

saying anything against my letters but I'm just trying to say that I have a hard time putting my feelings into writing so I'll just have to say -

I love you,
Anne.

My Dearest Bill, Although it is early I'm half asleep
but I wanted to write you a note. We sure will make a fine pair.
By ten o'clock we both will be asleep. We'll have to do what's sleeping before Thanksgiving so we won't fall asleep on each other.

I was glad to hear about Jess and Jim. Katie
