinion regarding same, having heretofore quoted your questions in the order submitted.

In the above, you ask what would be our construction of "the completion of a course of study selected by him" as used in the state act? It is our opinion that the words "course of study" mean the customary and established curriculum covering the degree which he selects to obtain. With this in view, we will now take up your several questions:

Question One

(a) If he enters as a freshman, and selects a course of study towards a particular degree, such as an A.B. degree, with the graduation in that A.B. degree, he has completed the course of study. We do not think that the Legislature intended for him to continue to an M.A. or Ph.D. degree, but he is confined to the course for the minor degree selected.

The above answers your Question (b) under this question.

Now coming to your Question (c), if he has selected an occupational objective, as engineering, and after two quarters changes the objective to industrial management, if this change does not prolong the course towards one degree, and he can shift without prolonging the period of education, we think he could do so. In other words, he cannot shift from one course to another and thereby prolong the period of education beyond the period first selected.

Now in answer to your Question (d), a mere shift from one subject to another, such as in your question from mathematics to zoology, if it does not in any way extend the period towards the degree selected, we do not think a change of subject would be material, but could be permitted if it does not prolong the objective first selected.

In answer to your second question above, where the student chooses a course of study and then later chooses another course of study, if the first course of study as pursued can be credited on the second course of study without prolonging the period or course originally selected, we think it can be done; otherwise not.

In answer to your third question as to the limit of this course of study, as above stated, we think that the limit is the time to obtain the degree first selected. You will note under the G. I. Bill of Rights that there is a specific limitation on the veteran eligible for this education under this act, including the refresher course, and also such a period of education as is equal to the time in the service subsequent to September 16, 1940. There is no such limitation in the state act, and later on in this opinion we will refer to the application of the Federal Act and State Act to the veterans in seeking educational advantages.

Your fourth question is, what is the effect of the proviso in the State Act to the effect that if the Federal Government provides for the education of veterans, then this section of the State Act shall not apply to such veterans.

It is our opinion, and the opinions sent you so conclude, that the State Act applies to those veterans who receive an honorable discharge but have not the required period of service or the age requirement under the Federal Act. If they come within the Federal Act, then it is our opinion the Federal Act should be followed. If they do not come within the Federal Act, then it is our opinion the State Act provides for them along the lines indicated in this opinion. Had the State Act incorporated any time limit or service days limit, the matter would be simple, but the State Act passed prior to the Federal Act made no such specific provisions, but intended, however, to give all veterans with an honorable discharge, educational advantages.

Coming to Subquestion (a) of No. 4, the question may be presented to the courts under the declaratory judgment act, such as you contemplate, as to whether the Federal Act does not supersede the State Act entirely, but until the courts decide that, we are of the conclusion as above stated, that the State Act is in a sense a supplemental act giving advantages where the Federal Act does not do so, because of the liberal language used in the State Act. We think that the above answers Subquestion (b) to Question 4.

In answer to Subsection (c) of Question 4, it is our opinion that where a person applying to your institution comes under the Federal Act, you should apply the Federal Act, and when not eligible under the Federal Act, you should apply the State Act along the lines we have tried to indicate in this opinion.

Coming to Subquestion (d) of Question 4, we do not think a veteran eligible under the Federal Act and completing his course under this Act could then continue under the State Act, but that if eligible under the Federal Act, he is confined to the limitations of time and restrictions in the Federal Act and cannot take both acts. We frankly admit that this will result in some conflict and confusion, and for that reason, the sooner the matter is clarified by the court in construing the State Act, the better it would be for the administration of the act and reconciling of certain conflicting interpretations.

In answer to your 5th question, Section 164.480 KRS expressly provides that these war veteran scholarships shall be "every person who was engaged in any branch of the military or naval service of the United States, prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service during the wars that were declared on April 6, 1917, and any wars declared thereafter who at the time of enlistment was a resident of Kentucky, etc."

So if this veteran is in any branch of service military or naval, prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service, he is eligible to these state educational scholarships in your institution.

As we stated above, under our interpretation, if he has enlisted and received an honorable discharge, he is entitled to the education in your institution whether he served any day in the service, and he is not limited to the ninety day service under the Federal Act, but is a veteran with an honorable discharge as provided in the State law. We have tried to cover your questions in detail, and we think that your determination to get a declaration of rights in connection with this State law is wise, and the sooner the better so there can be definitely determined who are eligible and the course for which eligible.

