

Louisville Ky.
1745 First Street
May 24. 1897.

Dear Father,

Your letter came this morning at breakfast time and Tom stopped on his way to his office to see Will as Will told him yesterday that he had been to see Miss Belle Peers to know if she would take <sup>them</sup> and to see a Mrs. Goodloe who lives on Chestnut street near fifth and takes boarders. Miss Belle was to let them know to-day. Tom told Will that as they were uncertain about the length of their stay he thought they might prefer coming