Dear "Teck"

You wanted one letter from foreign soil written especially for you, probably to hand down to succeeding generations, from your distinguished brother who crossed the ocean and fought for liberty in the battle of St. Mihiel and on the western front. Well here it is, and and an appropriate day to write it, viz: Christmas in the army.

A fellow teck, it just a little more. Really on a great holiday. Christmas when the boys departed the past twenty-four of their city home.
There is not the same light
