* PERSONNEL NOTES *

ABOVE AND BEYOND

The following letter was received by Paul Willis from Joanne Lang, Council on Higher Education:

Now that the proposal is in the mail, let me take this opportunity to thank you and your staff, Margey McQuilkin and Michael Lach, for their work and assistance in developing collaboration with Brian Daly, the Academic Libraries Shared Resources System Title IID grant. The professional guidance and work from you and your staff helped to bring this statewide grant proposal to fruition. Ms. McQuilkin's experiences, writing talents, and perspectives were extremely valuable in the development of this proposal. We appreciate your efforts to improve Kentucky's library resources...

STAFF ACTIVITIES

Judy Sackett has been asked by Jeff Field, Deputy Director of the Office of Preservation, to serve on the March 1990 panel to review grant applications for the NEH United States Newspaper Program. Judy will also be going to Washington in March to attend the annual USNP meeting at the Library of Congress.

* FELLOWSHIPS AND CONFERENCES *

CLR FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Council on Library Resources Fellows Program offers financial support to individuals who wish to undertake research or conduct analytical studies pertinent to library operations and services or to pursue other professional projects of importance. CLR Fellowships, which are awarded on a competitive basis, are granted for periods of four to twelve months. Applications are considered three times a year, on March 1, October 1, and December 1. Questions about the program should be directed to: Council on Library Resources, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, (202) 483-7474.

ALA LIBRARY/BOOK FELLOW POSITIONS OPEN

Applications are being accepted for the 1990-91 Library/Book Fellows Program. The joint program of the American Library Association and the United States Information Agency will place approximately eight U.S. citizens overseas beginning September 1990. Stipends for Library/Book Fellows are $28,000 per year. Travel expenses (fellow and one dependent) to and from the host country will be reimbursed, and health and life insurance coverage are provided. Some hosts will assist with housing. The application deadline is April 15, 1990. Contact: Robert P. Doyle, Director, Library/Book Fellows Program, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611, 1-800-545-2433.

NEWBERRY CONFERENCE ON MEDIEVAL FRENCH LITERATURE

The Newberry Library Center for Renaissance Studies and Northwestern University will be presenting a conference titled "The Future of the Middle Ages: Medieval French Literature in the 1990s". The conference will be held at the Newberry on March 9-10, 1990. The registration fee is $25.00. Attendance at the conference dinner is an additional $35.00 and reservations with payment must be made by February 16. For further information, call 312-943-9090 or write to: Center for Renaissance Studies, The Newberry Library, 60 West Walton Street, Chicago, IL 60610-3380.
