10,000 OLD STATE STUDENTS TO RETURN FOR GOLDEN JUBILEE TO BE HELD OCT. 14

Every Mail Bringing Letters From Graduates Who Will Return to Their Alma Mater—Most Remarkable Home-Coming Ever Held.

ACADEMIC PARADE WILL OPEN CEREMONIES

They are all coming back. Perhaps this is the best way to tell the story of what in all probability will be the most remarkable home-coming ever held in the South. The Golden Jubilee of the University of Kentucky will take place Saturday, October 14, and from all indications a new and luminous page in the educational history of the State will be written. Dean F. Paul Anderson is still at work making arrangements, sending out letters and taking up different phases of the celebration with the committee. Dean Anderson, who expects 10,000 old students to be in attendance, says that he receives a thrill every minute of the day as every letter opened tells of another "Old State" man who is coming back. The following events will form part of the festivities in connection with the celebration. On Friday afternoon, October 13, at 2 o'clock, the annual tug-of-war between the Freshmen and Sophomore classes will take place across Clifton Heights Pond. At 8 o'clock, Friday evening there will be an old-fashioned get-together meeting of the alumni and former students of the University at the Phoenix Hotel. At 9 o'clock, Saturday morning, October 14, the ceremonies of the Jubilee will begin with an academic procession. The undergraduate student body, by classes, will march through the principle streets of Lexington, proceeding to Patterson Hall, where they will join the academic procession of the trustees, faculty and alumni by classes, and march to the University campus where, under a large tent, erected in front of the Main Building, the following program will be adhered to, beginning promptly at 10 o'clock: President Charles W. Dabney, of the University of Cincinnati, will make an address on "The University and the State." President Emeritus James K. Patterson will speak on "Fifty Years of the University of Kentucky." Mr. Charles R. Brock, of the class of '90, will present the portrait of James K. Patterson from the alumni to the University. During these ceremonies a number of honorary degrees will be conferred upon distinguished scholars and men of affairs of the United States. At 12 o'clock a lunch will be served on the campus to visitors and undergraduates. In the afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, the ceremonies of the formal dedication of Stoll Field, in honor of Richard C. Stoll, will be held.

Major John T. Geary, an orator alumnus of the University, will dedicate to the University a tablet naming the field. Governor A. O. Stanley will receive the commemorative tablet on the part of the University. President Henry S. Barker will preside at the ceremonies of the Jubilee and at the dedication of Stoll Field. After the dedication of Stoll Field, the most important football game of the year will be played between Vanderbilt University and the University of Kentucky. Vanderbilt always has a strong team and a lively contest is anticipated. Last year Kentucky defeated Purdue, seven to nothing, and the 1916 team promises to be even stronger than the 1915 team, altho some very excellent men graduated and will not be a part of the organization this year. The lovers of football, therefore, will have an opportunity to see one of the best games of football that they ever have been privileged to witness in Kentucky. Many enthusiastic letters have been received from alumni, indicating that they will take advantage of this opportunity to participate in a University home-coming that has been planned to make everybody have a good time and see the progress the University has made during the first fifty years of its existence. All of the fraternities are in touch with their alumni and will arrange for a reunion in connection with the Golden Jubilee according to lately-announced plans. The professional and honorary fraternities will also send out letters and attempt to get their alumni to return. The literary societies and organizations of the University are expected to make an effort to bring a large delegation of old men back to the scenes of their college days. From all sources that are expected to be drawn from it is expected that fully 10,000 will attend and preparations are being made to entertain that number. One class of prominent men who will attend are the college presidents to whom the University authorities have sent out special engraved invitations.

SCOTT IS SPORTING EDITOR OF LEADER

J. M. Scott, a Junior in the College of Arts and Science last year, has accepted a position as sporting editor of the Lexington Leader and is now on the job. He did not return to college this fall.

