

little or no good at school. The clubs were all reported in good condition, except the Deanville club, from which there was no report. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.

November 22nd

The Faculty met at the usual time.

Mr. Mansfield was, at his father's request, allowed to go home. Mr. Hodge presented a letter from his father authorizing him to leave the working department. The Faculty then gave him permission to leave that department provided he first procure the consent of the superintendent of that department.

Mr. R. S. Adams' request to be excused from the working department was not granted, he having no authority from home to that effect. Finnell's request for a change of boarding place was granted. Clements was excused from drill. Flynn was excused from Chapel. H. N. Smith was excused from the working department. A furlough for the remainder of the term was given to Mr. Ford. J. H. Smith was allowed to withdraw. Morris' request to be excused from the working department was refused.

Halby's request for a change of boarding place was granted.

Clubs were all reported in good condition except for a scarcity of water. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.

November 27th

The Faculty met as usual.

Furloughs (on account of the prevalence of small-pox) were granted to Messrs. Hodges, ^{James} Lachry, and Morton. Discharges were granted to Messrs. Dickinson, and Oliver. Mr. Waples was excused from the working department. Three cases of varioloid having appeared in the Deanville club, Drs. Dattinon, on Nov. 20, (Thanksgiving day), required the members of that club to confine themselves to their quarters. As it was not certain how long the members of this club would be cut off from their classes the Drs. was authorized to allow any of them, who wished to go home for a limited time, to do so.

Prof. Shackelford was appointed as a committee to make the best possible arrangements for the comfort and running of those sick with varioloid.

Clubs Nos 1, 2, 3, and 4 were reported in good condition, there being no report from the others. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.
