"Dixie's Best"

The University's "Best Band In Dixie" is preserving its right to that name in excellent fashion this year. Only those who have played and marched in that band know the tremendous amount of hard work necessary to transform the first-day crowd which reports into a highly-trained and smart-looking marching band.

Most of the new members have played in high school bands, but they often must learn an entirely new set of signals and memorize as many as five numbers to be played on the field during one performance.

Only through intensive practice and with a great deal of co-operation from the members can the new formations and complex marching procedure be perfected. It is safe to say that during the football season the band devotes more time to a 2-hour course than any other class on campus—often up to 12 hours a week, besides individual practice time for memorizing the schedule of selections and the actual time at the games.

The band and its leaders are to be congratulated for their accomplishments this year. The 1949 BBID is definitely worthy of a place on the same field with UK's finest football team to date.

Letters To The Editor

The Vogue

Editor, The Kernel:

It has been my opinion for a long time that one of the reasons for a lack of spirit at athletic events here has been the tendency on the part of the students to overdress.

It has come to a point where the bands are nothing more than a fashion parade. Men dress up in their sharpest suits (anything short of a tux seems the vogue) and girls peek out occasionally from behind their enormous mums to spy on their neighbors to make sure no one has outdone them by wearing a formal under their best fur coat. (They know that only a formal dress could possibly outdo the Fifth Avenue outfit draped upon their torso.)

Now really, sir, how could anyone be expected to really relax, enjoy themselves, and cheer the Big Blue themselves, and cheer the Big Blue themselves, and cheer the Big Blue themselves? Of course, it is impossible. That is why I am advocating that we break down this local custom and come to the games dressed in very informal attire! Sweaters and skirts or blue jeans should be good enough for the girls and just plain slacks and sweater with sport or dress shirt for the guys. Let's all try it just once and see what happens. I'll bet you school spirit at the games will rise unbelievably.

This is not a crackpot idea of my own, so please don't misunderstand me. I believe in dressing for occasion, but a sporting event has always been a thing to attend in casual wear.

Sincerely,
 A FOOTBALL FAN

Mumblings Of A Mountaineer

By Josef

Howdy, this plum nacheral and welcum tuh shift 'round the kamps this daise an' see the trees a sheadin' sotch purty reminders that fall is here and that the courtin will soon haf ta' move in doors fur a spell.

Ta' w' about all I reckon his 'bout the fav-rightist seeson 'round these parts. Yesir, hit seems tuh be gittin' everybody in the rite mood fur 'er w' spottin', hawtstin', backstain' Wilefret, fest-ber' team thet ole "Bear's" ben coachin' tuh victorie this year.

Fegul keep a specklating on how he done it—I heard as how, afore the seeson opened, he shipped a hull passel of his prospecte down tuther side of Owensbore where he had a lotta stump ground plowed in deep furrows, and thet he sot his boys tuh running across them furrows and a dotbin' them stumps till they ackually put the jackrabbits to shame!

Spite of all the heatin' and bangin' the team tuk afore skool openin', they wuz still a lotta life left in them boys when the freshmen gals kum a sidlin' through the kamps thet fust week, cause they let out more woot yills then I've heard since the openin' day at Joy-land pool this summer. Speet they skeered the daylits out of a few of the gals tuh fast, but if I disem-bur my wimmen fokes kerreckly hit wuz long afore this bunch kum tuh like it rite good.

Matter of fact all the omusual attention mie hev hepped a few of them to git over a slize base of mammy hankerin'. I speck if I hadna ben so busy gettin' in an outta lines thet fust week, I mought have done a mite of mountain style hollerin' myself.

Which reminds me, I seed in the papers where this Likkenhouse feller has gone plum haws wild and placed our been second in the nation, and speekin' them to so fast!

The students hav reely ben supportin' this razzle dazzle buntcha bowl playin' wizards to. Why weak 'ere last when them Georgias Bull-daws kum around, with their years pricked up and left with their tails betwix their haigs, more students flocked into the stadium then them Pinkerton feller could begin to take keer ov. Acourse the wust fit of the nite wuz on the greenidin' a tall, hit was just afore and after the game when everybody was a tryin' their allmight to bust in and out. Lord lov me if I didn't wish I wuz daid—an I nearly was!