LEARN THESE YELLS

The Kernel prints below a number of the college yells, and requests that all students not familiar with them already commit them to memory. Yell Leader Whayne Haffler requests everybody to attend chapel Friday morning, as he has a few surprises in store. The co-eds will sit on the north side of the chapel and attempt to out-yell the male section, but it is not believed they can do it, owing to the fact that they are not so numerous. Learn these yells and get ready for Centre:

JUNIORS ELECT LOGAN PRESIDENT OF CLASS

J. A. Brittain and Harry Milward Are Close Contestants

FACTIONALISM RULES

Lindsey Logan, of Shelbyville, was chosen president of the Junior class at the annual election of officers held in Buell Armory last Thursday afternoon. Miss Celia Cregor, vice president of the class last year, presided. The other officers elected were as follows: Miss Lena Clem, vice president; Miss Lela Kerswill, secretary; C. L. Morgan, treasurer; Virgil Chapman, class representative; M. C. Finney, Junior editor of the Kentuckian; W. B. Martin, assistant business manager of the Kentuckian; B. J. Riley, M. L. Watson, and Frank Grainger, assistant football managers. Considerable interest and enthusiasm was manifested in the election, over a hundred Juniors being present. The election narrowed to a contest between the fraternity and non-fraternity factions, despite an appeal by Joe M. Robinson that these differences should be forgotten and that each candidate should be considered on his merits. Prior to the election caucuses were held and candidates for each office were selected. In the election of president, Lindsey Logan headed the non-frat ticket; J. A. Brittain led the fraternity faction, and Harry Milward was nominated on the independent ticket.

BUTLER TAKEN INTO CAMP BY WILDCATS

State Wins One-Sided Game 39 to 3—Rodes and Brittain Star

PLAY VANDY OCT. 14

The Wildcats defeated Butler College, of Indianapolis, in the first game of the season last Saturday on Stoll Field by the score of 39 to 3. "Doc" Rodes and Brittain starred for Kentucky while Bonham, the Butler quarter, was pre-eminently the top-notch of the visiting team. Ideal weather and a large crowd greeted the Wildcats in their first game. Cheer Leader Haffler and his corps of assistants leading the bleachers in the Kentucky yells. Kentucky took the lead in the first quarter and almost rushed the Butler boys off their feet before they were able to summon their full strength for the fray. Rodes, the famous quarterback for the Wildcats, kicked off and assumed the role of chief butcher in the near-slaughter which followed. Rodes' first kick landed on the Butler 15-yard line and was returned by Bonham, the Butler quarter, to the 45-yard line. After three plays Butler gained only four yards and a kick gave Kentucky the ball on her 30-yard line. Rodes gained 50 yards in a run around the Butler right end. In a series of plays which followed a total of twenty-one yards was made and the pigskin was finally carried over the line by the Kentucky quarter. Kinne missed kicking goal. The Wildcats second touchdown also came in the first quarter. Butler received the kick and on failing to gain yielded the ball to Kentucky on her 30-yard line. Plunges through the line by Rhodes and Grabfelder placed the ball on the 1-yard line from where it was carried over by Haydon. Again Kinne missed goal. At this point Butler took on a new supply of courage and registered a small gain but kicked out of bounds on the Kentucky 30-yard line. Rodes reeled off another gain around the Butler end and the quarter was brought to a close. Score at the end of the first quarter, Kentucky 12, Butler 0. Grabfelder started the onslaught in the second quarter by breaking thru the line for a gain of 30 yards and a touchdown. Rodes missed kicking goal. Kinne replaced Rodes at quarter and for the remainder of the quarter the honors were about equally divided between the two teams, neither side scoring. Score at the end of the second period, Kentucky 18, Butler 0. The third quarter found Butler making gains through her superior forward passing. Butler's hopes fell, however, when McVain, who succeeded Gumbert seized a toss near the center of the field and scored a touchdown. Rodes kicked goal.

NOTICE, SENIORS!

Notices were posted in certain places on the campus yesterday afternoon calling a meeting of the Senior class for 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, at which time class officers will be elected for the term of 1916-1917. A warm campaign has been waged by at least two parties contending for the honors, and a lively time is expected at this meeting. Every Senior should be there to record his choice.

MECHANICAL HALL THOROLY RENOVATED

Mechanical Hall seems to be dressed in gala attire for the opening of the college term 1916-17. The vines and flowers please the eye when approaching the building; entering the main hall, the old boys feel almost lost, for the hall has been remodeled and white walls, hung with interesting class pictures, and a floor of blue and white tile with the words "Mechanical and Electrical Engineering" in the center, have replaced the dingy entrance that they remembered. The building has been thoroly renovated during the summer and the new Senior study room is a delight to the class.

Again Butler braced and executed some highly admirable work in the play which followed. The Hoosier lads made their only score when a good return, a series of three forward passes and a 10-yard gain by Bonham were followed by a drop kick by the Indianapolis quarter, netting three points for the visitors.

