

MINUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE, OCTOBER 14, 1968

The University Senate met in regular session at 4:00 p.m., Monday, October 14, 1968, in the Court Room of the Law Building. Chairman Sears presided. Members absent: Norman F. Billups*, L. L. Boyarsky, Thomas W. Brower, W. Merle Carter*, Robert J. DeAngelis*, Wendell C. DeMarcus*, D. F. Diedrich*, Phillip A. Duncan, Joseph B. Fugate, Ward Griffen*, Robert D. Haun*, John L. Howieson, Harris Isbell, Robert D. Jacobs*, Catherine Katterjohn*, Robert W. Kiser*, John A. Koepke*, James F. Lafferty*, Karl O. Lange*, Robert Lauderdale, Jr., James W. Little, Michael J. McNamara, L. Mae McPhetridge, Ray Marshall*, Dean H. Morrow*, Blaine F. Parker, William R. Proffit, John T. Reeves*, Mary Ellen Rickey, Thurlow R. Robe*, Sheldon Rovin*, Arthur W. Rudnick, Jr., Myron G. Sandifer, George W. Schwert, Paul Street, Willis A. Sutton, Jr., Roberta S. Taylor*, William J. Tisdall*, Daniel L. Weiss*, Raymond A. Wilkie*, Charles G. Williamson, Jr., Claudia Wells, Annie R. Brownlie*, Albert D. Kirwan, Robert F. Kerley, Glenwood L. Creech, Harry M. Bohannan, Leonard V. Packett, Marcia Dake*, George W. Denemark, Harold D. Gordon*, Joseph Hamburg, Ellis F. Hartford, J. P. Noffsinger, William A. Seay.

The Senate approved the requests of Mr. Phil Norman of the Courier Journal, Mr. Karry Powell of the Lexington Herald, Miss Dana Ewell of the Kernel, to sit in the meeting and report its proceedings, and that of Miss Debbie Clark, a student, to attend the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting of September 9, 1968, were approved with an amendment that the phrase "to the inclusion of Item 3" be added in the following paragraph on page 9 of the circulated minutes:

"The Senate approved a motion to permit the dissenters to the inclusion of Item 3 the privilege of informing the Secretary of the Senate of their dissent, to be recorded in the minutes . . ."

The Chairman ruled that the final motion in the minutes of September 9, 1968, was out of order since the Governing Regulations specifically provide that "a majority of the Senate shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business." This motion was:

Motion was made and seconded that at all subsequent meetings of the Senate a count be taken at the beginning of the meeting and if a quorum exists, it continue to exist until the meeting is adjourned.

The Secretary, University Senate, presented the proposed University Calendar for the 1971-72 academic year which had been prepared within the framework of guidelines set down by the University Senate and circulated to the faculty of the University under date of September 18, 1968, and recommended its approval. The Senate approved the 1971-72 University Calendar as circulated.

*Absence explained.

Dr. Rudd, Secretary of the University Senate Council, presented a brief report from the Senate Council, primarily for the benefit of the new members of the Senate. He cited the six defined functions of the Senate Council, namely, (1) to study and report or recommend to the Senate on any matters of concern to the Senate; (2) to receive, consider and recommend action on Senate committee reports; (3) to advise with the President on appointment and discharge of Senate committees and on personnel of such committees; (4) to function as the program committee of the Senate; (5) to act for the Senate on course and curriculum changes and on other matters delegated to it by the Senate, subject to the requirements of reporting and the power of the Senate to reverse Council action as stated in the minutes of May 14, 1962; and (6) to advise with the President on all matters relative to the welfare of the University which he might bring to it and to recommend other appropriate Senate committees for consideration of specific items of study.

Dr. Rudd then touched on a few of the highlights of the activities of the Council since the May 1968 meeting of the Senate. He stated that, on the average, the Council had met more than once a week, the length of these meetings having been as long as six hours and as short as forty-five minutes, to an average of around two-three hours.

In fulfilling the assigned role of the Senate Council in alleviating the routine business of the Senate in order to free it for its more important policy deliberating roles, Dr. Rudd stated that the Council had reviewed a very large number of course changes and proposed new courses as well as taking final review action on a number of new graduate programs which had been proposed in recent months; that upon the appropriate deans' recommendations, the Senate Council had reviewed a number of requests from former students for waiver of the two-drop rule for re-entry, approving some and disapproving others. He reminded the Senate of the appointment of the new Program Planning Subcommittee which is chaired by Professor Robert Ogletree and invited their attention to the recent circulation from Professor Ogletree in which he asked for an indication from each faculty member of his willingness or unwillingness to serve on committees to report on a series of topics indicated by an earlier questionnaire to be of major interest to the faculty. He encouraged the Senators to respond by October 18th, the deadline date set by Professor Ogletree, and assured them that their response would be very useful to the Program Planning Subcommittee.

