My dear Major

I have just learned through a note from George Willis Bristow that you are likely to be here before the holidays and I write to say that the "Cotch string" at 37 West 49th street hangs outside the door to you. I would expect you to come to our house & advise George to meet you there.

Kind regards to your family.

Forthfully yours

B. H. Bristow