The Blue and White continued their onward march. Receiving the kick, Rodes returned to the Butler 45-yard line. Haydon was sent around end for fifteen yards and Crutcher broke through the line for a gain of twenty-five yards. Rodes took the ball over the line and then kicked goal.

Haydon seized a forward pass which he carried to the 45-yard line, Rodes taking the ball the rest of the way for another touchdown. "Doc" kicked goal a second time.

As the game drew to a close the play tightened, Butler holding the ball in her possession after an intercepted forward pass by Haydon was followed by Kentucky's losing the ball on downs. The whistle blew with the ball in the center of the field. The final score was Kentucky 39, Butler 3.

The game was marked by the excellent offensive play of the Kentucky team. Rodes was the chief factor in Kentucky's scoring having gained twenty-one of the total thirty-nine points. Rodes was ably assisted in the backfield by Haydon and Grabfelder. In the line Brittain was especially effective. Many substitutions were made in the Kentucky team at various points of the game, although much good material was withheld from the play.

Bonham, the little captain and quarterback for the Butler team, starred. His work at directing the play was excellent and activity in the play itself was equally commendable.

STATE PLAYS CENTRE COLLEGE SATURDAY

Saturday afternoon the Wildcats will meet Centre College of Danville. The revival of the old K. I. A. A. games marks a turning point in the history of the game, it is believed by many of the football enthusiasts. Memories of the days when State met Transylvania, Georgetown and Centre are held in almost sacred esteem by the followers of the game who are now behind the movement to bring about a renewal of the old battles on the gridiron. Centre is the first of the old teams to meet the Blue and White. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

On the following Saturday, Vanderbilt will make the journey to the Blue-grass capital and all of State's surplus strength is being preserved for the gala occasion. Fans who have watched the two teams the past two seasons predict a hot match.

Vanderbilt's reputation as an athletic school has always been lived up to and this season bids fair to prove no disappointment. "Josh" Cody has been declared eligible to continue his work with the Nashville team according to reports from the Tennessee capital and will form the bulwark of the Commodore line. The decision was a result of a meeting of the S. I. A. A. officials in which all doubt as to the eligibility of the big tackle was removed. Prior to his entrance at Vanderbilt Cody had played two years of athletics at Bethel College and the four-year ruling of the S. I. A. A. brought up the question as to whether Cody would be permitted to continue his athletic career. The S. I. A. A. officials in their decision contended that Bethel College was in reality not a college, there being only twenty-five college students registered at the school. The advent of Cody will afford big meat for the Wildcat warriors.

U. K. Club Holds
First Meeting

The Democrats of the University at their second meeting of the school year last week fully demonstrated by their enthusiasm and flow of oratory that Woodrow Wilson would be our next President without a doubt if his election were left to them alone. President Jesse Gregory presided and the attendance was unusually large. Speeches were made by Virgil Chapman, who spoke on "Wilson, the Man of the Crisis," and Clarence Harney, whose subject was "A Voter's Mustache and Why Necessary to One Who Votes for the First Time," and J. D. V. Chamberlain, who delivered an address on "Work in the ranks of Democracy in Kentucky."

After the speeches had been made and the regular business of the club transacted, Cheer Leader B. J. Riley led cheers for Wilson and Marshall, which were given with great enthusiasm and spirit. The meeting was then adjourned until tonight at 7:30 o'clock when another rousing meeting is scheduled to take place. The meetings are held in the law department and every Democrat in the University is cordially invited to attend.

MECHANICAL COURSE WINS RECOGNITION

Forge Shop Exercises Used As Models In Com- pany's Catalog

In a new catalogue issued by the Buffalo Forge Company the course offered by the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering of the University of Kentucky is given well-deserved recognition. The forge shop exercises, which are given in the Sophomore year and which were designed by Dean F. Paul Anderson for the college course twenty-five years ago, are given in the catalog as model forge shop exercises.

The catalogs are distributed among the forge shops thruout the country which use the company's forges. As these forges are used in practically all of the large technical schools in the country, the exercises, which have been used in this University for a quarter of a century will become a standard for forge shop work all over the country.