You should submit to the court three propositions:

1. Does the Federal Act, the G.I. Bill of Rights, supersede and repeal or make ineffective the State Act in its entirety?
2. If it does not do so and the State Act supplements the Federal Act, to what extent is there a limitation on the time of education, and what is meant by the completion of a course of study selected by him?
3. Where the veteran is eligible under the Federal Act, is it mandatory that he take the course under that act or can he elect to take under either act, or both acts where he seeks to prolong his course of study after the time limitation in the Federal Act?

We have done the best we can with this matter, and hope this may be of some service to you.

With usual good wishes,

Yours very truly,

Mr. R. Bruce Ogden,
1620 Nicholasville Road,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Ogden:

This is in reply to your letter of July 12, receipt of which was acknowledged on July 18. You desired an opinion from this office concerning your eligibility for a state-supported scholarship incident to your service with the American Field Service in 1944 a part of which time you were on active duty with the Thirty-third Corps of the British XIV Army which engaged the Japanese forces in Burma. Before taking up the question of your eligibility for a state-supported scholarship, we should like to make reference to your eligibility for Federal Aid.

The War Department Readjustment Regulation RRL-1, AGO 3282A-MAR, 684255-46, section 4, entitled "Definitions and Interpretations (applicable to these regulations)" provides active service: * * * service in an active duty status, continuous or otherwise, in any component of the Army of the United States, including, for purposes of computed ASR score, duty with (e) American Field Service from 15 July 1942 with any Armed Forces of Allied Nations. According to definition given active service under the above-quoted War Department Readjustment Regulation, we are of the opinion that you are eligible for the educational benefits provided by Public Law 346 (G.I. Bill of Rights), or Public Law 16, if you are disabled. Your discharge from the American Field Service should be considered as the equivalent of an Honorable Discharge from any regular branch of the United States Armed Forces.

Furthermore, we are in receipt of a letter dated 29 July 1946 from the War Office, London, England, in which the Director of Public Relations states that had you been a British citizen, your service with the Thirty-third Corps of the British XIV Army in Burma in 1944 would be classified as "On active service" during that period, eligible for a similar kind of educational facility as provided by Public Law 346, above referred to.

Public Law 346 was amended by Congress in 1945 as follows:

"Persons who served in the active military or naval service of any government allied with the United States in World War II and who at time of entrance into such active service were citizens of the United States shall, by virtue of such service, and if otherwise qualified, be entitled to the benefits of Veterans' Regulation No. 1 (a) Part VIII, sections 694-694j, 695-695f and 696-696m of this title or of sections 701 of this title and Veterans' Regulation No. 1 (a) Part VII, in the same manner and to the same extent as persons who served in the active military or naval service of the United States; provided, that any such benefit shall not be extended to any person who is not a resident of the United States at time of filing claim or to any person who has applied for and received the same or similar benefit from the government of the nation in whose active military or naval service he served. June 22, 1944, C. 268, Title VI, Section 1506, as added Dec. 1945, c. 588, Section 10, 59 Stat. 631." (Title 38, Section 697f of the United States Code Annotated).

In recognition of the ruling made by the (British) War Office, as above, we are of the opinion that you have this additional legislative claim for educational benefits under Public Law 346, as provided under the above-quoted amendment. Again, your discharge from the American Field Service should be considered as the equivalent of an Honorable Discharge from active service of an Allied Army during World War II.

Under the provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, referred to below, providing for state-supported educational benefits for veterans, it is incumbent upon a veteran to first apply and be refused Federal aid incident to his service in a war. Therefore, we suggest that you renew your application for Federal aid with the Veterans' Administration, is the basis of this additional information. You may also consider a request to the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, Lexington, Kentucky, to assist you in prosecuting your claim for Federal educational benefits through the Veterans' Administration.

If it is finally determined that you are ineligible for educational benefits under Federal legislation or, being eligible for these educational benefits, you have exhausted them according to the duration of your active service, we are of the opinion that you would then be eligible for a state-supported scholarship incident to your service with the American Field Service, as provided by Kentucky Statutes. KRS 164.480 provides as follows:

"Every person who was engaged in any branch of the military or naval service of the United States, as prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of such service, during the wars that were declared on April 6, 1917, and any wars declared thereafter, respectively, and who at the time of his enlistment was a resident of Kentucky, is entitled to a free scholarship in any state higher educational institution for white or colored persons that he chooses for a period required for the completion of the course of study selected by him. The scholarship includes free tuition, matriculation and other fees, room rent, fuel and lights, and the advantages and privileges of the institution, but does not include free board. Provided, however, that if the Federal Government provides for the education of veterans of any of the wars herein referred to, then this section shall not apply to such veteran."

Under War Department Regulation RR1-1, mentioned above, we hold that your service with the American Field Service was a "branch" of the military service of the United States, prescribed and classified by the United States War Department as a part of the Service. We are of the opinion that the construction of the above-quoted section of the Kentucky Revised Statutes is warranted, in view of the credit given for service in the American Field Service by the War Department in its Readjustment Regulation.

