

Harriette Simpson's Boarding House - Burnside, Ky.

1-Y-709

Here I had just ~~an~~
in the study ~~to~~ had an upstairs room with a little fireplace, I worked on my short story course and dreamed that the next mail - twice a week by mule - would bring a B - but I don't think it ever did

A Photograph Card by W M Cline Co Chattanooga Tenn

81m

330

38a

C.1

I attended Berea College for two years, and when I had to start earning my living at eighteen I got a job as teacher of a one room school at Hargis, Ky. on Cave Creek which flows into the Cumberland below Gholson Narrows but several miles above Smith Shoals --- or the shoals that were; I keep forgetting the dam. While ~~liv~~ teaching there I boarded in this house which is more or less described in Mountain Path. The people in this school and in this home were NOT in Mountain Path, though they along with people in various other sections of the county where I had taught insisted that they were. Years ago, a friend Bernice Mitchell at home, took pictures of the community, but I think they are at my mother's place along with manuscripts and other things; these are some I bought in Burnside, made I think for the tourist trade.