

The following recommendation from the College of Agriculture was approved:

- ✓ A. I. 121 - Advanced Genetics - a course dealing with animal, plant and human genetics.. Prerequisite A.I. 119. Lectures, 3 hrs. First semester.

That Home Economics 42, Home Management, be made a prerequisite for the degree of B.S. in Home Economics.

The following recommendation from the College of Engineering was approved:

Civil Engineering 5 - Elements of Architecture - For seniors in Civil Engineering. Lecture and recitation one hour a week for the first semester; drawing room four hours a week, second half of first semester.

The following recommendations of the College of Commerce were approved:

- ✓ Economics 201, Advanced Economics - changed to Economics 203 - History of Economic Thought - 3 credits.
- ✓ Drop Economics 101 and Add - Economics 116 - Business Organization, 3 credits. and
- ✓ Add Economics 117 - Corporation Finance - 3 credits.

New Courses

- ✓ Economics 115 - Contemporary Economic Thought - 3 credits
- ✓ Economics 118 - Cost Accounting - 3 credits
- ✓ Economics 119 - Principles of Retailing - 2 credits
- ✓ Economics 120 - Commercial and Agricultural Organization - 3 crs.
- ✓ Economics 8 - Economic Geography - 3 credits.

Senate also approved the request of the College of Commerce to allow members of the class of 1926 to qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce by completing 30 credits in Commerce, 6 credits in English, 6 credits in a foreign language, 6 credits in a natural science, and a total of 127 credits, with a standing of one. This privilege is to be accorded to students who have had 15 credits or more in Economics.

Ernest G. Gilly
Secretary

MINUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE OCTOBER 12, 1925

The University Senate met in the Little Theatre Monday, October 12, President McVey presiding.

The minutes of July 13, were read and approved.

Professors George Roberts and W. S. Webb were elected Senate representatives on the University Council for the year 1925-26

The following recommendation from the Rules Committee was approved:

October 12- -2

"That the Committee on Scholarship and Attendance be empowered to deduct from a student's semester's total number of credits and points for irregular attendance."

The question of proper method of appointment of extension instructors was considered and referred to a committee of five, with instructions to consider the University policy in reference to extension. The committee to be appointed by President McVey, will be expected to report at the next meeting of the University Senate.

The following recommendations from the College of Arts and Sciences were approved:

- ✓ Chemistry 108 - Colloid Chemistry. Five credits
- See letter from Dean Boyd in Senate file. 11/11/25 ✓ (Art 18a and 18b - Problems in School Art. Prerequisite one year teaching in public schools. Two hours a week. Two credits per semester.
- ✓ Art 112^{a-b} - Advanced Composition. Two credits.
- ✓ Art 202 - Advanced Composition. Two credits.
- ✓ Art 128a and 128b - Drawing and Modeling for Science Students. Two credits per semester. To replace Art 28a-b
- ✓ Art 108a and 108b. - Special Problems for Science Students. This will replace Art 8a and 8b.
- ✓ English 131a and 131b - Independent Work. Two credits per semester
- ✓ Romance Languages 113a and 131b - Independent work in Romance Languages. Three credits per semester. It is requested that this course be approved, subject to the approval of the College of Arts and Sciences.
- ✓ Ancient Languages 151a and 151b - Independent Work in Ancient Languages. Three credits per semester.

The following recommendation from the College of Agriculture was approved:

- ✓ Agronomy 1 - Soils - reduced from 5 credits to 4 credits, consisting of three lectures and one laboratory period.

Ernest F. Gellis
Secretary

MINUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE DECEMBER 7, 1925

The University Senate met in the Little Theatre Monday, December 7, President McVey presiding.

The minutes of October 12, were read and approved.

The following persons were recommended to the Board of Trustees as having satisfied the requirements for the degrees indicated:

- Bachelor of Arts
- Kerney Milner Adams
- John Snell Berry
- Margaret Black