

Oakland 2<sup>o</sup> Aug - 1834

Dear Sir

I thank you for the Address made by you at the Whig Festival on the 4th Ult. a copy of which I rec<sup>d</sup> with your favor of the 22<sup>o</sup> of the same month. I perused it with much pleasure, and found it distinguished by a bold and manly spirit and patriotic eloquence. I fervently hope that the sentiments which it breathes may be shared by a sufficient portion of Pennsylvanians to array your important State against the present wicked and corrupt administration. Louisiana we just hear, has opened the Campaign with vigor and gallantry. I trust that Kentucky next week will be along side of her; but it is to the Fall elections we must look for a decisive blow.

I am greatly obliged by the kind interest which you take in the accident which recently befel me. The injury which I received, although inconvenient, was slight, and is now healed.

With great respect

I am Com<sup>o</sup> ob<sup>o</sup> serve.

W. B. McClure Esq

H. Clay