Sum feller got his jae of corn squeakin' stuck a-twix my ribs and I thawt shore my day of recknin' had kum. Wal, like the goss' that made the broad jump, I speck I better not stay in one spot too long. Be sevin of ye.

LUCKIES PAY MORE

to give you a finer cigarette!

Yes, at tobacco auctions Lucky Strike pays millions of dollars more than official parity prices for fine tobacco!

There's no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike! To bring you this finer cigarette, the makers of Lucky Strike go after fine, light, naturally mild tobacco—and pay millions of dollars more than official parity prices to get it! So buy a carton of Luckies today. See for yourself how much finer and smoother Luckies really are—how much more real deep-down smoking enjoyment they give you. Yes, smoke a Lucky! It's a finer, milder, more enjoyable cigarette!

L. MURRAY MANGUM, independent tobacco buyer of Oxford, N. C., says: "Year after year, I've seen the makers of Luckies buy the kind of tobacco that tastes good and smokes good!" Mr. Mangum has smoked Luckies for 20 years. Here's more evidence that Luckies are a finer cigarette!

The Spice of Life

By Jobie Anderson

This weekend a carnival given by Lane.

There'll be lots of fun and a good after dance.

Saturday will meet at a barbeque. Given by the boys of Sigma Nu—

It's Greek meet Greek and friend friend friend.

Campus good will should never end!

Woody boys certainly were chomping Friday night at Jopland. Many were "down" but few were out. No one was dancing happier than Barbara Mandt. This makes two week-ends straight that Squaks Thomas has driven all the way from West Virginia to see her.

Liz Gunther wouldn't think of flushing J. D. Vaughn but his pin is a different subject. This gets our vote for tragedy of the week.

Bob Brumfield's theme song is "on, on, Hadacol" and proves it by carrying his large daily bottle to the grill.

Scope of the semester—Helen Deiss and Buzzy Holder exchanged pins on a quick two-day romance. Both had showers at respective homes and Buzzy got so happy about it that he registered Mary Alice Mayer with Deiss's Tri Delt pin. We'd say that old Buz has just plain run wild!

Bill Pritchard spent Saturday night breaking glasses in the cottage. His farewell words were "bunk, bunk."

It's definitely over between Fawn

Gray and Johnny Slough. Roll on, stag line!

The girls at Keeneland have been watching Sterling Hayden while Sterling watched the horses. Some attitude toward our Kentucky beauties!

The SAE's had a good after Citadel party. Joe Joyner recited Shakespeare in down style.

Squaks Clay was the first Early Horror to fall in the stadium ditch. He looked like a civil war vet when he climbed out of the fateful trench.

The KA's had a hayride. Need we say more?

The secret is out—Charlie Young has been pinned to a Hop town gal all semester. Wonder if this will discontinue his local loves?

Bad Lloyd Chilton broke his glasses while picking up some trash under police instruction. Crime never pays, Lloyd.

Marshall McCann got off his death bed Sunday night to come back for more from that big tall brunette, goodie.

Kathy Harlowe saw only "Moonbeams" at the Sat. nite game!

Gli Whittenburg and Bill Smith have been doubling with the Macklin sisters. Quite a foursome!

Constant we'd say are Jane Martin and Jimmy Bradley; Ann Davis Bohon and Dan Bradshaw; Charles Davis and Bill Simcox; B. J. Sampson and Tom Graham; Edith Combs and Jim McNeal.

Judy Panel had a huge old time last weekend with her Purdue fellow.

Bill Hoskins is the new ornamental piece on Sherl Folger's car.

We weren't seeing things when we saw Bill Forrester walk in the game with Helen Deiss. What happened to Priscilla?

Married: Bridget Monahan and Bill Fluty; Liz Marshall and Henry Nixon; Joy Stratford and Lee Taylor; Ginger Stratford and Edward George; Edith Greifinger and Irv Milman; Doodle Freitag and Joe Giles; Nancy Griggs and Howard Allen; Ann Whitehead and Dick White; Louise Smith and Bill Kelly; Petie Wilkeman and Jim Gregory; Janie Wilson and Jack Osborne.

Another scoop! Sarah Bennett Thomas is engaged to John Mays! No wonder she has stars in her eyes!

