Swift Larnear C. W. C. C. P.

an action against a non-resident of this State may be brought in any county in which there may be property of, or debts owing to, the Defendant Code of Practice p. 56, Sec 105:

S. Mattingly being a non-resident and there being no fund or interest belonging to him within the jurisdiction of the Court, attached or sought to be subjected to the complainant's demand, the Court had no jurisdiction to decree against him personally - in personam as decided by this Court in Manifos heirs vs Hyman &c (3 Monroe 406 & other cases.

J. B. Monroe Mattingly's heirs vs Corbit 378

The process by attachment of property of and of debts due to, non-residents will subject the property attached to execution upon the judgment or decree founded upon the process; but it is considered as a mere proceeding in rem and not personally binding or having any extra territorial force or obligation.
