My dear Major

You have my command to show my letters to Alex Humphrey. My purpose in writing you was to give you the information I had rec^d after you left N.Y. You & Alex can judge better than I what it all means.

I should be very sorry to do all the ordinary injustices, or wound his feelings; but it seemed my duty to tell you what I had heard.

I have not seen him since you were here & know nothing of his movements.

Sincerely yours
W. H. Bristow
Major
H. C. Howell.
