

but just think I will be left alone.
Mabel is coming some time this week and I sure will be right on the job.
She wants to know your address so she can write to you. must I tell her and what must I tell her. I am tired of being by myself so I think I will get married what about it? 'Ha' 'Ha' I am waiting for a fellow at the passenger station to day and it is pouring down rain. I am homesick and it makes me more so to think I will be left alone in a few weeks. I am working hard these days and it is about to get the best of me. Sweet day and night. please write to me man often for I am always glad to hear from my little western sister. How are you coming in getting your

Charlotte NC
3/19-1911

My dear sister.

I would have written sooner but thought you had gone back to Oklahoma. what are you doing for yourself these days. Tom was up to see me last Sunday and we had a big time. He did not know I had been writing to Annie and I sure had some fun out of him. we went down to see Ted and Coy Fannie.
I guess you are glad to know mama and papa are coming out there to live money? does Clifton still send the $30 to you. what did you think of mamas pictures? I thought they were fine. we are planning for a big reception to come off soon and take it from me ^{it} ~~there~~ will be some class. we are taking in some fine boys ~~the~~ now and we will soon have a big crowd of P.O's we have a good floor and a graphophone and we dance every night that I can get off from work. Dont think I have forgotten you by waiting so long to write but I have just been so busy that I have not had time to write. please excuse writing and shortness and write real soon to your big but who loves and thinks of you all the time with oceans of love.

Your Bud
John O. Fletcher Jr

Sunday afternoon

Dont let anyone see this for it is written so badly

Tear up

From Jeff Charlotte
SEABOARD AIR LINE RAILWAY

CHARLOTTE N.C.
MAR 20
9 30 AM
1911

POSTAGE
PAID TO
ORDER
OF
THE
POSTMASTER
AT CHARLOTTE
N.C.
10c

Mrs Aline Dukes
211 S Lancaster
Sta. A.
Dallas
Texas