Another pin mix-up—it may be noted here that Jean Radd was merely holding her dress up with that White Star Friday night. We hope so!

If you watch the intra-mural football games you may also notice that little band of ever present Chi-O's. We all love a football hero don't we????

Pinned: Lynn Rhodmeyer and Bob Uterhack; Liz Gunther and J. D. Vaughn; Bill Simral and Joe Rosenburg.

Bob "ever ready" Gregory's charm is falling. He was stag at the Citadel sleeper.

Library Tea Honors Postle

Prof. and Mrs. Leslie I. Postle were the guests of honor at a tea given by the department of library science Friday afternoon in the Music Room of the Student Union Building. Prof. Postle was appointed the new head of the department this semester. One-hundred and twenty-five guests were welcomed by the receiving line which was composed of Dean and Mrs. M. M. White of the College of Arts and Sciences, and Miss Carolyn Whitman, secretary of the alumnae of the department. Misses Laura K. Martin and Ann Norton Skinner assisted in the entertaining.

Womeldorf To Speak To Campus Groups

The Rev. Raymond Womeldorf, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Christian Missions was guest speaker at the campus last weekend. He visited the Wesley Foundation Meeting tonight at First Methodist Church at 7 p. m. On Sunday he spoke at the Central Christian Church School Class at 9:45 a. m. and to the Westminster Fellowship, Maxwell Presbyterian Church at 5:20 p. m. The Rev. Womeldorf has been a missionary to China since 1923. He was a member of the Student Volunteer while studying at Washington and Lee University, and has been missionary-pastor of the Winston-Salem Presbyterian Church since 1946.

Awards Given 20 Troopers

At a banquet held Thursday, September 29, in the football room of the Student Union building, twenty members of Troopers were awarded official Trooper sweaters. The sweaters were presented by Doctor D. C. Seaton, head of the Men's Athletic Department. All members of Troopers who participated in the majority of Trooper shows in 1948 and 1949 received sweaters. Recipients were: Robert Duff, 24 Hour Service, Tires, Batteries, Brakes, Starter, Lights, Ignition, Phone 2030, Tayor Tire Co., Incorporated, Vine at 5 Eastern.

NOW HEAR THIS

By T. J. Clark
During the past week I occasionally amused my idle mind by sneaking up on people and asking them if they had even been up to look over the University of Kentucky Radio Service. Most of the time I got a snappy comeback, something clever like "no" or "Not yet." Then I'd point a lanky finger and scream something unintelligible to the effect that WRKY was on the top floor of McVey Hall. When I offer this information no one would try to horizontalize my personality, but on the other hand no one handed me two-fifty and inquired about the time of departure of the next sight-seeing bus. This brings up an interesting question. Why is it that some folks come to UK, drink a while, finally manage to get a degree, and leave without ever seeing the studios? I suppose it's for the same reason that many congressmen never darken the doors of the Smithsonian Institute; the same reason that some people never get to the Radio City Music Hall even though they live on the Island. "You can go there anytime."

men, one week from today at precisely 10 a. m. Producer Charles Lammers of WLW, Cincinnati, will speak about program production to all comers. If that's a free period for you, drop up to Studio A for this talk. While this next bit of information does not directly concern the UK studies, it is about radio and UK. The U. S. Army sponsored Game-of-the-Week turns out to be the UK-SMU contest down Dallas way. Harry Wismer will send the play-by-play to the world through the network of the American Broadcasting Company. In addition, though it isn't generally known, the National Broadcasting Company has reserved a radio booth for this game too. They may use it if the score of the SMU-rice game doesn't scare them away. Work is-a-de-do, is that recognition or isn't it? A. B. Guthrie's "The Keeper of the Key" will be presented by the Kentucky Radio Players this coming week. Edmund S. Mills will star as Frank in this production of the Kentucky Writers' Series. Talk about big-time radio; Producer Ian Stafford puts it on with a spray gun. Watch these spotlights, lover. The gloss will blind you. (WRKY Tue. 8 p. m.; WKX Sun. 6:30 p. m.) Tuesday night, (WRKY-WLW, Tue. 8:45 p. m.) Okay, get back to studying now. Sorry I distracted you.

