

March 15, 82,

Dear Father

I write
to tell you and Maude this week as I desire to lay my financial condition before you
and not necessarily before the rest of the family.

I have received so far $923.00 and owe
at present a tailor's bill of $73.73 for a suit which I got before Maude for a pair of pants, for putting a collar on my
