

BENJ. H. BRISTOW
WILLIAM PEET.
WM S. OPDYKE.
DAVID WILLCOX.
WM B. BRISTOW.

Bristow, Peet & Opdyke,
20 Nassau St. New York.

Sept 19. 1894

Dear Major

I have your letter of Sunday.
Since Dr B was here we have had occasion to see the woman lawyers & they pretend to be anxious to bring the case on in order to vindicate their client & establish the legitimacy of her child. This is probably pure bluff. They are shabby lawyers will do anything to extort money.
Curiously enough they knew of Dr B's having been here last Friday & that he had seen Dr Hagon.
Of course their information come from him; but it may be that he thought it best for Dr B to let the woman know that he meant to fight