Now here's something about the radio studios that brings interesting effects. For instance, every now and then a 50,000-watt bigwig blows in from the north-east and cracks his upper plate on the tile in studio A. A direct result of focusing his myopic peepers on this and that. Okay, okay, so it's an exaggeration. But on the level, you'll get a surprise when you finally break down and visit WRKY, leading frequency modulation station in the country and the first F.M. station in Kentucky. And speaking of top drawer radio.

Law College To Teach Seniors Legal Writing

"Legal Writing and Research" is the title of a course being offered in the College of Law this semester. The course, open only to seniors, gives law students practice in legal research and in writing the results of problems normally encountered in active practice. The seniors are divided into groups of seven, each group being under the close supervision of a member of the faculty.

Engineers Plan College Canvas

The engineering student council plans to make a canvas of the College of Engineering to promote interest in the constitutional amendment issue. Form letters are to be provided which students can mail to people in the state. The letters are to be mailed by the council without charge to students. Students in other colleges wishing to take advantage of the offer may do so by addressing the letters in room 203 of Anderson Hall after Nov. 1. The talent represented at the tryouts was high above average, and all veteran members of Troopers are looking forward to a highly successful year. Many shows are planned for this year, including a three-day tour of western Kentucky.

Southern Methodist Sparked By Doak Walker, Kyle Rote

By Ben Peeler
SMU Sports Editor

(Editor's note: This article was written for The Kernel at the start of the current season.)

The 1949 SMU Mustangs closed 21 lettermen, including seven regulars who return from last year's Southwestern Conference and Cotton Bowl champions.

Despite this apparently bright outlook, there is no over-confidence on the Dallas Hilltop for both coaches and players realize that this year's team could be as strong or stronger than last season's and still drop several games.

The Ponies this year face the toughest schedule ever laid out for a Southwest Conference team. Beginning with Wake Forest, and through Notre Dame, there is nothing that resembles a breather on the slate. In addition to Wake Forest and Notre Dame, the Ponies have inter-sectional tussles with Kentucky, whose coach admits will be one of the strongest ever from the Bluegrass State, and Missouri, whose annual battle with SMU is rapidly becoming one of the major inter-sectional clashes. All this in addition to the six bloodthirsty conference brothers in a league noted for its cutthroat competition.

About the only bright spot in the otherwise dreary schedule picture is the fact that eight of these ten Cotton Bowl. Only TCU and Texas A. & M. must be met on foreign soil. 1949 also marks the first time in SMU's history that no games will be played in the campus stadium, otherwise known as Orved Stadium.

Johnson Turned Pro

Coach Matty Bell's charges were dealt three reverses in mid-October occurred when ace passer, Gilbert Johnson, named "Southwesterner of the Year" last winter by the Texas Sports-Writers Association, decided to pass up his last year of eligibility in order to play pro ball. It was Johnson who almost single-handedly saved the Bellmen against Arkansas, TCU and almost pulled the Missouri loss from the first last year.

The second blow came in the form of an auto wreck in which Gene (Chicken) Roberts, hard-running starback, was hospitalized for over a month. Roberts, however, has passed a medical checkup and is expected to see some action this season.

Reserve Tackle Gord Headlee, a former all-state high schooler, was also lost when he married and withdrew from school.

Coach Bell this year is again faced with a king-sized question mark along his forward wall. The Pony forwards were considered weak the past two years also, however, being shaved around on stiffen-crow occasions only to suffer within sight of pay dirt.

Despite the loss of Johnson, SMU's vaunted "All-American Backfield" will be as strong or better than last year. With Walker, Rote and McKissack returning, the secondary is three-fourths intact and Frank Payne, star of the '46 season, is ready to step into Paul Page's vacant shoes at wingback.

Along the "thin red line," the strongest spots will be at the terminals and at pivot. All four first and second-string ends are returning, plus five newcomers.

Kittens Beat Vandy Frosh At Nashville

By BOB GORHAM

Kentucky's giant Kittens smashed over three touchdowns in the first half last Saturday, and then repulsed a second-half surge by the Vanderbilt frosh to edge the Commodores, 20-13, before some 5,000 fans at Nashville.

The Illinois and White scored in the opening period when Johnny Cron made a circus catch of Bill Parley's fling from the 53-yard line and galloped into the end zone standing up.