The fact that the company recognizes the school is also shown by the large number of graduates of the College of Mechanical Engineering who are working for them. Irving Lyle is now general manager of the Carrier Electric Corporation which is associated with the Buffalo Forge Company. Others are L. L. Lewis, B. M. E. 1907, M. E. 1909; O. K. Dyer, 1904; H. B. Hedges, 1914; R. T. Thornton, 1914; A. T. Lewis, 1910; Herman Worsham, 1910; R. L. Jones, 1912, and W. H. Jaegle, 1912.

PROF. HOOPER JUDGE AT STOCK CONTEST

Professor J. J. Hooper, instructor of Animal Husbandry in the College of Agriculture, left Sunday for Waterloo, Iowa, where he was invited to act as judge of the students' stock-judging contest at the Waterloo Cattle Congress, being held this week. Professor Hooper hoped to have a team of students from the University to compete in the contest, but the cost of the trip was found to be prohibitive.

The teams which competed in the contest represented the Universities of Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota, North Dakota, Michigan, Nebraska and Wisconsin. Professor Hooper was the only judge. The students examined rings of stock of several different breeds and premiums, aggregating $500 in cash and ten handsome trophies were awarded to the winners.

WILHOIT SUCCEEDED BY MINOTT BROOKE

Minott Brooke, '15, of Veechdale, has been placed in charge of the steam laboratory department of the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. He will succeed A. L. Wilhoit, who has been transferred to the thermodynamics department. Mr. Brooke was class president in his Junior year.

BIBLE CLASS ELECTS

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at the first meeting of Judge Lyman Chalkley's Bible Class at the Christ Church Cathedral: C. T. Dotson, president; R. H. Scott, secretary, and Ronald Hutchison, treasurer. A committee to solicit new members was appointed as follows: B. B. Black, S. H. Brown and E. M. McGuffey.

HEICK IS PRESIDENT OF SOPHOMORE CLASS

"Shorty" Heick, of Louisville, was elected president at a meeting of the Sophomore class last Thursday afternoon. The other officers are Miss Eliza Piggott, of Louisville, vice president; Miss Elizabeth Petty, of Shelbyville, secretary, and Clyde Bland, of Cynthiana, treasurer. C. R. Lisanby, last year's president, presided at the meeting.

Dean F. Paul Anderson addressed the class on the Golden Jubilee, emphasizing the importance of the class being well represented in the student parade on the morning of October 14.

RINGLING CIRCUS IN LEXINGTON TODAY

Ringling Bros.' Great World Famous Circus will be in Lexington today for two performances and a parade. The matinee performance will begin at 2 o'clock and the evening show at 8 o'clock promptly. Doors will be open at 1 and 7, to allow all to see the menagerie. Ringling Bros. is the only big circus to "make" Lexington this fall, and every one should take this opportunity to see it. Admission 50 cents.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATIONS HELD

The Rhodes Scholarship examination was held in Alumni Hall of the University Tuesday and Wednesday, October 3rd and 4th by Prof. T. T. Jones, of the University of Kentucky, and Prof. T. B. McCartney, of Transylvania.

Those who took the examination were R. W. Dunlap, of Danville, who represented Centre; I. C. Powers, of Hawesville, representing Georgetown, and M. U. Condit, of Marion, who represented the University.

The board which will select the Kentucky representative is composed of Dr. James K. Patterson, Dr. M. B. Adams, Dr. T. B. McCartney, Dr. W. A. Ganfield, and President J. L. Clark, of Kentucky Wesleyan College.

One man is chosen from among the list of eligibles, according to his conformation to standards at Oxford University, one of the most important of which is athletics.

Reuben T. Taylor, of LaGrange, who was on the waiting list of eligibles, received his appointment some time ago, and sailed last week for Oxford. Mr. Taylor graduated here in 1914 and immediately took up a fellowship and taught for two years in the English department. He was active in literary work.

J. E. JOHNSON IS NEW Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY

The outlook for the University Y. M. C. A. is most promising for an active and serviceable year. The Board of Management has secured J. E. Johnson, of Timonsville, S. C., for general secretary. Mr. Johnson graduated from Clemson College in 1906, and since that time he has been an active Y. M. C. A. leader. He graduated from Yale in 1913 with the degrees of M. A. and B. D. and for the last two years has been State student secretary for Ohio. He comes to "State" very highly recommended. Under his efficient leadership a special committee of Y. M. C. A. members met each train during the opening days of college. Y. M. C. A. badges were worn and information and assistance was given to everyone.