Further actions Dr. Rudd cited as having been taken by the Senate Council were the initiation of plans early in June, on behalf of the Senate, for the farewell reception held for the Oswalds in late July; in its advisory role to the President, the holding of extended discussions with President Oswald prior to his departure and with Interim President Kirwan since his entry into his present role; on occasion, assisting the joint Faculty-Board Presidential Screening Committee in its deliberations; providing the President with panels of names from which replacement members of the standing and advisory committees of the Senate were chosen, as well as Personnel Committee replacements; meeting with representatives of a Student Advisory Committee appointed by President Oswald and, in particular, hearing the Committee's initial recommendations relative to improvement of a student advising system. In this connection he stated that it is expected the revised recommendations of this group would be presented to the Senate in the near future.

Dr. Rudd reported that the Senate Council had initiated a series of meetings with the Chairman of the nine standing committees of the Senate, having met thus far this semester with Professor Adelstein, Chairman of the Senate Advisory Committee on Student Affairs, and with Professor Griffin, Chairman of the Senate Advisory Committee on International Education Programs, and that others are scheduled for the near future. He stated that the purpose of these meetings is for the Senate Council to become better informed on the progress of individual committees and to learn some of the problems which committees may have encountered.

He reported that the Council had also met with three of the vice presidents individually to hear discussions of areas of joint interest, such as the initiation of new graduate programs, the University's relations with its publics, and the availability of resources for the University in the near future. He stated that for the most part, these have been discussions requested by the Council to keep current on matters which affect academic programs. He stated that some of these discussions would provide a base for future meetings of the University Senate.

Finally, on behalf of the Senate Council and at their direction, Dr. Rudd reported on one of the problems relating to the committee structure of the Senate, including both standing committees and advisory committees. He reminded the Senate that the present terms of membership on these committees is on a calendar year basis which had proven somewhat damaging to the continuity of deliberations of the committees and might have reduced their effectiveness. On behalf of the Senate Council he presented a motion that terms of members of standing and advisory committees of the Senate be redefined to terminate on June 30th rather than the end of the calendar year; hence, a committee would serve from July 1 to June 30 rather than the present January 1 to December 31; that the terms of incumbent members of such committees whose terms would expire December 31, 1968, be extended to June 30, 1969; and further, to facilitate the changeover between old and new members, that new members be named not later than April 1 each year so that a transition meeting for committees with retiring and entering members can be held prior to the end of the academic year this motion to affect the nine standing committees of the Senate and the Senate Advisory Committee on Privilege and Tenure.

The Senate approved this motion.

Vice President Albright addressed the Senators on the forthcoming Self-Study of the University. The text of Dr. Albright's statements follows:

Mr. Chairman and members of the Senate: In each 10-year period an institution which is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools is required by the accreditation standards to make a comprehensive self-study and to have the study evaluated at the institution by a qualified group of educators. The 10-year period for the University of Kentucky is ending this current year; consequently the time has arrived for us to begin our self-study in a few weeks.

The first step, after this brief one today, will be to recommend to the Board of Trustees on October 22nd that the self-study be authorized. Approximately 18 months will be required for the study and for the visitation. So, we shall have one of two general target dates, April of 1970, or September of 1970, for conclusion with the committee visitation. Which one of these will be used is dependent upon how soon we get started and how soon we conclude.

To be most effective the self-study must involve the institution's faculty and administration as heavily as possible, covering all units and all departments. In our case, we wish to realize the full participation of this Senate and to see the Senate use the opportunity of the self-study to enlarge knowledge and understandings of the entire institution, its conditions, its limitations, its problems, its promise, and its development. In saying all units, this means the Community College System and each of its colleges. The self-study of the System has already begun informally with faculty meetings in which explanations of procedures have been discussed, and with the initial phases of data collection. So the study is comprehensive. The past and the present are being examined in terms of resources, faculty, students, programs, clientele. These elements are to be related to the purpose and objectives of this institution.

The primary focus, however, will be upon the longer range goals essential to realizing the institution's defined role in higher education in this state and in this nation. This study, therefore, is far more than a survey--more than merely gathering information. It is conceivable that the results, if the study is well done, would even suggest a revision in the purposes and objectives of the institution or certainly the clarification of any tacit or undefined purpose.

In conclusion, Mr. Chairman, because of the importance of this study and the centrality of this Senate body, I offer a motion that the University Senate endorse the Association's self-study program for the University of Kentucky to be initiated in January 1969, and that subsequently the plan for the conduct of the study be reported to the Senate as soon as feasible.

The Senate approved the motion as presented by Vice President Albright.

Dr. Cochran, Chairman of the Undergraduate Council, presented a recommendation that the freshman English requirement be reduced from six to three credits for University students who receive a grade of B or above in ENG 105, Advanced Freshman Composition, and that this rule be effective with the 1969 Spring Semester. The Senate approved this recommendation as presented.

Dr. Cochran presented a second recommendation as follows:

Allow undergraduate students in good standing above the freshman level to select a maximum of four elective courses, with certain restrictions, to be taken on a pass-fail basis to count toward graduation but not to be used in calculating grade-point standing. Courses taken on a pass-fail basis shall be limited to those considered as elective in the student's program, and such other courses or types of courses as might be specifically approved by the Senate for a college or department. Prerequisites for such courses may be ignored at the student's own hazard. The student is expected to participate fully in the course and take all examinations as though he were enrolled on a regular basis. Students may not change from a pass-fail basis to a regular basis nor vice versa after the last date for entering an organized class.