Touchdown No. 2 came on the initial play of the second period when Cron smashed over from the one-yard stripe. A Vandy fumble that was recovered by big Don Weaver on the 8-yard line set up the score. Two line plunges took it to the one, from where Cron went scoreless.

The Kittens struck again before the half ended, when Bill Parley pitched his second touchdown pass of the afternoon. This time Halfback Harry Jones grabbed the pigskin for the score. But Cron, who was in Vanderbilt's hair all afternoon, intercepted two passes to thwart other scoring threats, and Homer Meads hauled in another with about two minutes left in the game to completely erase any hopes the Commodores might have had.

For the Wildcats, it was Cron and Parley who carried the brunt of the offensive burden in the backfield. In the line, Donaldson, Weaver, Fry, Hodge, and Calvin Smith were the heavy-duty men.

John Morrow, art student, arranges pictures in the SUB gallery in preparation for an exhibit this week of work by Kentucky art teachers.

It climaxed a 72-yard drive featured by another pass—Parley to Bob Fry—good for 20 yards. Bill Parley converted on two of his three attempts for the extra point, to give the Wildcats a 20-0 half time margin.

Vandy came back strong in the second half to rack up two touchdowns—one on a 76-yard punt return and the other on a sustained drive in the third period.

Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

In three and one-half seasons at Kentucky, Coach Paul Bryant's charges have never been beaten by a non-conference opponent. Beginning with the 26-7 victory over Cincinnati on September 28, 1946, the Kentucky eleven has now sailed through 19 intercollegiate foes without having its ears pinned back. Only a 13-1 tie with Villanova spoils an otherwise perfect record.

However, this record might possibly be stopped tomorrow in Dallas when the Wildcats will tangle with SMU's Mustangs, who have lost only twice in their last 27 contests.

From here it looks like it will be Kentucky's outstanding defense versus SMU's wide-open offense.

Coach Bryant is pessimistic as usual about the forthcoming 1949. Early this week he stated he "honestly believes SMU is the finest team we've played since I've come here. Their backfield is perhaps the best in college football in the last 10 years." He added that since Southern Methodist's pride has been hurt by the Rice defeat, they'll be all the tougher to handle tomorrow afternoon.

The Bear also mentioned that the biggest danger will be Dook Walker, who can pass and run with equal skill. "When you rush him, he'll run with the ball. If you don't rush, he can pass you dizzy."

Without a doubt this is one of the most important games ever played by a UK team. It will take a mighty strong outfit to best Kentucky if they continue to play like they have in the previous games this fall. The Cats were sensational against Ole Miss and Georgia. We feel that they'll make a fine showing in Dallas tomorrow, too.

The Bryant family will probably hold a big reunion in Dallas this week-end. Coach Paul Bryant has two married sisters living there. He also has a brother and a sister in Houston; a brother in New Orleans; a sister in Tearkana; and two brothers in Arkansas along with his mother, Mrs. W. M. Bryant, Fort Myer, Ark.

Coach Bryant has in all four brothers and four sisters, most of whom will be at the Southern Methodist game tomorrow afternoon.

The Dallas sportswriters are labeling Kentucky as the hottest collegiate football team in the country. SMU coach, Mearns Matty Bell, who could even teach Weeping Willows a few tricks in the art of exaggerated pessimism, has been saying all week that "Kentucky is unbeatable. There's no use for us to practice for the game." All of which puts more pressure on the Big Blue to win tomorrow.

The above statements were expressed even before Dook Walker came down with influenza Wednesday morning.

We hope "the Donker" recovers by Saturday, so SMU followers will

BILL LESKOVAR

Player Of Week

Bill Leskovar

Player of Week

Kentucky and Army are perhaps the biggest surprises of the current football season. One of the key men in the Wildcats' success this fall has been 20-year-old Bill Leskovar, who has been named The Kernel's Player-of-the-Week.

Last Saturday night, against The Citadel, the 190-pound fullback from Fairmont, W. Va., ran with the ball 10 times and picked up 70 yards for an even 7.0 average.

For this season, Leskovar is running a close race with Dopey Phelps for the team's leading ground-gainer. Big Bill, in five games, has now advanced the oval 252 yards in 30 attempts for an average of slightly over 8.4. He has also scored three touchdowns for the Big Blue.

