Dear Mamma
Buddie
told me the last thing you said he must write first so I waited until today
The baby takes the bottle like a duck to water. She holds it in her hand all the time. The first morning after you left she waked
up and looked up
to see if you were there when she saw you it was she began to cry

but she stopped very yesterday. They soon and has not enjoyed it very child any since so much, but it was you see we can mean a very poor one.
age her very well.

Daniel coughed a little last night, but Mary has not coughed at all.
I suppose you met
Uncle Joe and Aunt
Cora in the City, Aunt Louie heard they were there.

Daniel was screaming this morning I was dressing him, but when Aunt Louie came to him he stopped very soon.

Aunt Betty called by the evening you felt, and she thought it was very queer you not to let her know you were going we took Bidie and Mittie to the circus That old Irish Mary was here, this morning she told Aunt Louie's fortune. She said that she had two beans, one was a young man and the other was a widow she said she would make a very good stepmother. I think if we are to write every day you might write