He further recommended that this recommendation be approved to be effective with the 1969 Spring Semester unless this date presents insurmountable problems.

Motion was then made to amend the phrase "in good standing" in the first sentence to "not on academic probation" so that the statement would read "Allow undergraduate students not on academic probation above the freshman level to select a maximum of four elective courses, with certain restrictions, to be taken on a pass-fail basis to count toward graduation but not to be used in calculating grade-point standing . . ." The Senate approved the motion to amend the recommendation.

The Senate then approved the recommendation as presented by Dr. Cochran, and amended, to be effective with the 1969 Spring Semester if possible, otherwise for the 1969 Fall Semester.

Dr. Cochran presented a third recommendation that the changes in the General Studies Areas, which were circulated to the Senate Council under date of June 3, 1968, be approved as circulated. Motion was then made and approved to amend paragraph (b) of this recommendation to add "and the chairman of the department in which the substitution is to be made" to the end of the paragraph. The paragraph (b), as amended and approved, is as follows:

(b) A student who wishes to substitute an upper division course in the same department for a course listed in the General Studies Component may do so with the approval of the dean of the college in which he intends to major and the chairman of the department in which the substitution is to be made.

Motion was made and approved by the Senate to remove "SOC 240, Collective Behavior (3)", and to delete the phrase "any two of the following" from Sequence B. of Area VIII. Area VIII as amended and approved, follows:

Area VIII - Behavioral Sciences

A student may satisfy the general studies requirement in the Behavioral Sciences by completing one of the following sequences:

- | | | | |
|----|---------|------------------------------------|-----|
| A. | PSY 104 | Basic Psychology I | (3) |
| | PSY 106 | Basic Psychology II | (3) |
| B. | PSY 210 | General Psychology | (3) |
| | PS 201 | Introduction to Political Behavior | (3) |

An amendment was presented to combine Areas VII and VIII into Area VII under the title "Social and Behavioral Sciences", retaining sequences A, B, and C in Area VII and sequence A in Area VIII and blending sequence D in Area VII into sequence B, as amended, in Area VIII. Following discussion motion was made to table this amendment. After further discussion the motion to table the amendment was withdrawn. Motion was then made that the Senate vote on whether or not to table the amendment. The Senate voted not to table the amendment. The question was called and by the required two-thirds majority the Senate then voted to consider the amendment to combine the two areas. Amendment to combine Areas VII and VIII was then defeated by the Senate.

Motion was made to amend Area V B. to read "PHI 200, Introduction to Philosophy, or

Minutes of the University Senate, October 14, 1968 (Cont'd)

PHI 230, Ethics, plus one of the following: A-H 200, A-H 201, MUS 200" (the three courses presently designated under Option A. and which would remain in Option A. also). The Senate defeated this motion.

The question was called and by the required two-thirds majority the Senate then voted to vote on the original motion as presented an amended. The Senate approved the original motion as presented by Dr. Cochran, and amended. The original motion as approved, with amendments, is as follows:

3. General Studies Areas:

- (a) Withdraw all courses numbered 500 or higher from the General Studies Curriculum.
- (b) A student who wishes to substitute an upper division course in the same department for a course listed in the General Studies Component may do so with the approval of the dean of the college in which he intends to major and the chairman of the department in which the substitution is to be made.

Area VIII - Behavioral Sciences

A student may satisfy the general studies requirement in the Behavioral Sciences by completing one of the following sequences:

A.	PSY 104	Basic Psychology I	(3)
	PSY 106	Basic Psychology II	(3)
B.	PSY 210	General Psychology	(3)
	PS 201	Introduction to Political Behavior	(3)

Dr. Cochran stated that since there continued to be concern for the courses and options in the General Studies Areas the areas would continue to be under study and some additional recommendations could probably be expected toward the end of the year.

Dean Drennon presented a motion that students enrolled in A & S 300 for the current fall semester be allowed the option of taking this course on the pass-fail basis, and that those students wishing to exercise this option be required to so indicate by Friday, October 18, 1968. The Senate approved this motion.

On behalf of the Steering Committee for the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), the Steering Committee for Community Alliance for Responsible Social Action (CARSA), the Council of the United Campus Christian Fellowship, and the Lexington Peace Council, Dr. Engelberg, faculty representative of SDS, presented a motion requesting the Senate to extend its permission for University Convocations for presidential candidates in the 1968 campaign to the case of Mr. Fred Halstead, presidential candidate of the Socialist Workers Party. He stated that this convocation would be scheduled for Sunday, October 27, 1968, hence, it would not interfere with classes. Following extensive discussion the question was called, and the Senators voted to vote on the question. The motion was presented by Dr. Engelberg was then approved by the Senate.

The Senate adjourned at 5:56 p.m.