You will note under KRS 164.480 that if the Federal Government provides for your education, you must accept that before applying for state-supported educational aid. In connection with your application for a state-supported scholarship, we quote the following relevant sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes:

"164.490 - All persons eligible to the scholarship provided by KRS 164.480 shall meet the scholastic entrance requirements prescribed by the university or college for the course of study chosen by the applicant.

"164.500 - Each applicant for the scholarship provided by KRS 164.490 shall file his application for admission at least thirty days prior to the beginning of the semester of the school year at which he desires to enter. The application shall be accompanied by his certificate of honorable discharge from the service, which shall be returned to him upon admittance."

While KRS 164.500 provides that the application for a state-supported scholarship shall be accompanied by his certificate of honorable discharge from the service, we are of the opinion that your discharge certificate from the American Field Service should be considered as the equivalent of an honorable discharge, in compliance with this statutory provision.

We hope this information is sufficient for your purpose.

Very truly yours,

Eldon S. Dummit
Attorney General

The Board discussed the question at length, and after due consideration, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, directed that KRS 164.480 does not apply to those in the service of the United States in World War II, because the U. S. Government has provided for their education. If any applications are received by the authorities from such veterans seeking such scholarship and room rent benefits under this Act, they shall notify the applicants of this interpretation of the law.

V. Injury to Mr. Everett Cartwright.

President Donovan read the following letter from the Comptroller:

September 25, 1947

Dr. H. L. Donovan, President
University of Kentucky

My dear President Donovan:

On September 11, 1946, Mr. Everett Cartwright, of the grounds crew, while assisting in the loading of some logs onto a truck on the Fieldhouse site, severely strained his back. He was treated by the University physician and by a private physician. Both doctors recommended that he obtain a brace. The brace was authorized. Since that time, Dr. McChord of our infirmary has seen Mr. Cartwright from time to time, and he recommended an operation.

Dr. Ralph Angelucci operated on Mr. Cartwright during March, and has submitted an invoice in the amount of $40.00 for professional services rendered. Hospital fees have been taken care of by Mr. Cartwright.

Mr. Cartwright is a good worker, and is now continuing to render good service. I recommend that the invoice for medical service in the amount of $40.00 be authorized paid by the Board of Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Frank D. Peterson
Comptroller.

The Board considered the recommendation and examined the claim. Upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the Comptroller was authorized to pay the medical expenses from the College Collection Fund with the expressed understanding that the action on the case was without commitment as to future action of the Executive Committee and that it does not establish a precedent and does not admit negligence or liability in paying this bill.

W. Establishment of a Section of Forestry in the Department of Horticulture.

President Donovan stated that he had received a recommendation from Dean Cooper that, effective October 1, 1947, there be set up in the Department of Horticulture a Section of Forestry, with Assistant Professor O. M. Davenport in charge.

He stated that it was planned to coordinate all forestry work in teaching, research and extension in this Section of Forestry, and that this would enable the Department better to direct the work in this field and make possible more effective service.

President Donovan recommended that the request be granted. The Board heard the recommendation, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, authorized a Section of Forestry established in the Department of Horticulture.

X. Foreign Students Scholarship Awards.

President Donovan submitted letter from the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Students and recommended that it be approved.

September 24, 1947

President H. L. Donovan
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Kentucky

Dear President Donovan:

The Committee on Foreign Students recommends that the University award a free tuition scholarship for the fall quarter of the year 1947-48 to the following students:

Mr. Dirk Van Gemeren - Holland
Mr. Jaswantra J. Ghia - India
Mr. T. H. Liao - China
Mr. J. J. Balzola - Mexico.

A renewal of these awards shall be dependent upon the records that these students make this quarter.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) A. E. Bigge, Chairman
Committee on Foreign Students.

The Board heard the reading of the letter and recommendation of the President, and upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, the report of the Committee on Foreign Students was approved, and the awards authorized.

Y. Dean Taylor to Make Study in North Carolina.

President Donovan stated that Dean Taylor had been asked by the State of North Carolina to advise with them this year concerning the reorganization of their teacher education program in the State. The study would include both the public and private institutions, and would probably require a minimum of two weeks.

President Donovan stated that the work would not interfere with the duties of Dean Taylor, and that he was recommending that permission be granted to Dean W. S. Taylor to accede to the request of the State of North Carolina.

The Board heard the request and, upon motion duly made, seconded and carried, permission was granted to Dean Taylor to advise and consult with the State of North Carolina concerning the reorganization of their teacher education program in the State.
