Dallas Texas.

Aug. 26, 1911.

Dear Allen:—

You do not know how much your letter comforted me. I have lived ten years in this last week, Cecil is out of danger and able to be pushed around in the invalid chair but still that horror of the act will never wear off.

I have been with him just as much as they would let me. — He talks of you and Yates so much.

Dear girl I do not think there is much use in you asking me to love you, as dear a friend as Yates is to Cecil I am sure that we could get along fine and for the loving part that is my second name.

About the "toy pistols" that is about the best yet I am going to take your letter out to the sanitarium this morning. Girl you can not understand how hard it is for me to go out there and see no one that is a friend but "C"; but I can stand any thing if it will only help him.

Yes! Cecil and Yates are some. What a like, except Cecil is so much more of a dear.

(I mean to me.)

I am afraid it will be many a year before I can see Chicago with "C" it will be at least four months before he will be able to work and you understand that we can not dress on love if we can live on it.

But if we can do any thing for you two dont fail to let us know. I would be so glad to live with you two.

What ever you do girl do not let Yates loose faith in you and please be as good and true as he is to you.

I have been writing to Yates for Cecil no objections is there? and he has asked Cecil to write you once in a while. In his last letter he was so blue because he had not heard from you in two days. Child stick to your promise and please dont forget me during all those happy October days.

Give Yates my

- b -

regards and write real often.

Lovingly
George.

P.S. I do not like to write you as Mrs Baker tell me that I may write you by your real name.
Please?

I thank you very much for the picture it is so sweet.

Mr Yates Jenkins:

Dear friend:—

I am
Cecil's private secretary and a bum one at that, as you know he is not able to write just yet, but in a few more days he will be able to draw a few of those pictures to compete with yours.
Yates & I thought better than that of you if I come to Chicago
will you show me

the city -- the brooks especially.

Cecil says he is all right and ready to see a ball game or any-thing different from what he has been looking at the last couple of weeks (What a slam on myself.)

Do not worry about Allen, she is still alive and as dear as ever rec. a letter from her yesterday, Yates sticks to her she is more than worth it, her letter made me feel like a new girl, and from it I must say she is crazy about you.

Cecil will be able to sit up tomorrow
my how glad I am
and by the first of next week they are going to bring him home. Write to him often Yates he is always talking of you.

Give my love to Allen also "C" and say for two cents I would send that

picture back.

Allen sent me a picture of her self she certainly is a cute looking girl. Cecil seems to like her so much.

When do you think you will be back to Dallas? we certainly do miss you when we are in town.

Yates, now please give Cecil an hour of your time every day and write him you have no idea how much he thinks of you.

I have at least a dozen of letters to write to te, tu, for this time.

I am as ever Oscar's secretary but living in hopes of being more some day.

Loveingly George.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS WHICH ARE HEREBY AGREED TO

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED MESSAGE AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for any mistakes or delay in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery of this message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of FIFTY DOLLARS, at which amount this message is hereby valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing hereon at the time the message is offered to the Company for transmission, and an additional sum paid or agreed to be paid based on such value equal to one-tenth of one per cent. thereof.
3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
5. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.
7. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Monday night -

My own darling -
Your letter
today made me sure of your love for little Alicia. Don't dearest please don't think me angry with you for I'm not add'ed love you more than ever tonight and long to be in your very arms this minute - Bless your
dear heart; how I love you - Don't ever doubt my love. You will never have to do I either for I'll be true blue to you and love you and not only be your little "gal" but your belly wife until the end of the world. I must say though I was hurt some what at you leaving from home and you were bound to have been sitting down or they'd never have learned

 you whereabouts. ? ?

I have studied over it but can't see how you father would have written and why he never got to send the letter to 2237 W. Monroe if you had not been writing

3.

them - Something funny about it - But I won't argue that further for I hate to get you bum fuzzed as to what you will tell me so forget it and do just as dear sweet-yale's wishes to do - you are way up there and little come down

here so far away from her love and my influence

has died out - I feel

when it comes to asking you what I'd love for you to do and not do - I am so worried I can hardly write or do anything but cry - I'm so afraid your father will send for you or write the proprietors Daddy you and that would spoil everything. Wouldn't it - you know - and realize at least you should have funny he will do about such - Oh I'm nearly crazy - I know if I don't

5-

please some of this wondered feeling off tonight - I will die tomorrow -
be on the watch out for him, for we don't know what he may do - Oh, God, please he must not interfere with us - I do so want to be happy in October Come up to Chicago to live and be with the ~~dearest~~ dearest and sweetest man in all the world for the rest of my life Yolo - Jeni

6

My own darling boy - I'm crying this minute so I can't write. So write me every day and so blue and longing for you - Oh, God
how I love you.
I would die if you were taken from me. I will have you and in October too if I have to fight harder than I'm fighting now to win you.

I worship you, I adore you every inch of you and you are mine
mine all mine!
Yes you are. I could bite you to pieces this minute if I were
in your arms.
Precious do you love me you love me love me
love but me.

8
You so miserable tonight and so worried about you. Write me how Cecil is and if George has written
you. I heard from Annette today saying your mother had not been here but nothing serious.
Am so sorry. Don't you worry for she isn't hurt badly.
Blood poison can be cured as don't worry now let me

do the wronging.
you must keep your mind on business now - work hard
and stick to it.
am delighted over your work - glory! I'm so glad for you - will go to bed now and dream about my own boy you - I love better than any body or anything in all the world

all my love and kisses for you only -

you blue lovesome

My Own True Darling,

Today I'm

all in from working 14

hours on the auto yesterday

I went over to Frank's house early in the morning and worked till 6 o'clock, we then had (over)

supper "or dinner rather"
and they made me stay till bed time - I remembered that I hadn't written my daily letter and insisted that they would excuse me but still I could not break away - I got home at 12 o'clock and went straight to bed knowing that the last collection of mail was made at 11 o'clock so it was useless for me to attempt to get a letter off that day — I'm awfully sorry "sweet one" that this happened for I can sympathize with you when it comes to being dissatisfied in the mail (male) line.

Bless your heart
you've been writing such lovely letters to me and I must try to repay you but not in this "so called" letter as I'm not at home and

only have three sheets of paper. However I will do my best when I do get home.

Darling I love you just about 500 times more than I ever did so please come to me soon Lots of love Hugo and Missie

I'm your true blue boy
