WILDCAT HEAD COACH

Eddie Sutton's career in coaching started at Tulsa Central, then on to Southern Idaho Junior College. He held two major head coaching jobs – one of them at Arkansas. In April 1985, he became only the second person to head the University of Kentucky Basketball Program since Adolph Rupp. Sutton's three-year UK record now stands at 77 wins and 21 losses for a winning percentage of 78.5. He has now completed 19 seasons as a head coach and has an overall record of 419 wins and 146 losses; a 74.1 winning percentage. He is one of 23 active coaches who have won more than 400 games. In 1986, Sutton was voted National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press. This year marks the 12th straight year that Sutton has guided a team into the NCAA Tournament.
