

and for my mares. But I had expected that these men would have advised you or some one at my home within 20 miles of them when to send.

I cannot tell you anything pleasant yet to tell Mr Bryant about his colt. I deemed it best for the colt to give him a purging ball yesterday morning & the effects are not yet over - I cannot find anything pleasant for myself here and it would be hard to find it for any one else. Please give Mr Bryant my very kindest thanks for his kind present & say that I will do all I can for the colt if my health does not prevent it.

I wish I could have written a more agreeable letter, but you have had the Neuralgia & know how it is yourself.

My Dear Wife,

Your very welcome letter of the 21st postmarked 22nd inst reached me this forenoon.

While you are making money at home, I am just expending money wholesale here. My expenses to this day from the time me and the stable left you are $1500. And I have not thrown away one dollar. I am strongly tempted to sell every d — one of the horses at auction this week & come home. But I am sure to do wrong anyway whether I go or stay.

I have had and am likely to keep having your old pet - snow pain Neuralgia. in both jaw bones all the teeth all the face & head bones & the right eye. I have had to get
