Dear Sir:

Your esteemed favor recd. - I at once shared same to Mr Ryan, who like yourself seems discouraged.
however I don't so feel.

Early this spring, in driving the mare I discovered this same habit, though only when I urged her to increase her speed. She did not do this for any distance, and by talking her back and gradually letting her get back on her proper stride, I thought her entirely over the habit. When I brought her here, she had on 8 oz shoes in front and 5 oz behind. These I had changed to about what she had on when shipped to you. Of course I