JOINT SESSION WILL BE HELD OCT. 13

Executive Board and Trustees Called Together By Governor

The Board of Trustees and the Executive Board of the University of Kentucky will hold a meeting October 13 at 11 o'clock, probably to discuss a successor to Dr. Joseph H. Kastle, as director of the Experiment Station.

This meeting is the first of the meetings called under the new arrangement, which is to hold two meetings each year at the call of the Governor in addition to the two regular meetings held in December and June.

October 13 was selected for the meeting because many of the trustees will be in Lexington at that time to attend the jubilee festivities. The trustees will probably witness the annual tug-of-war between the Freshmen and Sophomores in a body.

The appointment of a permanent dean of the College of Agriculture and the choosing of a man to direct the Experiment Station will be the most important things to come before the board.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Miss Ina Scherrebeck, traveling secretary for the Y. W. C. A., spoke at the regular meeting of the association Sunday night at Patterson Hall. Miss Jane Dickey conducted the meeting.

The social service committee, which was to have conducted the program, will have charge next Sunday. All members and new girls are urged to be present.

NEW DIPLOMAS FOR GRADUATES OF 1916

A call was issued last week requesting 1916 graduates of the University of Kentucky to return the diplomas issued to them in June to the registrar, Ezra L. Gillis.

The 1916 General Assembly changed the name of the University from "State University" to "University of Kentucky" and as the diplomas bear the former name they are to be changed to bear the new insignia. The act went into effect prior to the 1916 graduation and that class will be granted the new diplomas.

Registrar Gillis says that the new diplomas will be the same size as the old ones so that those who have framed them will be put to no extra expense. Dr. P. P. Boyd and Prof. L. L. Dantzer were appointed a special committee to redraft the diplomas.

European Success With Nitrate

European farmers use 600 pounds to the acre of a fertilizer containing 4½ per cent of available Nitrogen.

American farmers, on the average, use 200 pounds to the acre of a fertilizer containing 2 per cent of mostly unavailable Nitrogen.

The average European yield of Wheat, Oats, Potatoes, and Cotton in Egypt, is double the American yield.

The difference is due to amount of available Nitrogen applied per acre.

Chapel.

Chapel attendance so far has been light, especially on Tuesdays. The programs that have been furnished are the best we have ever had and the hour is never wasted for one who attends. Mr. Johnson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has secured twenty minutes of each Tuesday hour for choral singing, an activity which, in the University, has been notable for its absence. The songs will not all be of religious nature, and every taste will be satisfied.

The Friday meetings are in charge of student organizations, and tomorrow football will again hold sway. The cheer leader requests that everyone be present and that the girls sit together on the north side of the house, with the boys grouped on the south side.

When a student is dismissed from classes for chapel, there is a tacit contract on his part with the authorities that he will attend the exercises. Every man and woman in the University should observe that contract.

A Little More Spirit.

A newspaper should never be a knocker, and it is the intention of the management of The Kernel to conduct its affairs in such a manner that it can not be accused of pessimistic tendencies. But indiscriminate praise is nearly as bad as persistent hammer swinging. We are, we think, justified in criticizing whom we please when we please if we think it will do good.

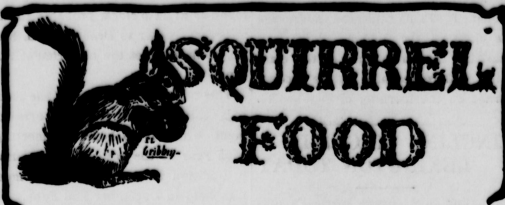

The student body is the subject of our kindly comment this week. Everybody wants to see a good, old-fashioned, rip-roaring college spirit in evidence. So far that sort of spirit has appeared only in flashes. The yelling at the Butler game last Saturday was woefully weak. It is the opinion of the writer, who was in a position where he could observe carefully, that not more than 200 of our students cared enough for the football team to join the rooting section. There should have been four times that number.

There is a reason for all things. Perhaps a large number of the students do not know the yells. The Kernel is publishing a number of them this week, and recommends that all students not familiar with them put in an hour or two in study. It is, of course, difficult to arouse great enthusiasm for the lighter games on the schedule, but the student body should use these occasions to train for the important battles, just as the football team does. The team works as hard in these games as in the larger ones, and they should be supported just as heartily.

