My dear Father;

Your letter was a treat, and I was as glad to get it as I was to get the enclosed check.

I came down stairs this morning to write to you but before I began Cousin Lizzie Hart called. I asked her to stay to lunch, which she did, and she and I were still talking away at three o'clock when my neighbor Mrs. Robinson Sr. came. Cousin Lizzie left, and before Mrs. Robinson went away Sara Simall and Cousin Sara Anderson came. It is after supper now, and I have had a pleasant day and enjoyed my visitors.

You did not
