

Figure 1. Floor plan of the building. The building is a three-story structure with a central hallway and rooms on both sides.

The building is a three-story structure with a central hallway and rooms on both sides. The floor plan shows a central horizontal hallway with rooms on either side. The building is enclosed in a rectangular border.