The Kernel makes a suggestion. Let the four classes meet somewhere on the campus before each game and march in a body to the athletic field. There is no doubt that good cheering will result when 700 or 800 students who know the yells sit together on the stands, provided they are not too dignified to take fresh oxygen into their lungs and let it out again. Why not have a little co-operation? If college life teaches any one thing above all others, it is that each individual has his little part to perform in every activity. Perform your part in supporting the University Spirit.

Perhaps, but tell it not in Gath, the action of the faculty putting a rigid ban on the comparatively mild form of hazing formerly indulged in by upper classmen has had a deleterious effect on class and college whoop-la. But that, as Kip has it, is another story.

The following poem (?) was mailed to the editor of The Kernel with a one-cent stamp due. Having purchased the contribution at full market price, we are compelled to run it. A crown of dock leaves will be placed on the brow of the author if he comes out of hiding:

"PROFANUM VULGUS."
Once again winter approaches;
Once again the birds have flown.
Once again the mighty Sophomores
From our head our hair have shorn.

We sneak about with fear and trembling;
To walk the streets we do not dare,
Lest we meet the masked battalion
Always crying: "Cut their hair!"

Beware, Sophomores, how you treat us,
For a bath you're goin' to take
On the 13th of October,
In the famous Clifton Lake.

If the weather gets much cooler,
Freshmen, we are bound to roam
To the fair and sunny Southland
Where the climate suits our dome.

They call us Ivory top and slick head,
But this I have to say:
"There's a divinity that shapes our ends Rough—hew them how they may."

OLD DORM IS SCENE OF BOLD BURGLARY

An astonishing bit of burglary took place in the old dormitory Monday night. When Sam Brown entered his room he discovered a negro of the greyhound species climbing out the window with a bundle of clothes on his arm. Brown gave chase to the burglar but was unable to catch him, altho he dropped some of the clothes. The negro succeeded nevertheless in "getting away" with a suit of clothes belonging to M. G. Lasley and a coat hanger belonging to L. T. Rector. The felony was immediately reported to police headquarters but at the present nothing has been heard of the negro or clothes.

Lasley says that the inside coat pocket contained some old love-letters and if the negro will be so kind as to return the letters he will not ask any questions about the clothes. Altho the suit was a new one it is a small item compared to the love-letters. As yet Rector has not deeply sensed the loss of the coat hanger and we are in no position to say what will be his attitude on the matter.

STUDENTS' FORUM

OBJECTS TO FACTIONALISM.

TO THE EDITOR:

The fiftieth session of the University of Kentucky has begun and promises to be an epoch-making year in the history of the institution. Among many other things worthy of mention we have this year the pleasant duty of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Kentucky A. & M. College.

There are many and fitting ways in which our students can celebrate the Golden Jubilee and the student body should take concerted action in the matter. We should so commemorate the occasion that we will build a lasting monument to our Alma Mater and to ourselves. This monument, built by the student body as a whole could well be represented in wood or stone or bronze; this monument might be elevated to a prominent place on the campus, and there for years to come be a valuable and beautiful addition. Yet, fellow students, there is a more fitting tribute which we can leave written indelibly in the annals of old "State," than in wood or stone.

This monument could be no more fittingly expressed than in the eliminating of the time old antagonism between fraternity and non-fraternity factions. It is a deplorable fact that even now every class on the campus, from the humble Freshman to the mighty Senior, is torn asunder by this old antagonism. Factionalism does not fit into our modern student life. Such a system only breeds ill-feeling among the factions and leads to disorganized efforts.

"United we stand, divided we fall" is the motto of our great Commonwealth. Such a motto should be ours on the campus of the University of Kentucky, if we hope to build a bigger and a better University. In the election of class officers; in the apportionment of committees; in every phase of student life we should draw our issues on the qualifications of the individual and not on account of his fraternity or non-fraternity sentiments. At present at least three of the four classes in their class elections have drawn the issues wholly and solely on the "frat" qualification.

Fellow-students, as a memorial to our Alma Mater; as the only sure way of securing harmony and progress on the campus; as a mark of our bigness and broad mindedness; as the one big and lasting monument to this fiftieth birthday of "Old State," let us now and forever separate ourselves from such petty prejudices as fraternity and non-fraternity affiliations. Our University will never grow in influence or good repute as long as there is internal dissention among the students. Forget old scores, put forth a united, organized force of students for a bigger and better University. This done and the collegiate year 1916-17 will stand as an immortal tribute to the present student body and we shall have fittingly celebrated the Golden Jubilee. All hail, Alma Mater, all hail.

