

Faculty convened at 3 P.M. Apr 15-1902

Investigation of Goode incident continued.

Witnesses examined Messrs. Drury B. Goode, Sanderson, Horing, & Gibson Taylor.

Investigation of "Goode" case. again on Apr 16, the witnesses examined being Messrs. Haynes, Jenkins, Campbell, Gaither, Clarke Sandy, J. G. Macdonald, and J. P. Pride.

again on Apr 17th the witnesses examined being Capt. Barry, W.H. Durham, Scherffins, Sweeney, Barr, Gilmore, Horing, Kehov, Campbell, Prof. W. K. Patterson & Prof. A. M. Miller

Com. to prepare verdict "Goode" case. Upon motion of Prof. Mackenzie, seconded by Prof. Roark, it was ordered that Deans of Courses prepare a verdict in the case of Mr Goode.

Com. on calendar of Examinations Upon motion of Prof. Miller, it was ordered that Deans of Courses arrange a calendar of examinations

Upon motion, it was ordered "that colleges exercises be suspended tomorrow Friday at 12 o'clock"

Upon motion, adjourned until Monday next at 3 P.M.

Clownathwe Day

James K. Patterson - President - Min. approved May 16th 1902

At M. College of Kentucky Apr. 21-1902

Disturbances involving Com. M: Kee. The faculty met in the President's room to investigate the disturbances involving the commandant, on the evening of Apr 8-1902.

Those present were Pres. Patterson, Messrs J. G. White, W. K. Patterson, Kastle, Pryor, Matthews Miller, Pence, Brooks, and Mackenzie. * Norwood Miss Hodys, the President's secretary making a stenographic report of the testimony.

President Patterson informed the faculty that he had notified Major M: Kee of the meeting of the faculty, and had requested him to be present to "prefer charges", to name witnesses that he wished to have testify" and "to testify himself" He stated that he had sent this communication by a special messenger, who was told by Major M: Kee