ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

July 3, 1965

Dear Victor:

Here is something that might interest you and Carolyn: not to print necessarily (though you are welcome to if you like) but just to read. It is not proofread but I think it is fairly legible.

Can you tell me this: we need someone to help us ~~design~~ design and get printed a book of photographs about the monastery. Routine job. Is there someone in this area, Lexington, Louisville or Cincinnati, who would be good at this, and would also help us to get a good printer and especially a good engraver? He would have to be willing to come down here and talk over with us the material we have, which is good, and also help us with the printer and engraver and the business end of it. We are in a word publishing the book ourselves. We could also if necessary come to wherever he is and get together with him if required and if it would save him trouble. Any suggestions would be appreciated.

How are you? J. is pleased with the longer Chuang Tzu and since it is so big he has changed his plans a little. I am glad of this.

Best wishes to you both. Hope to hear from you soon. Keep well. And God bless you.

Cordially in Christ,

Tom.