Georgia's football coach, Wally Butts, said after Kentucky had

Then in August, playing in the annual West Virginia High School All-Star grid game, he had his nose broken for the third time.

That season, a smattering of other injuries allowed the 6-2 West Virginian to see very little action. In the '47 season, Leskovar carried the ball only four times for 10 yards. Then last season a knee injury forced him out for the entire campaign.

But now his luck has changed and the bushy-haired lad seemed headed for stardom. Claude Sullivan, sportscaster for Lexington's WKLX, is one of Bill's many boosters. Sullivan believes that this fullback will become one of UK's all-time great backs.

Leskovar was born in Widem, W. Va., the only son of a coal miner. His family later moved to Fairmont. Playing for West Fairmont High, Bill was All-State two years in football and three years All-State center in basketball. He had a scoring average of nearly 20-points per game in his final cage season. Leskovar captained both the basketball and football teams in his senior year, when West Fairmont won the West Virginia State basketball championship.

As a junior, he won the State's batting crown with a rousing 432 average as his high school basketball team went to the finals before losing out.

Cats in Paramount News

The Kentucky-SMU game will be covered by Paramount News, according to Ken Kuhn, UK publicity man. This game, which will be held in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, is expected to draw about 60,000 people—the largest ever for a Kentucky team.

have no excuse if Kentucky does whip the Mustangs. We believe that the big Cats will take the Red and Blue of Southern Methodist regardless of how much Walker plays tomorrow.

We hope "the Donker" recovers by Saturday, so SMU followers will

Cats' Great Defensive Play

Features Win Over Citadel

By Earl Conn

In what was little more than a two-hour scrimmage session the University of Kentucky Wildcats snowed under The Citadel, 49-0, last Saturday night at Soil Field, before a crowd of 25,000. It was the Cats' fifth straight victory and their last test before the Wildcat-Mustang game this Saturday.

The biggest feature of the contest was the amazing defensive record of the Cats. The Citadel was able to gain only one yard in total defense during the entire evening's action.

At the end of the first half the Citadel had gained five yards on the ground and nothing in the air. During the second half they lost four more yards than they gained and once again did not gain yards on passing.

A second bright spot in the Kentucky picture was the six points after touchdowns made in six attempts. Previously the Cats had only made 12 in 24 tries and this brought the previous 50 percent.

Don Phelps scored two touchdowns for the Cats while Bill Leskovar, Clayton Webb, and Ed Hamilton also gained six-pointers on the ground. Shorty Jamerson scored once on a pass from Vito "Babe" Parrilli and Benny Zaranka recovered a Citadel fumble in the end zone for a safety.

Bill Boller kicked two of the extra points while Bobby Brooks added three and Dopey Phelps booted one.

Intramural Sports

By Earl Conn

Men's Dorm, Delta Tau Delta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon held four and nothing records in their respective leagues to pace action in the Intramural Football Leagues in games played through Tuesday.

Men's Dorm led League One and is followed by PDT and PKA, each team winning two games while dropping one.

In League Two, Delta Tau Delta leads, but LXA and the Turtles are right on their heels, each team dropping one contest to date while winning three.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon holds a wider edge in League Three. Closest teams are the Newman Club and Kappa Sig, both teams winning three while dropping two.

Schedule for today calls for three games. In League Three the Wish Independents will meet ZPT at 4 p. m. at the University High field with ATO scheduled to play the Newman Club in the second game.

Also scheduled in League Three is the SN versus SAE game at 5 p. m. at the Intramural Field behind Alumni Gym. The Turtles will play DTD in a League Two game in the first game slated for 4 p. m. behind the gym.

Scores of the games in all three football leagues through play this Tuesday are as follows:

LEAGUE ONE: Oct. 18, SPE 1-DX 0; Oct. 17, Men's Dorm 2-DX 0; Oct. 14, ASP 1-SPE 0; Oct. 13, KA 6-DX 0; Men's Dorm 1-PDT 0; Oct. 12, PDT 13-SPE 0.

LEAGUE TWO: Oct. 17, LXA 14-PSK 0; Turtles 12-AGE 0; DTD 15-PKT 6-Triangles 0; Oct. 13, LXA 1-Triangles 0; Oct. 14, DTD 5-LXA 0; AGE 0; PSK 7-PKT 0.