MISS MITCHELL WINS PRAISE AS SOLOIST

Students at the University will be glad to hear of the success during the past summer of Miss Katherine Mitchell, an alumna of the class of 1916. In August Miss Mitchell appeared on the chautauqua platform in a series of concerts and attracted much favorable comment. Her concerts were given at Monteagle, Tenn., known as the "Chautauqua of the South," where each year an assembly is held thru the entire summer. The musical programs at Monteagle are featured and it was a very marked compliment to Miss Mitchell's ability as a singer that she was engaged for a series of five concerts. The Nashville daily papers spoke very highly of the ability and talent of the young soloist, and the professionals who appeared on the same platform with her were much impressed by her voice.

Miss Mitchell took a prominent part in the musical activities while she was a student at the University, appearing in the title roles in two cantatas given by the Choral Society. She was also prominent in many other student activities, being a member of the Strollers, Staff and Crown and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

CO-EDS ARE TREATED

The fair co-eds at Patt Hall suffered a delightful treat Monday night when "Harney's Meat House Quartet" rendered a few vocal selections for their delectation. The girls responded nobly and the quartet was presented with many souvenirs of the occasion. The boys reported a fine reception and an invitation to return and torture the co-eds again.

STROLLERS' MEETING

The first meeting of the Strollers this year will be held in the Stroller studio, in the basement of the Main Building, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The election of a stage manager for this year and of several officers to take the place of those who did not return to the University will be the most important business on the program.

ASSOCIATION SOCIAL TOMORROW EVENING

The first social event of the year on the campus will be given in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Gym Building tomorrow evening, October 6, and all students are cordially invited to attend. The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will be the hosts and a royal time is promised. The management holds out music, "eats" and girls as inducements to male students and music and "eats" as bait to lure the ladies.

"K" DANCE OCTOBER 13

The Kentuckian dance, the first event of the kind this year, will be given in Buell Armory Friday evening, October 13, and all students are invited to attend. The "K" dance is always one of the best of the school dances, and as it is given for the benefit of the University annual, no student should be absent. A large number of alumni who will be in the city for the Jubilee will attend. The admission has been fixed at 50 cents and tickets will be placed on sale early next week.

DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM ANNOUNCES DEPARTURE.

The Department of Journalism announces that until October 10 it will enroll students in its class in verbal criticism and copyreading for the third hour Monday, Wednesday and Friday as that particular hour is open for the work thruout the year by reason of the merging of other divisions in the Junior year. Students majoring in other courses that journalism and who have had as much as two years of Latin are eligible.

LIBRARY CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING FRIDAY

All Students of Library Training Are Invited To Attend

The Library Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the club room of the Library Building. All students who have taken, or are taking library training, are eligible to membership and are cordially invited to be present at the first meeting of the year.

The following officers were elected at the May meeting: Vivian DeLaine, president; Elizabeth Crow, vice president, and Minnie Neville, secretary.

An interesting program and refreshments are promised for Friday.

UPPERCLASSMEN MUST MAKE UP GYM WORK

Diplomas Will Not Be Given Until Gym. Credits Are Secured

Juniors and Seniors in the College of Arts and Science and in the College of Agriculture, who are deficient in gymnasium work, will be required to make it up before being granted diplomas, according to a statement made last week by S. A. Boles, physical director. Two years' training in gym, is required of all students enrolled in the above named colleges and Mr. Boles is determined to see that this rule is enforced.

Gymnasium classes for Freshmen and Sophomores in the College of Arts and Science and in the College of Agriculture were begun last Thursday afternoon and 214 students have enrolled in them. Gymnasium suits and shoes are sold at cost in the physical director's office by George Gumbert.

DR. PETER DIRECTS WORK AT STATION

Dr. Alfred M. Peter, head of the department of chemistry at the Experiment Station and senior member of the staff, is now acting head of the Station until a successor can be selected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Kastle. It has been officially stated that there has been no consideration of a successor to Dr. Kastle, and it will probably be several weeks before any action is taken.

A special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University has been called by Gov. A. O. Stanley for October 13th, and while it is not certain that definite action will be taken, the question of a new head for the station will be discussed.

Dr. Peter took up his new duties immediately, combining the work of director with that of his own department.