LEAGUE THREE: Oct. 18, KS 6-SN 0; Newman Club 7-Wish Ind. 6; SAE 25-ZPT 0; Oct. 12, ATO 1-Wish Ind. 0; KS 19-ZBT 6; SAE 1-Newman Club 0.

Golf, Tennis
Play is also progressing in the golf and tennis activities. Intramural tennis—the singles division is in the fourth round while play in the doubles is now in the third round.

Intramural golf is in the third round this week while golf doubles is in the second round.

Between 60,000 and 70,000 are expected to witness the Kentucky-Southern, Methodist battle tomorrow afternoon in Dallas Cotton Bowl Stadium shown above. The huge structure has a capacity of 75,347. Oddsmakers have installed Kentucky as a 7 to 10-point favorite to whip the powerful Mustangs of Dallas.

Cats Favored To Take SMU Saturday At Dallas

By Kent Hollingsworth

Out in Texas, where things are REALLY BIG, the Southwest's biggest team plays the week's biggest game tomorrow when Southern Methodist meets the University of Kentucky at 2 o'clock (CST) in Dallas huge Cotton Bowl.

Despite Rice's upset victory last week, Harry Wismer, head sports announcer of ABC, will broadcast the game over a national hookup—the first time any Kentucky football contest has been deemed important enough nationally.

Because of Rice's victory, LSU's win over Rice, and Kentucky's 19-0 game with LSU, the Wildcats are given a slight edge in the contest by the bookmakers and a tremendous edge by SMU mentor Matty Bell.

According to Moaning Matty, the Mustangs might just as well call off practice, all Kentucky need do is toss a helmet on the field and the twice Southwest champs will give up.

Bell further laments his good friend Bear Bryant—Navy alum during the war—gathering together an unbeatable team, one he says, he couldn't hope to beat even if his Mustangs weren't broken both in body and spirit. All of which is as meaningless as a politician's platform speech.

Moaning Matty has undoubtedly his greatest team. Looking at his roster of stars, one thinks, all of these and heaven's too. Dick McKissack, Frank Payne, Kyle Rote, and chattering Donk Walker form a galaxy in the backfield that has dazzled the Southwest for several seasons.

Methodist linemen, stumbling-weak matters Matty, are generally recognized as being one of the foremost defensive walls in the nation, constantly allowing SMU to register low scoring victories.

Since the "Dink dynasty" was founded in 1947, the Mustangs have sniped over the Southwest plains virtually unchecked. Till last week, when a vastly improved outfit from Rice hamstring Pony boy Walker in the first half. SMU packed an undeviated Conference record stretched out over two seasons. The only other setback since Walker started riding range was handed them by Missouri in a non-conference tilt.

The only way to account for Kentucky's 10-point, swagame edge would be in the absence of Walker in the Pony lineup, and reports varying from flu to broken ribs, are being eagerly read by hopeful Wildcat fans. However with the Golden boy in the saddle, 72,000 State Fair visitors would see a nip-and-tuck affair all the way.

From a state which perennially develops great things, this Dallas boy Donk Walker is the greatest. Unanimously selected on the All-America team the last two years, he could make it this year without even picking up a football. He's been awarded more trophies and plaques than he has store room fur.

He passes, kicks, catches passes, runs the ball from scrimmage. If there is anything else one man can do with a football, he'll do that too. Throughout his college career, he has connected on 57.4 percent of all his passes, far better than Johnny Rattich or Charlie Conner's records; last season he hit 32 receivers in 56 tries for 383 yards. On 62 punts he has a good 38.8 yards average. He has snagged 26 passes for 499 yards, intercepted 10 for 164 yards. In all he has scored 220 points, averaged 5.08 yards on 553 passes from scrimmage. He has been the Key man in two great campaigns that wound up with tie and victory in the Cotton Bowl.

Of course, there are other Mustangs, beside Walker. Kyle Rote bulldozed his 200 pounds over with the deciding touchdowns in last year's Bowl game. Then there is the great fullback, Dick McKissack. Frank Payne, operating from the single wing and spread formation will pass while Walker is busy doing something else.
